LABOR WILL FIGHT FOR U.S

GUNS ORDERED ABOARD SHIPS OF ARMS CARGO

Ruling by President Gives a Direct Challenge to Germany.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Washington, D. C., March 12.—[Special.]—President Wilson today instructed the navy department to arm American ships carrying war munitions to the allies as well as other American vessels, whether loaded with contraband or noncontraband cargoes.

By this step the government not only serves notice that it will employ force to protect the rights of American ships, of whatever character, but challenges Germany's contention that armed merchantmen and munitions ships are legally subject to destruction without warning.

STATEMENT TO THE WORLD.

The government's decision was proclaimed to the world in the following official statement issued by Secretary of State Lansing:

"In view of the announcement of the imperial German government on Jan. 31, 1917, that all ships, those of neutrals included, met within certain zones of the high seas would be sunk without any precautions being taken for the safety of the persons on board, and without the exercise of visit and search, the government of the United States has determined to place upon all American merchant vessels sailing through the barred areas an armed guard for the protection of the vessels and the lives of the persons on board."

This announcement was sent to the envoys of all belligerent and neutral nations and will be communicated to the German government by the Swiss government.

ORDERS TO GUN CREWS.

Secretary Lansing transmitted to Secretary of the Navy Daniels a memorandum for guidance in formulating the instructions to the naval gun crews aboard the merchantmen. The substance of the Lansing memorandum follows:

1. German submarines are acting under orders of Jan. 31, which are illegal, and, therefore, they may be treated as pirates. They have no standing before the law of nations.

2. American ships which are to sail with armament and crews are within their rights from a legal standpoint. The only law which they need recognize is the law of cruisers, which specifies that a belligerent warship must warn a peaceful merchantman and visit and search the vessel.

DUTY LIKE POLICEMAN.

3. The crews which are to be placed aboard the ships have the same status as armed guards. Their position is analogous to that of a policeman who is placed aboard a street car to protect the passengers from strike violence.

4. The armed guard is responsible to the navy department for the protection of the property intrusted to it.

5. The commanders of the crew have the right to fire upon a German submarine whenever it is seen in the barred zone, providing it does not make unmistakable signs of intentions to adhere to cruiser law.

6. The fact that Germany has publicly announced that submarines have been ordered to violate this law should be borne in mind, because the submarine commanders cannot respect cruiser law without violating the admiralty orders.

7. As the first duty of the gun crews is to protect the lives and property intrusted to them, it would be unwise to risk disaster in the belief that cruiser law would be respected by submarine crews.

CLEARANCE PAPERS PROOF.

The state department rules that every ship which has a right to leave an American port has the right to protection by American guns and American gunners. The mere fact that clearance papers are granted to munition ships proves, in the judgment of the department, that such vessels must be accorded the rights given to them by cruiser law.

Germany may contend that merchantmen armed by the American navy and carrying naval gunners are public ships of the United States, in which transportation of contraband would constitute a violation of neutrality. The administration holds that they are not public ships.

LATE NEWS BULLETINS

LONDON, March 13, 3:45 a. m.—Special dispatches received here from Holland contain current reports of German preparations for an expected great offensive on the western front. The latest rumor, which is attributed to Belgian sources, is that the Germans intend to break through on the Yser, with Calais their objective.

The Belgian newspaper, Echo Belge, which now is published at The Hague, hears that Field Marshal von Falkenhayn has passed through Tirlement on his way to the Flemish front.

Miami, Fla., March 12.—At a meeting of Florida naval militia here tonight, R. M. Thompson, former naval officer and president of the Naval Academy Association of New York, said he had "positive information" that a German submarine is lurking off the coast of Florida "waiting for the overt act precipitating war with Germany to begin destruction of American commerce."

LONDON, March 13, 3 a. m.—A Daily Mail dispatch from Vevey says Ritaat Pasha, formerly Turkish minister to France, has left Geneva hurriedly for Turkey. It is understood he is charged with a mission in connection with the differences which have arisen between Constantinople and Berlin on account of the reverses in Mesopotamia, which are attributed by the Turks to Germany's action in forcing her to send her best troops to help the Austro-Germans. It also is reported that Bedry Bey, governor of Constantinople, has arrived at Berlin on a similar mission.

Bisbee, Ariz., March 12.—Scores of German reservists have crossed into the Mexican state of Sonora from points in Arizona within the last week, an agent of the departmen of justice announced here tonight. The agent said they appeared to be scattering to all parts of Mexico.

SKIDDING CAR KILLS YOUTH; BOY RUN OVER

An automobile ride of two young men cousins and twin sisters ended in tragedy last night when their machine, after skidding into a telegraph pole in Grand avenue, was wrecked by a collision with a street car. One of the young men was killed. Both sisters were injured and one was disfigured perhaps for life.

The Dead.

John F. Mayer, 21 years old, 2926 Lake Park avenue; skull fractured; died at midnight in St. Anne's hospital.

The Injured.

Isabel Ellingson, 17 years old, 1420 North Claremont avenue; nose broken and face badly cut.

Julia Ellingson, 17; right arm lacerated and body bruised.

Michael F. Mayer, 22 years old, 3052 Palmer avenue; bruised about body.

They were driving at a smart clip east in Grand avenue with John Mayer at the wheel and Miss Isabel Ellingson beside him when the machine skidded and crashed into a telegraph pole.

Alex Wexler, 9 years old, of 1243 South Carolina avenue, was run over and fatally hurt by a party of autoists in the car of Joseph M. Simon, a tailor, at Twelfth street and South Francisco avenue. Isadore Shapiro, a clerk, 3611 Douglas boulevard, was driving the car.

Mrs. Victoria Suppa of 1464 Indiana avenue was killed by a Parmelee dray at Twelfth street and Wabash avenue.

PEACE AFTER WAR, TOPIC IN BRITAIN SOON

Lloyd George Sets Forth Issues Council of the Empire Faces.

[A war council of the British empire is about to assemble in London. Its deliberations will extend over the latter part of March and into April. It is understood in England that France and Russia have nearly reached the summit of their resources and that hereafter Great Britain must bear the burden. A statement by the premier reached "The Tribune" last night and is given herewith.]

BY DAVID LLOYD GEORGE.
[The British Premier.]

I regard this council as marking the beginning of a new epoch in the history of the empire. There will, of course, be domestic questions which each part of the empire must settle for itself. Such domestic matters will be our only reservation, but we propose that everything else shall be, so to speak, on the table.

POST-WAR QUESTIONS.

The fate of the German colonies is one obvious question, but there are many questions of equal moment, all difficult problems, connected with the making of peace. The war policy of the empire will be clearly defined, and of great importance is what I may call the preparation for peace. That will involve not only demobilization but such post-war questions as the migration of our people to other parts of the empire, and the settlement of soldiers on land.

It seems to us an impossible and undemocratic proposition to think that the overseas nations should place in the field armies containing an enormous proportion of their best manhood and not want to have a say, and a real say, in determining the use to which they are to be put.

NEW UNITY FOR EMPIRE.

Things never can be the same after the war as they were before it. Five democracies from all parts of one empire cannot shed their blood and treasure, and with a heroism and disregard for the cost which has been beyond all praise, without leaving memories of comradeship and great accomplishment which will never die.

Of this I am certain: The peoples of the empire will have found a unity in war such as never existed before—a unity not only in history but of purpose also. What practical change in the organization of the empire that will mean I will not venture to predict. We stand at this moment on the verge of the greatest liberation the world has seen since the French revolution. I am certain that the peoples who have stood together and staked literally everything in order to bring about that liberation are going to find some way of perpetuating that unity afterwards on an equal basis. There will be much to do. The peace terms will be only the beginning.

A MORE ORDERED FREEDOM.

After they are satisfactorily arranged, we shall have to set to work to build up more ordered freedom and fraternity, which is the only security for human peace and progress, and which militarism has destroyed, as it is certain that the nations which have borne the heat and burden of the day, in overthrowing that militarism, will take a leading share in building that new earth which they have made possible by their sacrifices.

LOYALTY

Mayor Mitchel's Defense Committee Begins Census Today in New York City to Gather Opinions on Protection of U. S. Ships.

NEW YORK, March 12.—With a view, it was said, "to give an opportunity to citizens—men and women—to make known their opinions on the protection of American citizens and vessels from unlawful attack," Mayor Mitchel's committee on national defense announced tonight that he would begin tomorrow the circulation of a petition for signatures. Hotels, clubs, political headquarters, telegraph and public offices and police stations will be asked to coöperate.

The petition to which the citizens will be urged to affix their signatures reads as follows:

"To the president of the United States: As an American, faithful to American ideals of justice, liberty, and humanity, and confident that the government has exerted its most earnest efforts to keep us at peace with the world, I hereby declare my absolute and unconditional loyalty to the government of the United States and pledge my support to you in protecting American rights against unlawful violence upon land and sea, in guarding the nation against hostile attacks, and in upholding international rights."

The committee added that it already had obtained signatures of "citizens representing all shades of opinion and all nationalities." These included the names of the following:

Chas. E. Hughes,
Joseph H. Choate,
Jacob H. Schiff,
Alton B. Parker,

COUNCIL REFUSES TO CALL HOLIDAY FOR ST. PATRICK

They'll be keeping the city hall open on Saturday, which is St. Patrick's day, and the blame be on the city council, for it's the first time in fifty years [more or less] that they haven't closed the hall in honor of the saint.

Ald. William R. O'Toole introduced a resolution yesterday to declare a city hall vacation on St. Patrick's day, but he was not able to muster the votes.

"It's been the policy for fifty years to close the hall on St. Patrick's day," said Ald. O'Toole.

"It's about time we cut out this tomfoolery," retorted Ald. Utpatel. "Why not have a Kaiser day or a Czar Nicholas day?"

NEW YORK PUTS SUFFRAGE UP TO VOTE OF PEOPLE

Senate Passes Bill, 39 to 7—Former Foe Aids Measure.

Albany, N. Y., March 12.—The resolution to provide for a referendum on the woman suffrage question at the state election next November was passed in the senate tonight by a vote of 39 to 7.

Tonight's action was the last step in the legislative procedure preliminary to referring the subject to the electorate. The measure is concerned with amending the state constitution and consequently does not have to receive the approval of the governor.

Majority Leader Elon R. Brown, whose opposition to the proposition heretofore had been pronounced, surprised the great throng of women in the galleries by supporting the resolution. In explaining his changed attitude, he said, although he was voting for the resolution, he was more firmly opposed to its adoption than ever.

Seeks Final Settlement.

"Its passage last year," he said, "and the fact that my party at Saratoga recommended a resubmission of the question, and many events transpiring since the last legislative session persuade me that it is desirable to make this attempt to get a final settlement.

"I am opposed to woman suffrage because it conflicts with my ideals of manhood and womanhood. Chivalry is not dead, and who would kill it by taking from man part of his obligation as a protector and attempting the transfer to woman an obligation that is solely his?

"Another serious feature of the proposal is its effect on the birth rate. I will not deliberately vote to change the policy of the state in a way that will reduce the birth rate. I regard the birth control agitation as an offshoot of suffrage. Take an enumeration of those who are advocating birth control and see how many are suffragists."

Oklahoma House Passes Bill.

Oklahoma City, Okla., March 12.—A joint resolution, submitting the question of woman suffrage to the voters of the state, was passed today by the house of representatives. The resolution, with the literacy test clause stricken out, will be returned to the senate for concurrence.

UNIONS OFFER WAR AID; RAIL STRIKE IMPENDS

May Tie Up Roads Saturday Unless Their Wage Demands Are Granted.

It was persistently rumored last night that every railroad in the United States is to be tied up by a "progressive" strike to begin on Saturday. The only alternative was declared to be a flat concession by the roads of an eight hour day.

It was said that only a few roads would be affected at first, but that by Wednesday of next week all lines would be without men to operate. The report was not confirmed by brotherhood chiefs. Some of the railway heads residing in Chicago are out of the city and those who could be reached said they had heard nothing further than what was printed in THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE announcing that the whole matter would reach a crisis at the New York conference the day after tomorrow.

WILSON READY TO ACT.

A report from Cleveland where the union leaders of the central states conferred on Saturday, said that the Northwestern and Burlington railway employés were to be called out on Saturday, contingent upon the eight hour concession.

From Washington it was reported the government is watching the situation and that President Wilson is prepared to move in case serious danger threatens. Union men, however, were said to be desirous of avoiding anything that might embarrass the government.

Some 200 local leaders of the brotherhoods are expected to meet in Washington today. These are from the southeast. The southwestern leaders will meet in St. Louis today, those from the eastern roads in New York tomorrow, and those from the western lines in St. Paul tomorrow. On Thursday the general conference will be held.

IGNORE ADAMSON LAW.

It is understood the trainmen will demand the straight eight hour day without reference to any action on the Adamson law.

Efforts made in New York to discover the source of the strike report were without success, though the rumor gained in currency. Plans for averting a catastrophe were announced by the National Civic federation and will be placed before the National Council of Defense. It is proposed that conciliation committees be formed in every industrial center.

In Chicago railroad heads were without information as to the reported walkout on Saturday. An official of the Northwestern said late at night that an effort had been made to discover the truth of the rumored order for a walkout, but without success.

MAY ISSUE EARLY ORDER.

From other sources it was said that orders for a strike will be given at once, to be confirmed later in case of a failure of the negotiations to take place in New York on Thursday. One of these reports came from Alliance, O., where it was said that 300 engineers, firemen, conductors, and trainmen on the Alliance division of the New York Central were ordered to report "after noon on Thursday" for orders concerning the strike situation. It was said that passenger trains are to be run "for five days after Saturday," and that munitions and troop trains are to be in no wise delayed.

This report from Alliance tallied with the reports from Washington and Cleveland.

The four railway brotherhood chiefs were in Washington yesterday to talk with the local chairmen. They will go to New York to meet with the railroad managers on Thursday.

Leaders, Speaking for 3,000,000 Workers, Declare Fealty.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., March 12.—[Special.]—Although pledging organized labor to stand by the colors and offering its services to the country to defend and preserve the republic against its enemies, the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, speaking for representatives of nearly a hundred unions and railroad brotherhood organizations, with memberships totaling 3,000,000, issued a statement tonight calling upon the government to stand by the principles of trade unionism in all its dealings.

The statement embaces a lengthy explanation of the attitude of trade unionism toward war and a consideration of existing conditions respecting capital and labor. Then it declares that if the nation faces danger unionism will be loyal. The statement is approved by more than 150 representatives of national and international unions.

PLEDGE GIVEN TO NATION.

The following is the pledge:

"We, the officers of the national and international trades unions of America in national conference assembled in the capital of our nation, hereby pledge ourselves in peace or in war, in stress or in storm, to stand unreservedly by the standards of liberty and the safety and preservation of the institutions and ideals of our republic.

"In this solemn hour of our nation's life, it is our earnest hope that our republic may be safeguarded in its unswerving desire for peace; that our people may be spared the horrors and the burdens of war; that they may have the opportunity to cultivate and develop the arts of peace, human brotherhood and a higher civilization.

"But, despite all our endeavors and hopes, should our country be drawn into the maelstrom of the European conflict, we, with these ideals of liberty and justice herein declared, as the indispensable basis for national policies, offer our services to our country in every field of activity to defend, safeguard and preserve the republic of the United States of America against its enemies, whomsoever they may be, and we call upon our fellow workers and fellow citizens in the holy name of labor, justice, freedom and humanity to devotedly and patriotically give like service."

OPPOSED TO POLICE DUTY.

Among the salient qualifications contained in the labor pronunciamento, which is to be sent to the president of the United States, members of congress, and government officials generally, is a request that a clear differentiation be made between military service for the nation and police duty and that service in industrial disputes should be carefully distinguished from service to the country.

Another reservation which the declaration says organized labor has earned the right to make is that industrial reorganization of the country in time of war should be undertaken only in consultation with those engaged in the industry, and that organized labor should have representation on all agencies to determine policies for national defense and to control publicity during war times.

CONDITIONS MUST BE JUST.

"Labor demands the right in war times," the statement says, "to be the recognized defender of wage earners against the same forces which in former wars have made national necessity an excuse for more ruthless methods.

"As the representatives of the wage earners we assert that conditions of work and pay should conform to principles of human welfare and justice.

"A nation cannot make an effective defense against an outside danger if groups of citizens are asked to take part in a war though smarting with a sense of keen injustice inflicted by the government. The government must recognize the organized labor movement as the agency through which it must coöperate with wage earners.

"Industrial justice is the right of those living within our country. With this right there is associated obligation. In war time obligation takes the form of service in defense of the republic. This service may be either military or industrial.

"We hold it to be incontrovertible

SNOW MANTLES CITY, TELEGRAPH WIRES BROKEN

A heavy, wet snow that descended on Chicago last night temporarily interrupted telegraph service over the middle west and caused some delay to trains coming into Chicago. Property damage throughout the city was small.

The damage to telephone and telegraph wires, it was announced, was inconsiderable. Although wires in many places snapped under the weight of the snow, no poles were down, and service was quickly resumed.

The storm caught thousands of theatergoers returning home. Little damage was suffered by the elevated and surface lines.

that the government which demands that men and women give their labor power, their bodies, or their lives to its service should also demand the service, in the interest of these human beings, of all wealth and the products of human toil—property.

"We hold that if workers may be asked in time of national peril or emergency to give more exhausting service than the principles of human welfare warrant, that service should be asked only when accompanied by increased guarantees and safeguards, and when the profits which the employer shall secure have been limited to fixed percentages.

"We declare that such determination of profits should be based on the costs."

"Menace of Militarism."

Militarism, the spokesmen of the conference asserted, was distrusted by organized labor, but they asserted it to be the duty of the nation to "defend itself against injustice and invasion."

"The menace of militarism arises," the statement continued, "through isolating the defensive functions of the state from civic activities and from creating military agencies out of touch with the masses."

Upon this the workers based their demand that military service should not be deemed to demand service in strikes or other industrial disputes.

"We hold," the statement added, "that industrial service shall be deemed equally meritorious as military service. It is fundamental, therefore, that the government coöperate with the American organized labor movement for this purpose. Service in government factories and private establishments, in transportation agencies, should conform to trade union standards.

Equal Wage for Women.

"Wherever changes in the organization of industry are necessary, they should be made in accord with plans agreed upon by representatives of the government and those engaged and employed in the industry.

"When women may be employed we insist that equal pay for equal work shall prevail.

"Finally labor should have representation on all agencies determining and administering policies for national defense. It is particularly important that organized labor should have representatives on all boards authorized to control publicity during war times."

OHIO MINERS, REFUSED RAISE, STILL RESTIVE

Demands for an increase in pay already have been presented to the coal mine operators by the coal miners of Ohio. The operators and miners met in Columbus last Thursday to consider the demands. The operators refused an advance. They said the present contract with the miners, which does not expire until April, 1918, was a four state agreement and they could not raise wages in one state without raising them in the other three. They agreed to be present at another meeting, if John White, national president of the United Mineworkers of America, called it. Mr. White, whose headquarters are in Indianapolis, has issued no call as yet.

"The miners at present get the highest wages of any miners in the world," said C. M. Moderwell, formerly president of the Illinois Coal Operators' association. "They receive 65 cents a ton for mining coal. White and all the national officers of the mineworkers are opposed to demanding increased wages at this time. Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois branch of the mineworkers, is conferring with White. I am told Farrington also is opposed to making further demands at present.

"The complaint of the miners is that they do not get in sufficient time at their work because there are not enough railroad cars to haul the output of the mines. This will be remedied in a short time. I think the prospect for a strike is remote."

If the miners decided to demand more pay, 75,000 men in Illinois, 25,000 in Indiana, 40,000 in Ohio, and 5,000 in Michigan would be affected.

U-BOAT RAVAGES MAY FORCE U. S. TO FEED ALLIES

Shipping Board Lays Plans for Building Fleets of Grain Vessels.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., March 12.—[Special.]—Despite all that the entente allies may be able to do, Germany's ruthless submarine campaign to "starve England" may be a success. In that event the United States would be called on to keep supplies going to the allies, according to administration officials.

It was this possibility that caused the federal shipping board to issue a call for a conference in this city of wooden shipbuilders on the Atlantic and gulf coasts for the purpose of bringing about an exchange of views between wooden shipbuilding experts, lumbermen, and members of the board.

The plan which members of the board have in mind is to standardize all essential parts of the vessels and have the parts built at interior points wherever necessary. This would relieve yards on tidewater for the work of assembling the shapes and constructing the vessels.

Advance in Food Prices Shown.

Retail food prices in the United States advanced 19 per cent in the year ending with Jan. 15, as shown in statistics prepared today by the bureau of labor statistics. The increase was greater than for the three years previous combined. The four years' gain was 30 per cent.

Every food staple except coffee and tea advanced during the year. Onions and potatoes led with increases of more than 50 per cent. Some of the advances were:

May Indict Price Boosters.

Indictments of those responsible for the high cost of living are predicted by the administration as a result of a conference held here today between officials representing the department of justice in its nation-wide investigation of this question, Attorney General Gregory and Assistant Attorney General G. Carroll Todd, in charge of anti-trust prosecutions.

George W. Anderson, United States district attorney at Boston, in general charge of the government inquiry; Frank M. Swacker, who represented the government in the indictments secured in New York against certain coal operators, and Robert M. Childs, special investigator for the department in Chicago, came to Washington to make a report to the attorney general on the result of their investigations.

While none of the officials in Washington would discuss what steps are to be taken, it is believed that the next indictments will be sought in Chicago or some other western city.

Canada Potato Crop Smaller.

Ottawa, Ont., March 12.—Canada's yield of potatoes last year was smaller by more than 1,300,000 bushels than that of 1915, but the exports of this vegetable were worth nearly three times as much, according to figures made public here today by the bureau of census and statistics.

The 1916 crop totaled 61,229,000 bushels as against 62,605,000 bushels in the previous twelve months. The 1916 exports were valued at $1,424,519, as compared with $506,302 in 1915.

The ground sown to potatoes last year was 449,000 acres, or 30,000 acres smaller than that in 1915. Last year's average yield per acre was 136.21 bushels, as compared with 130.85 bushels in 1915.

WILSON SHOWS A STEADY GAIN

Washington, D. C., March 12.—President Wilson remained in his room today because of the cold which kept him in his bed most of last week.

It was said he was steadily improving and would be able to go out within a few days.

The president was able to confer with Secretary Lansing and Senator Martin, the Democratic leader of the senate, during the day, but it appeared probable that the usual Tuesday cabinet meeting would be canceled.

STRIKE TIES UP CARS AT CAPITAL

Washington, D. C., March 12.—Traffic on about one-half the street car lines in this city—those operated by the Washington Railway and Electric company—was suspended tonight owing to a strike of motormen and conductors called early in the day. Limited service was maintained during part of the day by strike breakers, and will be resumed tomorrow after daylight.

Germany Relies on Indemnities to Pay War Debt; Break with U. S. Terrific Blow

Below will be found the second uncensored article on conditions in Germany by Ross Whytock. Mr. Whytock was the New York World's Berlin correspondent, and he returned on the ship that brought Former Ambassador Gerard to Havana.

BY ROSS WHYTOCK.

[Copyright: 1917: By Press Publishing Company (New York World).]

HAVANA, March 12.—Germany's financial hopes are based on victory. She relies upon indemnities or valuable trade concessions to pay her tremendous war debts. Her financiers who worked out her loans based all their calculations on victory. They do not dare contemplate defeat, for under her present plans defeat would mean possible bankruptcy.

Germany was serious when she made her peace offer through the United States. She realized she was in a desperate plight with regard to foodstuffs. She felt she could not continue the struggle much further, for people from the highest to the lowest wanted peace, and so the government made the peace proposal.

U-Boat Policy Fought.

When the proposal was rejected by the allies the clamor for a stringent submarine campaign began anew. There has been an element in Germany which has ever contended that through the submarine alone could Germany hope to bring her enemies to a discussion of peace terms. There was a strong opposition to the ruthless submarine campaign from an element largely composed of Socialists and the Progressive People's party.

These opponents contended against a stringent submarine policy not from a humanitarian standpoint but because they wished to hold the friendship of the United States. They felt it was not expedient to follow a course that would give Germany a new enemy.

Not Keen for U. S. Break.

Germany was not keen to have the United States break with her, for she knew she would need a powerful friend when it came to a settlement of the war, but the rejection of the peace proposal in conjunction with certain information that the United States was only bluffing brought about the inauguration of the underseas campaign on Feb. 1.

The information that the United States was bluffing and would not sever diplomatic relations was conveyed to German officials by certain Americans in Berlin. When the news reached Berlin that diplomatic relations had been severed the officials and the people were astounded. It was one of the most terrific blows which had been dealt them since the beginning of hostilities. The break has been most discouraging to the majority of the German people.

Justify Subsea War.

Now they insist that the submarine war shall go on to a finish. They say England has violated all the tenets of international law by establishing a blockade of Germany. Had this blockade been solely confined to German ports it might have been justified, they argue.

But when England blockades by stopping and searching all ships bound for neutral European countries and by extending this blockade to all the seas she is guilty of a breach of international law, and Germany is within her rights when she establishes a submarine blockade of all waters about England, the coast of France, and the Mediterranean sea.

Germany hopes to bring England to the same condition in which she is at present. She wishes to make the pinch for food so stringent that the English people will insist on their government meeting a peace conclave with Germany.

Germany believes it is England who is the stumbling block toward peace. She believes England holds the entente together. Germany feels that France and Russia would willingly listen to peace proposals were it not for the opposition of England.

Number of U-Boats Unknown.

The number of submarines which Germany has in service at present is not accurately known. Members of the embassy family who have had opportunities to investigate Germany's submarine situation state that the empire has less than 300 undersea boats and that under present conditions she can produce something over 100 boats each year.

The submarines used in the campaign are of the regular type. There has been no attempt made to turn out supersubmarines which would require large crews. The crews of the regular subsea craft number about twenty men and are capable of fifteen days' cruising.

There is no difficulty in recruiting men for submarine service. As a matter of fact, it is a service extremely popular with the men and officers of the navy, and the volunteers far exceed the requirements. It is in the submarines that the men and officers win medals and promotions, and, recognizing the terrific dangers that lie before them, they gladly ask for the service.

Cruise About in Groups.

The submarines now cruise about in groups, and each flotilla is in wireless touch with the other and with the home station. Should a merchant ship escape through one part of the submarine cordon, the word is passed along to the other blockaders, and it speedily finds itself hedged about by the enemy.

Germany sincerely believes her submarine campaign will be a fruitful one. She believes it will compel England to accede to her desire for peace.

Not only is the campaign a stroke at the food ships of England, but also a blow at the coal mining industry of the United Kingdom. England imports a large amount of timber to hold up her mine galleries. German authorities say that by sinking ships with timber the mining industry of England will be paralyzed, thus depriving the nation of power for her workshops, her fleet, and her merchant ships.

It is said in Germany that England has less than a two months' food supply and that three months of arduous submarine campaigning would reduce England almost to the state in which Germany now finds herself.

Germany argues that the war will not be settled by the armies, but through the stomach of her arch enemy—England.

"Starve England and we shall have the peace we desire," is the cry of Germany.

Cares for Fighting Machine.

Germany's first consideraion since the beginning of hostilities has been for her fighting machine. The army and the navy have ever had first call on the foodstuffs and materials of the nation. The fighting men have been and will be better fed than the civilian population.

Although Germany is short in many materials, the shortage is not sufficiently acute to lessen the effectiveness of her fighting machine. But this will not be a permanent state of affairs for in many valuable necessities the end is in view.

German ingeniousness, however, has enabled the nation to find substitutes for materials absolutely exhausted. Many of these substitutes are not nearly as efficient as the original material, but they have been of sufficient aid to enable the nation to continue without any apparent diminution of her fighting strength.

Has Plenty of Copper.

In copper Germany appears to have a sufficient supply to continue her struggle for another year or two. Plenty of copper is still available through the requisitioning by the government of copper cooking utensils, boilers, and such articles. German officials maintain they have no fears of a complete exhaustion of their copper stock before the war shall end.

They point out that Germany is equipped with sufficient munitions now to carry on the war for another year and that peace will have come long before her muntions are in any danger of depletion.

German ingenuity, however, comes a cropper with several articles among the most important of which are cotton and leather.

The supply of cotton is well-nigh exhausted and the German mills are now working up shoddy into clothes. The government will not allow most forms of dry goods to be sold except on certificates and these will not be granted unless an absolute need for the material is apparent. Men are now limited to two suits of clothes a year and prices have jumped considerably.

Big Shortage in Leather.

There is a decided shortage of leather and the German scientists are at their wits' end seeking substitutes. In the case of belting for machinery paper is substituted. Paper is spun into threads in the textile mills and then woven. A very effective belting has resulted.

A good pair of shoes costs from 30 to 40 marks—almost double ante-bellum prices. The empire has been mapped out into shoe districts, each district taking care of its own population. Only two pairs of shoes are allowed each civilian a year.

German genius is being hard pressed to find substitutes for rubber, but up to date the frantic efforts of the scientists have met with indifferent success.

Nitrate of soda is sadly needed by Germany. Nitrate in the form of nitric acid is one of the most important products in the manufacture of explosives.

The sulphur shortage has resulted in the working up of iron pyrites as a substitute.

Coal is being mined in Germany at between 60 and 70 per cent of the production before the war. A shortage of labor and transportation facilities has been the main cause for a cut down of this industry.

Substitute for Manganese.

Shortage of manganese used in the manufacture of steel has been somewhat embarrassing, but it was recently anounced that an efficient and adequate substitute had been discovered.

The supply of shellac is completely exhausted. Shellac is greatly used for insulations in electrical machinery, and its absence is a trying blow to the electrical industry.

The nation is decidedly short of lead, nickel, and tin. Old lead piping and that from stained glass windows is being taken over by the government.

Because of the decided scarity of grease the price of soap has risen to almost impossible heights. Soap which in pre-war days sold for 30 pfennigs a cake now sells for six marks.

No platinum may be used whatsoever, and terrific penalties are imposed upon dentists who defy the mandates of the government. Gold is almost impossible to secure.

GERARD REACHES U. S.; GUARDS BAG OF DOCUMENTS

Key West, Fla., March 12.—[Special.]—Former Ambassador Gerard arrived from Havana late this afternoon and after a brief rest took a train for Washington. Since leaving Berlin on Feb. 10 he has been a prey to anxiety not altogether unjustifiable. The fear of German spies who might have sought to gain possession of a small leather bag which Mr. Gerard has ever kept under his own charge, was not condusive to peace of mind.

The contents of the bag are for the eyes of President Wilson. The six satchels containing $23,000 in gold, which the ambassador brought with him from Berlin, were intrusted to the care of others.

Not so with the mysterious bag. Mr. Gerard has ever been its guardian. One of the documents which it contains is the treaty which Germany sought to have Mr. Gerard sign. The ambassador will arrive in Washington on Wednesday.

As far as is known the only statement Mr. Gerard made today regarding his plans was one to the effect that he would not accept the candidacy for mayor of New York City if that should be offered him.

RISK LIFE AT SEA; ASK PAY BOOST

New York, March 12.—Announcement that wage increases amounting to 75 per cent, "as a war risk," have been demanded of the International Mercantile Marine company, by the seamen on the American line steamships, was made here today by Gustave A. Braun, secretary of the International Seamen's union.

Mr. Braun said he talked with an official of the company who would guarantee no more than a 50 per cent increase with additional insurance for the crews if a company could be found to write the policies, together with payment of the passage of the men to their homes in case their ship was sunk.

CHINA TO BREAK WITH GERMANY?

PEKING, March 11.—The senate today approved the severance of relations with Germany by a vote of 152 to 37. It is expected that the government will take action to this end tomorrow [Monday].

SHACKLETON TO ENLIST FOR WAR

LONDON, March 13, 3:10 a. m.—Sir Ernest Shackleton, the explorer, who now is at Sydney, Australia, says he is going into active war service, according to a Reuter dispatch from that place.

MELTING ICE SHOWS AUTO IN CLAY HOLE

The melting of the ice in an abandoned clay hole at One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street and Winchester avenue of the Illinois Brick company near the Burr Oak inn disclosed an automobile known to have been that of Sam Harris, one of the owners of the notorious inn. Harris' car was of a special color and had cushions of extraordinary thickness which made the identification practically certain.

The police were unable to explain why the steering gear of the car had been lashed so that the car could not turn. The rear doors are missing and the rear tires were stripped from the rims and lay in the tonneau.

Harris had the car less than a week when it was stolen. The Aetna Insurance company repaid him for his loss.

MEXICAN CHIEFS CONSIDER OFFER FROM GERMANY?

U. S. Gets Evidence That Zimmermann Note Finds Favor.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., March 12.—[Special.]—The state department has received information tending to establish the opinion that Gen. Obregon and a clique of politicians who surround Carranza have actually entered into an agreement with German agents whereby they have qualifiedly given promises that they will consider the Zimmermann proposals for an alliance between Germany and Mexico in the event of trouble between Washington and Berlin.

The precise nature of the proposals discussed by Obregon and the kaiser's agents is not known. The strength which Obregon might marshal if he ever attempted to carry out the pact is a matter of speculation here. In addition to Obregon, the administration is informed, Louis Cabrera and Rafael Zubaran are playing parts in the intrigue.

Could Oust Carranza?

The trio is admitted to be more powerful in Mexico than Carranza. It is conceded that a revolution financed by Cabrera and managed by Obregon would turn the present government out over night.

The state department has reason for believing that while Carranza personally does not desire to join in the intrigue he is not strong enough to block the plans of his three advisers, and if they persist in negotiating with German agents he cannot successfully oppose.

The information which has reached here is not clear enough to warrant officials to reach the conclusion that the intrigue is anything more than an attempt on the part of a few unscrupulous politicians to hold up overzealous German agents for a consideration with promises of future coöperation.

Fletcher Watching Case.

Ambassador Fletcher is watching the situation at Carranza's capital, and is carrying out the orders from President Wilson to have Carranza make this government a plain statement concerning his position on Zimmermann's proposal for an alliance.

Despite the fact that Secretary Lansing, on the day of the Zimmermann exposé, wired Ambassador Fletcher to get a plain, clean cut statement from the first chief, the state department has received no satisfactory reply.

PAY COLOMBIA, WILSON URGES AS CRISIS PENDS

Wants O. K. of Treaty to Hold Friendship —Senate to Act.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., March 12.—[Special.]—Eager to restore friendship with the republic of Colombia, in view of the German crisis, the administration appealed to senate leaders today to do everything in their power to expedite ratification of the long pending treaty providing for payment to Colombia of $25,000,000 for partition of Panama in 1903.

Following a conference between President Wilson, Secretary Lansing, and senate leaders the treaty in its original form was recommitted by the senate to the committee on foreign relations and Senator Stone called a special meeting of the committee tomorrow morning to reconsider it.

Colombia Is Obdurate.

No attempt was made to conceal the fact that the government of Colombia would not accept the payment of $15,000,000 recommended by the committee on foreign relations. This amendment together with another, modifying the language expressing sincere regret on the part of the United States that anything should have occurred to mar relations of cordial friendship between the two governments never were considered by the senate.

Eager for Test Vote.

So eager are the Democratic leaders to get a test vote on the treaty, hoping that changed international conditions may abate the opposition, that they are determined to hold the senate in extra session until this is done and will resort to the first test of the new cloture rule if necessary to accomplish this result.

Some Republican senators who have opposed the treaty said tonight that its ratification might be accomplished if the senate would accept the reduction in price recommended and eliminate the apology clause. Otherwise they propose to fight it.

VON BERNSTORFF AT COPENHAGEN; FLAILS BRITISH

COPENHAGEN, via London, March 12.—Count von Bernstorff, the former German ambassador at Washington, and his party arrived at Copenhagen this morning from Christiania.

Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, the German minister to Copenhagen, and the German consul general at Copenhagen boarded the Frederik VIII. to greet Count von Bernstorff.

Count Bernstorff will protest to the state department the delay and methods of examination which the former ambassador's party encountered when the Frederik VIII. touched at Halifax.

British authorities refused to telegraph his protest and censored a written protest which was mailed to Dr. Ritter, Swiss minister, for presentation to the state department.

Earling's Health Improved.

President A. J. Earling of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad, who has been ill at his residence, 1400 North State street, for a week, will return to his desk either tomorrow or Thursday, according to his physician, Dr. Philip Schuyler Doane.

BROKEN TOYS OF WAR GODS BORNE HOME

Returned Prisoners Living Examples of Kipling's "Man Who Was."

BY MILDRED FARWELL.

PETROGRAD, Early February.—Two hundred and twenty returned prisoners of war from Germany and Austria, incapacitated for military service—do you know what it means? Literally, the maimed, the halt, and the blind. The broken toys of war sent back as useless.

This morning I saw their homecoming. A Russian gentleman has built with his private means a special building for the reception of the prisoners, and I waited outside it with a crowd of nurses and doctors, of high Russian officers and Russian ladies (many of them bearers of historic names), of soldiers and students, who since the beginning of the war have all voluntarily helped with this work.

National Hymn Welcome.

"They are coming," said some one softly as the grime covered end of a long line of carriages backed slowly in along the wooden platform where we were standing. A military band beside us began the beautiful Russian hymn. Officers and soldiers stood at attention and we held our breath as, almost in time to the music, the frost caked, opaque windows of car after car slid by us.

Russian soldiers stood rigid in salute on the steps of each, against a background of spruce trees that some gentle hand had placed there in memory of Christmas.

No one spoke, no one moved; it was like the passing of some royal dead.

Quiet Greeting by Wife.

A soldier opened the door of one of the last carriages and helped out, and a few paces along the platform a man in an officer's uniform, trembling and swaying. A woman in black stepped quietly forward from the crowd. "His wife," some one whispered.

Still quietly she took hold of the officer's arm, supporting him. As they stumbled by me I could see, between his face and his black glasses from the side, that both his eyes were gone.

Behind them came another officer, or rather the shadow of a young one, so thin I wondered how his legs—they were wrapped in strips of khaki cloth and hardly bigger than a woman's wrist—could keep from snapping.

The "Man Who Was."

They helped him along; his face turned upward toward the sky feebly smiling at it, and behind him a long, slow line of broken, halting, uncertain figures.

I thought of Kipling's "Man Who Was," as soldier after soldier dragged or limped by us, some with one leg half a foot shorter than the other, some with legs badly healed and allowed to stiffen, held out from their bodies in all sorts of contorted positions, some with only one leg.

Not one man walking upright without the aid of a crutch or a stick. They kept away, as if unconsciously, from the silent people watching, and sidled past close to the side of the train. To my dying day I shall see those twisted, shrinking figures against the railway carriage walls. They did not look at us, but straight ahead, blankly, out of faces the color of yellow wax.

One or two stopped as if they had half remembered something long forgotten, and, leaning on their sticks, laboriously took off their caps and without any change of expression put them back on their heads again.

Each had a bundle tied up in blue cotton cloth. I could see the numbers on them printed in black on a little white tab. As they passed the Russian ladies would take the bundle and, carrying it in their hand, help them along with the other.

Consumption Reaps Toll.

Students, bareheaded in the cold, had been waiting with empty stretchers, and one limp figure after another was lifted out of the train and placed gently on them. These were the desperate cases. Carefully walking in step, they bore them past us.

The gray blankets shrouding the bodies from neck down mercifully hid most of the horrors, but I could see that one man had a leg, an arm, and half his side cut away. Many were in the last stages of consumption, lying back exhausted against the stretcher pillows, skin taut over skeleton face bones, weary eyes open in sunken eye sockets.

I turned to the officer next me. His own were full of tears. "No, no, madame, do not speak or sympathize, I beg you; I cannot bear it; every week I see them come in like this, even after they have been fed and cared for in Sweden, and this is a comparatively good lot. Last week we had 116 consumptives out of 220."

Gifts for All Faiths.

Inside the prisoners' building a big white room had been made ready for them. Two lines of long tables covered with spotless tissue paper were ranged one after another down the length in the aisle between a line of low single ones about a foot high, at the end a small altar with its ikon and burning lamp, Russian priests in gold embroidered robes standing behind it.

The tiny boys of the palace choir grouped to one side. A little heap of books was arranged beside the altar. The empress' gifts, Russian gospels for the Russians, between the leaves a ribbon tied to a gilded medal of St. George; Bibles for the Roman Catholics, Old Testaments for the Jews, tiny Korans in bags to hang around the necks of the Mahommedans.

At each plate on the tables lay a big piece of the black bread that Russians love and two pieces of cake, and at intervals glass jars of mixed water and red wine. This is the only occasion on which wine is allowed.

Good Food at Last.

Before the arrival of the train I had been in the kitchen and seen the soup, the cutlets, and vegetables deliciously cooked, ready for the prisoners. Think what it must mean to men whose food has been soup made from ground fish bones (what we use for fertilizers) or from the bitter white chestnuts that are fed to horses.

I have asked many returned soldiers what they were given to eat in the prison camps, and these are two things that they all agree on—I do not criticize. They may be nourishing, but are certainly not pleasant articles of diet.

As they came in the door the prisoners tremblingly tried to take off their caps. Some were unable to with only one arm, and kind hands lifted them and guided aech man to his place. The stretchers were brought in and placed gently beside the little low tables, but many of them had to be carried out almost immediately into another room, their occupants too ill to stand the exictement of homecoming.

Stand as Hymn Sounds.

Three officers, the middle one an old general who, since the war, has unceasingly worn out his small strength with war work, stood as if on parade in the center of the room. The old general, with his fine gray head thrown back, his body as straight as a lance, spoke a few words in Russian and the music began to play their national anthem.

Every one stood up, even the prisoners at the tables dragged themselves to their feet. They remembered they had once been soldiers and cheered—raah, raah, raah, it went on for five minutes, a faded, pitiful ghost of the Russian troops' deep throated roar. One man near me only thought he was cheering, no sound came from his open mouth, he was dumb.

Tears Come at Last.

The priests began intoning the religious service and they bowed their heads, these poor broken remains of men, palsied hands making uncertain signs of the cross on their breasts. They seemed to come to life for the first time, to realize that this was home at last. Some of them were crying like children, tears rolling down their faces unheeded.

The anthem, the cheering, the religious service, were all the old familiar happenings of their regiments, long ago when they were whole strong soldiers. The beautiful music filled the room; the high voices of the boy choir rising flutelike above the priests' rolling bass and over the bowed heads of the maimed.

At my feet a one armed man on a stretcher searched clumsily for his handkerchief, rolled it into a grimy ball, and dabbed at his eyes. My nerves had stood enough. I moved away.

As I passed, a sick man crumpled up like a rag doll between his bench and the table and the nurses and doctors closed round him.

U-BOAT CHASERS

U. S. Plans Purchase of 100 High Speed Patrol Vessels of New Type to Hunt Submarines Off Coast.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 12.—Preliminary steps were taken by the navy department today toward contracting for the quick construction of one hundred or more high speed coast patrol boats of a new type for scouting against submarines. At a conference in which a score of builders were represented, assurances were given that deliveries could be begun within four months.

There was no announcement, but it is understood that contracts will be awarded shortly.

Plans prepared for the patrol boats call for craft 110 feet long, propelled by powerful steam engines. They will be more seaworthy and have a much larger cruising radius than the standard "submarine chaser," an 85 foot gasoline motor boat.

Secretary Daniels announced that bids for six scout cruisers of the thirty-five knot type designed last year would be opened Wednesday. Contracts for battle cruisers will be awarded soon on the basis of cost and 10 per cent profit already agreed on with the builders.

WOOD REBUKES PREACHER FOR SLUR AT ARMY

General Says Pacifist Views Peril Nation—Hearers Applaud.

New York, March 12.—Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, stirerd by a criticism of compulsory military service in an address at a banquet of the Economic club here tonight, turned on the speaker, the Rev. Adolf A. Berle, formerly of Chicago, and widely known as a lecturer on educational topics, and declared that the doctrine he preached "means the murder of our sons and the dishonor of our women."

Gen. Wood had addressed the diners earlier in the evening. He asked for a second hearing after Dr. Berle had arraigned the advocates of compulsory military service and asserted that with three months' training he could "hold his own with any officer in the field."

Dr. Berle had said that preparedness had been "harped upon by every secretary of war for thirty years" and added that he saw no reason to become hysterical and attempt to organize an army in fifteen minutes larger than the Prussian army before the war which required 100 years to perfect.

Wood Answers Pacifist Minister.

Gen. Wood's reappearance brought the diners to their feet with cheers.

"Of course, we want volunteer service, just as we want voluntary morality, just as we want everything that is good," asserted Gen. Wood, "but none but a fool expects to get it."

Gen. Wood appealed to the women present by saying: "The preceding speech is full of those principles which insure the useless sacrifice of life—the death of your sons. It is a wicked and absurd doctrine, full of untruths and falsehoods."

Then, turning to Dr. Berle, Gen. Wood declared: "We have boys who are willing to serve; we are willing to die, but I hope we are better prepared to die than you are."

Guests Approve Wood's Talk.

Mayor Mitchel and a number of others crowded around Gen. Wood and shook his hand when he finished.

Dr. John Grier Hibben, president of Princeton university, another speaker, asked whether the people of this country were going to "interpret the flag only as a protection, not as a sacrifice."

"Are we to be classed as degenerates in a crisis?" he questioned. Other speakers were Mayor Mitchel, the Rev. Charles F. Aked, and Henry A. Garfield, president of Williams college.

Drill is being held every Wednesday evening at the Second Regiment armory, 2635 West Madison street. The purpose of the drills is to provide preliminary instruction for those contemplating attendance at the government training camps this summer. When the members of the drill organization number 1.000 it is proposed that they be divided into three groups, meeting on the three sides of of the city.

Chicago Red Cross Head Leaves for Newcastle

CLAIM GERMANS USED CRUELTY ON AMERICANS

ZURICH, Switzerland, Sunday, March 11, via Paris, March 12.—Laden with cigars, cigarets, and food showered upon them by the hospitable Swiss, fifty-nine of the Yarrowdale prisoners arrived in Zurich today. They had arrived at the German frontier at Lindau yesterday, after a continuous trip of fifty-two hours from the prison camp at Brandenburg.

The men told of the severe treatment to which they had been subjected in the German prison camps at Neustrelitz, Dulman, and Brandenburg, where they as Americans, they said, were apparently singled out from all others. During their stay in Germany, they reported, they had subsisted on one allowance of soup daily and had made their long journey to the border on one such "meal."

There was hardly one of them who at one time or another, they declared, had not felt the fist of a German camp guard, and the squad of five soldiers which brought them to the border had exercised the privilege of abusing them.

The men tell of the terrible sufferings they underwent during a period of severe cold weather in Germany, due partly to lack of fuel, but more to the absence of shoes and clothing.

CHICAGO ASKED FOR MONEY FOR CYCLONE RELIEF

John W. Champion, executive secretary of the Chicago chapter of the American Red Cross, issued the following statement last night:

"John J. O'Connor, director of central division of the American Red Cross, left Chicago immediately upon receipt of news of the Indiana tornado disaster, arriving in Newcastle early in the day Monday.

"Mr. O'Connor and others of the Red Cross trained by experience in many similar situations will continue on the scene giving scientific advice and probably in active direction of the great task of bringing order out of the chaotic conditions.

"In view of the appeal for aid issued by Mayor Watkins of Newcastle, Ind., the Chicago office of the American Red Cross has prepared to receive and forward contributions from Chicago and vicinity. Chicago has received no specific request for funds, Newcastle's appeal for $100,000 being a general one, to the country as a whole.

"The appeal is for money only, to be used in feeding, clothing, and housing the victims, many of whom were left practically penniless. Funds sent to the American Red Cross, room 601 Merchants' Loan and Trust building, will immediately be transmitted to the afflicted area."

DEATH LIST 19 IN HURRICANE AT NEWCASTLE

Three Missing and Many Hurt—Troops Patrol City's Streets.

Newcastle, Ind., March 12.—With Indiana national guard troops, fresh from Mexican border duty, patrolling the streets, the city of Newcastle, which was swept by a tornado late Sunday afternoon, settled down tonight to another night of chill and darkness.

Arrangements had been made to care for practically all the homeless. Churches, schools, lodgerooms, public halls, and dwellings having been thrown open to them, but suffering in many cases was intense.

The death roll, revised tonight, showed nineteen dead, three persons missing, and about a score seriously injured, with a hundred more suffering from minor hurts. No more bodies had been found in the ruins late today, but two of the injured died in hospitals during the day.

Aid Begins Pouring In.

Aid, in the way of food supplies and money, began to reach the city late today. The food problem began to take on a serious aspect early in the day. Crackers sold at 2 cents each and bananas at a nickel apiece. The gas supply was shut off and many places were without means of preparing food that was at hand, and canned goods were at a premium.

In answer to the appeal for financal aid, sent broadcast over the state by a citizens' committee, relief funds have been started in many cities of the state. Charles W. Fairbanks, Republican candidate for vice president in the last election, contributed $1,000 for relief work.

Funeral arrangements had not been made tonight, as most of the day had been spent in searching the ruins for bodies. Plans which probably will include a public service for all the dead will be started tomorrow morning.

Soldiers Keeping Order.

U to tonight no looting has been reported to the military authorities. While martial law has not been declared, the soldiers are ruling the city with a strong hand to prevent looting and disorders.

The militia company from Terre Haute ordered out today was expected here tonight to relieve some of the guardsmen who have been on continuous duty since their arrival last night.

Dr. W. I. Fugate, local health officer, expressed the belief today that there would be no serious outbreak of disease, although many persons suffered from exposure which was intensified by the lower temperature tonight. No change was made tonight in the property loss estimated at $1,000,000.

Two Dead in Wayne County.

Richmond, Ind., March 12.—Although early reports today were that four persons had been killed by the tornado which swept Wayne county in the vicinity of Hagerstown late yesterday, later information was that there were only two dead, the children of Harvey Gray, a farmer. The statement that two men had been killed on the farm of Clint Milliken proved erroneous.

ILLEGAL TO ARM MERCHANT SHIPS, DERNBURG CLAIM

German Says U. S. Is to Blame for Forcing U-Boat Warfare.

BY CYRIL BROWN.

[Copyright: 1917: By Press Publishing Company (New York World).]

BERLIN, March 12.—The Tageblatt contains today an article by Dr. Bernhard Dernburg on "Armed Merchantmen and Congress," which exrpesses what is called the moderate German views on the subject, as follows:

"The fight over armed merchantmen goes on. An old law of 1819 forbids American ships to engage with the cruisers of a nation with which America is a peace, and the pedantic Lansing has resurrected this old law.

"The smart attorney general has, to be sure, decided that the ships may be armed but may not shoot. But the international law of the sea knows no such thing as armed merchantmen. Not a word was said about it in the new codifications at The Hague and at London.

"On the other hand, Article 63 at the London conference expressly says that forcible resistance against the lawful right of stopping and searching entails in all cases the seizure of the ship. Against the practice of this right, which is recognized by the United States also in its notes to Germany, one may not defend one's self.

Armed Ships in U. S. Ports.

"To these warships—for as nothing else can they be regarded, as Spain and Holland thus view them—America gave asylum in its ports, in violation of international law. How illegal that was is now clearly apparent from Wilson's own attitude.

"If it was allowable to arm merchant ships he would not have had to ask congress for permission.

"But it is just this arming of merchant ships which America illegally suffers, and for which it has itself set up the rules, which is the principal reason for Germany's unlimited submarine war. For through arming of merchant ships not only was the right of stopping and searching frustrated, but the submarines ran the danger of being sunk by such ships, and therefore, and because the English put U-boat traps under neutral, preferably American, flags, Germany was not in a position to continue regular cruiser warfare as heretofore.

Says U. S. Must Blame Self.

"The lack of character in America's foreign policy conjured up these complications, and for the difficulties in which it now finds itself America has only to thank the lack of experience and knowledge of its state department which obtained it.

"The vacillation in Washington arouses the suspicion that it is not the maneuvering in the senate, but the undecided American public opinion, disgusted with the whole situation, which puts the brakes on jingoism and the sorely pressed Wilson."

German Father Gives Son to Defend U. S. Honor

There's a German father in Schuyler, Neb., whom government agents can pass up in their search for "unneutrals." His boy is now a recruit at the Great Lakes naval training station. Recently Commandant W. A. Moffett received a letter from the father.

GAINS BY ALLIES REPORTED FROM WESTERN FRONT

Both British and French Declared to Have Better of the Fighting.

FRENCH FRONT

BRITISH.

LONDON, March 12.—We improved our position slightly during the night northeast of Bouchavesnes. Enemy trenches in the same neighborhood were entered by our patrols at other places, and a few prisoners secured. This morning we raided German trenches south of Arras, in spite of strong resistance by the garrison, bombed dugouts, and inflicted many casualties.

The artillery activity on both sides was most marked in the Ancre area, the neighborhood of Arras, Neuville-St. Vaast, and the Ypres sector.

AVIATION.

There was considerable aerial activity yesterday. Much successful bombing and reconnaissance work was carried out by our airplanes. Air fighting is continuous. Nine enemy machines were brought down or driven down damaged, four of which are known to have been destroyed. Five of our machines are missing.

FRENCH.

PARIS, March 12.—Between the Oise and the Aisne effective artillery fires were directed against the enemy organizations northwest of Vingre.

In Champagne we delivered in the course of the afternoon a new attack against the German positions west of Maisons de Champagne on a front of 1,500 yards. Our troops captured all the trenches the enemy had taken on Ridge 185 and penetrated a fortified work on the slopes north of Mamelon. During this action we took about 100 prisoners.

On both banks of the Meuse there was lively artillery action in the sectors of Avocourt, Douaumont, and St. Mihiel.

About 4 o'clock this afternoon the German bombarded with incendiary shells the open town of Soissons, causing several fires.

DAY REPORT.

Between Soissons and Reims a surprise attack directed by the enemy against one of our trenches in the region of Poissy was repulsed promptly by our fire. The enemy suffered losses and left prisoners in our hands.

Near Maisons de Champagne we made further progress last night by grenade attacks. Patrol encounters occurred in the sector of Auberive. The number of machine guns which we have captured in the region of Maisons de Champagne has been increased to twelve.

In the Woevre we made a successful incursion into German trenches north of Seicheprey. In Lorraine there were patrol engagements. We took prisoners near St. Lorraine northwest of Badonvillers.

GERMAN.

BERLIN, March 12.—On account of the bright weather the activity of long range guns and airplanes increased at many places on this front. Fire especially was strong in the Ancre sector, between Bucquoy and Le Transloy, and was lively in several sectors along the Aisne and in the Champagne.

South of Ripont the French this morning attacked parts of our position. They were repulsed.

AVIATION.

Our enemies lost sixteen airplanes and two captive balloons by air attacks of our airplanes and one machine by our defensive fire.

BELGIAN.

PARIS, March 12.—Great artillery activity occurred, particularly against Dixmude and Steenstraete. The bombardments on both sides were accompanied by spirited grenade fighting during the afternoon.

TURKISH FRONT

RUSSIAN.

PETROGRAD, March 12.—Caucasus front: On March 8 in the direction of Hamadan we routed the Turks from their position near Bisitun and occupied it. Hard pressed by our troops, the Turks withdrew to Hadjiabad.

RUSSIAN FRONT

GERMAN.

BERLIN, March 12. — Eastern front: Artillery and patrol activity was lively from time to time. Some artillery actions of large importance occurred.

RUSSIAN.

PETROGRAD, March 12.—Southwest of Lakparotch, in the Zanarotch-Stahovtsy sector, and in the region of Velitzk, thirty-five versts southeast of Kovel (Volhynia), the enemy delivered gas attacks. We repulsed by our fire enemy attempts to take the offensive.

On the remainder of the front there were patrol encounters and firing by both sides.

In the Riga region a Russian airman brought down a German airplane and took the occupants prisoner.

ITALIAN FRONT

ITALIAN.

ROME, March 12.—[Via London.]—In the Conod-Ledro valley in the Westerdak, after violent artillery and trench mortar bombardment against Bezzecca and Monte Vies, an enemy detachment atacked our position in the small valley of Val, northeast of Lenzumo. The enemy was repulsed and a few prisoners were taken. On the remainder of the Trentino front yesterday there were patrol encounters and increased artillery activity.

In the Travignolo valley of the Avisio, after trench mortar preparation against the southern slopes of Cima di Bocche, the enemy attacked towards Peneveggio. He was immediately driven off.

There were the usual artillery actions along the Julian front. In the Castagnavizza sector on the Carso we surrounded an enemy outpost and captured his garrison comprising nine men and one officer.

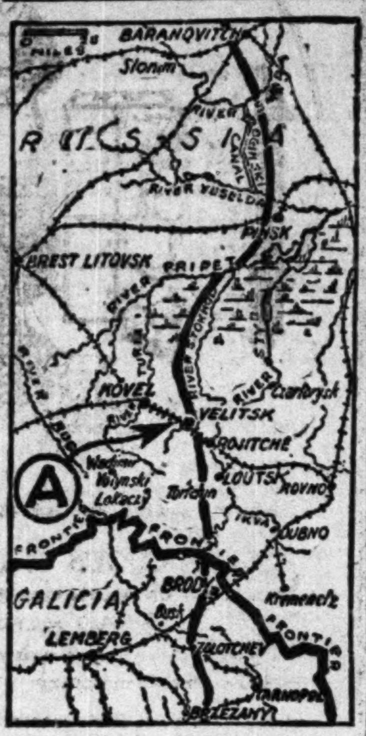
MACEDONIAN FRONT

GERMAN.

BERLIN, March 2.—Between Lakes Ochrida and Presba there were minor engagements in front of our line. On both sides of Presba lake and in the Cerna region artillery fire has increased.

GERMANS CHECKED

Where Russians Say They Have Stopped New Offensive.



Petrograd reports the Germans, after much preparation, launched a formidable offensive near Velitsk (A) in the region between Kovel and Lutsk. The kaiser's men attempted an advance, but were repulsed, according to Petrograd, the attack failing. This checking of the Germans follows forecasts that the Russians would be well able to withstand German drives of the spring.

SEVEN BILLION 'PILLS' TO SMOKE THE KAISER OUT!

Durham, N. C., March 12.—[Special.]—The "boys" in the trenches and behind the firing lines of the French armies are to be supplied with 7,000,000,000 cigarets, and the French government is to foot the bill.

A contract has been signed by the British-American Tobacco company for the delivery of 7,000,000,000 cigarets to the French government. The factories of Richmond and Petersburg, Va., will manufacture the bulk of the huge order, and many months will be consumed in the completion of the contract.

The immensity of the foreign order has been visualized by a Durham, N. C., tobacconist, who has worked out the contract in terms of miles. One cigaret is 2½ inches long. The 7,000,000,000 cigarets when coupled together on a single track will embrace 210,297 miles. The network of cigarets would encircle the globe nearly eight times.

BERLIN AMAZED BY BAGDAD FALL; THOUGHT IT SAFE

Geneva Asserts All Ottoman Troops Must Quit Other Fronts.

GENEVA, March 12.—The fall of Bagdad caused the greatest surprise in Berlin and Vienna, according to news received here. Quite recently the Austrian and German papers announced that owing to the large Turkish reinforcements sent from Aleppo and Smyrna, Bagdad could hold out indefinitely.

It is expected here that one of the early results of the occupation of Bagdad by the British troops will be the recall of all Turkish contingents fighting at the various fronts. Col. Feyler, the military critic, writes in the Journal de Geneve:

"Unless a new Ottoman army is constituted for a new campaign against the forces of Gen. Maude, the city will definitely remain in the hands of the English."

Lauds Feat of Maude.

LONDON, March 12.—After announcing the fall of Bagdad in the house of commons today, Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, said there was every reason to believe that two-thirds of the Turks' artillery had fallen into the hands of the British or had been thrown into the Tigris.

Mr. Bonar Law said the fall of Bagdad came as a sequel to a series of brilliant operations carried out by British and Indian troops, with dash and determination.

On March 5 British cavalry came up with the Turkish rear guard twenty-seven miles from Bagdad. After an action the Turks retreated in the night.

On March 7 British cavalry found the Turks in position on the Diala river, eight miles from Bagdad. The river constituted a formidable obstacle. Gen. Maude therefore withdrew his cavalry and brought the infantry into action.

Meanwhile the Turks had received reinforcements from Bagdad. They offered stubborn resistance. Gen. Maude threw a bridge across the Tigris at its confluence with the Diala. Notwithstanding the heat and dust, Mr. Bonar Law said, the British made a brilliant march of eighteen miles toward Bagdad and found the Turks strongly posted six miles southwest of the town. The Turks were attacked at once and driven back to their second position, two miles in the rear.

Passage of the Diala.

On the night of March 8 the British established a footing on the north bank of the Diala. On the 9th and 10th troops on the right bank of the Tigris pressed their advantage and drove back the Turks to within three miles of Bagdad. At the same time the troops on the Diala thrust the Turks back on the city, which was entered on Sunday morning.

"Gen. Maude in these operations," Mr. Bonar Law continued, "has completed his victory by a pursuit of 110 miles in fifteen days, during which the Tigris was crossed three times. This pursuit was conducted in a country destitute of supplies, despite the commencement of the summer heat. Such operations could be carried out in such a country only after the most careful arrangements made for the supply of the troops thoroughly and systematically had been effected."

CABINET CRISIS BREWS IN FRANCE; SETTLED TODAY?

PARIS, March 12.—The attacks of the opposition in parliament have produced a situation of such a character that both the friends and the adversaries of the government admit today that it cannot continue.

The general opinion is that the opposition, which has been resorting to obstruction by refraining from voting, must overthrow the cabinet and assume responsibility for solving the problems which form the basis for its assaults on the ministry, or else cease its attacks.

Deputy Petitjean of Paris will interpellate the cabinet tomorrow, the Journal says, on its general policy, opening the way for a comprehensive declaration by Premier Briand as to the position of the government.

The Petit Journal, however, says it is doubtful whether a conclusive debate will take place tomorrow or whether cabinet changes will intervene, making tomorrow's session purely a formal one, pending a declaration from a transformed ministry.

114,000 TONS IN THREE DAYS FOR U-BOAT FLEET

BERLIN, March 12.—[By wireless to Sayville.]—The following statement on submarine operations was issued today by the Overseas News agency, the official German news bureau:

"The official report for March 11 states that 42,000 tons of shipping were sunk. Together with the reports of March 7 and 8, this gives a total of more than 114,000 tons."

Sunk Without Warning.

LONDON, March 12.—The sinking of the Norwegian steamship Storstad, in the service of the American commission for relief in Belgium, was accomplished after the submarine had fired about fifteen shots at a range of three to four miles.

The Storstad stopped and hoisted the Belgian relief signal at the first shot. The submarine submerged, but half an hour later, the Storstad, which had not resumed its voyage, was torpedoed without warning.

The crew, including one American, has been accounted for in its entirety, but the fourth engineer died of exposure before the men were rescued.

A NATIONAL FORCE FOR UNITY
AT times like the present, no nation, however prepared, can call itself safe unless among its people there is unity of intention, unity of imagination and unity of action.
When none knows what the next hour will bring forth, an institution which provides a medium for national expression and promotes unity of national consciousness exerts an influence which spreads far beyond the areas of actual contact.
That is why the influence of Collier's, The National Weekly, is greater and wider to-day than ever before. Through the editorial columns of its 1,000,000 copies each week goes a message of common-sense patriotism that is spread by word of mouth and by newspapers throughout the country.
In its positiveness, in its active recognition of the task laid upon it by its great size and the far-reaching effect of its expression, Collier's stands in this crisis a dynamic unifying force and an interpreter of that national thought which will dictate the action of the immediate future.

In calling the attention of advertisers to Collier's position, the Advertising Department feels that it cannot too strongly emphasize the value as an advertising medium, now and at all times, of a magazine that fills such a vital need in American national life.

PACIFISTS FIGHT SCHOOL MILITARY TRAINING BILL

Labor Officials Denounce Newspapers and Ammunition Makers.

Women pacifist leaders and settlement workers yesterday appeared before the legislative subcommittee on military affairs at the Hotel La Salle to oppose the Hamlin bill providing elementary training of public school students in national defense affairs.

Among them were Miss Mary McDowell and Miss Louise Montgomery of the Chicago University settlement.; Mrs. W. I. Thomas, national secretary of the women's peace party; Mrs. Susan Quackenbush of Lincoln Center, who represented Dr. Jenkyn Lloyd Jones; Mrs. Elinor G. Karsten, Mrs. Mary Wilmarth, and Mrs. Robert Kohlhamer.

They were aided in their opposition by Arthur Fisher, son of Walter L. Fisher, the traction expert; John J. Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, and the Rev. Fred A. Moore, pastor of the Universal Church of the Redeemer, Robey street and Warren avenue.

Calls Plattsburg Joke.

Young Fisher assailed the whole spirit of national defense, declaring it had become a hysteria superinduced by the newspapers. He said the Plattsburg training camp was a joke and that all such training camps, where the public schools were involved, were antagonistic to the real spirit of modern thought in this country. He made fun of the Cheyenne, Wyo., training attempt in the schools, picturing some of the boys as standing 6 feet 2 inches tall and others little runts, and the boys grinning at one another as they were lined up for their training drill.

The labor officials denounced the newspapers and the ammunition makers. Mr. Fitzpatrick said he was glad that organized labor was opposed to the turning of the schools over to the ammunition makers and the newspapers, and read instructions that had been sent out by labor chiefs warning against the "menace."

Fitzpatrick said he was ready to go to war after the newspaper editors and ammunition makers had enlisted and had joined the front ranks.

Backers of Training.

Declaring for the proposed training as the one scientific way of providing a secondary force from which to draw the officers in the event of actual warfare, as well as increasing the efficiency of the high school boys, both as students and as citizens, were many of the leading national guard officers and Capt. E. Z. Steever, commissioned by the war department to conduct the elementary military training in the schools of several large cities.

Col. Milton Foreman of the First cavalry pleaded with the committee to hasten the day when not only the public school boys, but the boys on the streets, particularly the messenger boys and others, had been given some training in the fundamentals of defense, not only for themselves but for the nation.

The theme of all these speakers was that such training would not only make better citizens and healthier citizens out of the public school boys of today, but would make war less probable by being better prepared to defend the nation.

Col. Foreman Heckled.

Col. Foreman was heckled a good deal. He told how one flat chested boy who had gone to the Mexican border with the regiment had returned red cheeked, erect manly looking, and fifteen pounds heavier.

"That," he said, "is what a short course in military training did for that boy."

John Fitzpatrick interrupted to ask:

"How many sons have you in the Illinois National guard?"

"When I began to speak here," replied Col. Foreman, quick as a flash, "I said I was a bachelor. The situation has not changed."

Brig. Gen. D. Jack Foster held that if the nation properly prepares for war there will be less probability of its getting into war. He said, too, that the boy with military training who goes to war has a great deal better chance of returning home than the boy who has not.

Then the women spoke. Miss McDowell thought it awful to put a gun in a boy's hand.

None Under 14 Years.

Capt. Steever, who has charge of the training in the Chicago schools, after highly commending the work of giving the students fundamentals in defense, made a plea for a change in the bill so that it would not interfere with the work already outlined by the federal government. He asked that a provision be inserted exempting the Chicago schools from its operation in order that there might not be a conflict of authority between the state and federal governments.

In reply to many questions from the other witnesses, he said that 14 years should be the extreme age limit for such training, and that three hours a week, two for military and one for physical training, would be found to be beneficial. He was against training of girls in a general way, but believed a brief course, such as "squads right and squads left, or a close order drill," would prove beneficial in case of war or trouble.

"The girls," he said, "should be trained to care for the girls and women and not leave that task to the men."

The committee will hold the next public hearing in Peoria next Monday. Hearings also will be held in Bloomington and Alton.

GIRL OF MYSTERY

The Police Think This Former Lake View High School Pupil Has Been Kidnaped or Has Met Death.

Miss Helen Sims

'MAN' OR SUICIDE, POLICE THEORIES ABOUT SIMS GIRL

Older Woman's Influence Is Suspected by Family.

Police Capt. Stephen Wood said yesterday that Miss Helen Sims, the 14 year old Lake View High school girl whose disappearance Nov. 24 remains unexplained, probably either died by her own hand or was lured away by a strange man whose acquaintance she made while riding to school.

The girl vanished after leaving the home of Mrs. J. W. Stormes of 1525 North Kedvale avenue, where she had spent the preceding night. The first definite opinion given by the police regarding the disappearance of the girl came from Capt. Wood.

Policewoman Margaret Wilson expressed the belief that the girl might be working in or near Chicago and is allowing the mystery to remain unsolved by her own choice.

Older Woman Suspected.

A woman who refused to give her name called yesterday at 3013 Christiana avenue, where Mrs. Thomas Brothers Sr., mother-in-law of Miss Sims' sister, resides, and said one of the girl's most intimate friends, a woman ten years her senior, had caused the downfall of several young girls and had a police record for immoral conduct. She said the Sims girl had been seen with this woman in the vicinity of Twenty-sixth and State streets recently.

A man who said he was employed by a railroad, and who also withheld his name, was another caller at the Brothers home. He said a girl answering the description of Miss Sims had appeared in Janesville, Wis., several weeks ago, and a few days later found employment in a laundry.

Phone Girl Involved.

Miss Edith Ford, until recently a telephone operator at the Hotel Stratford, and despite her seniority, an intimate friend of Miss Sims, was the last of the girl's acquaintances to see her before she disappeared, the police say.

Mrs. J. W. Stormes, at whose home the girl spent the night before her disappearance, is Miss Ford's sister. The Sims girl concealed from her parents the fact she was going to Mrs. Stormes', saying she was going to another friend's for the night.

Miss Ford disclaimed all knowledge of the matter. John Sims of 5331 Kenmore avenue, a brother of the missing girl, says Miss Ford admitted to him that she had spent the night preceding her disappearance at the Stormes home.

Miss Ford is said to have changed her address since the disappearance. The police have lost track of her.

HALT SEARCHING INTERNED SHIPS IN PLOT INQUIRY

Philadelphia, Pa., March 12.—In the absence of official instructions from Washington, search of the interned German commerce raiders Kronprinz Wilhelm and Prinz Eitel Friedrich at the Philadelphia navy yard for explosives reported to have been smuggled to the vessels from outside sources, an investigation of which resulted in the arrest of five persons, was deferred today by local agents of the department of justice.

According to naval officers at the local yard, search of the raiders cannot be made without international complications arising therefrom, unless the government actually seizes the ships, "and that in itself would be a declaration of war."

Washington, D. C., March 12.—Formal request for the removal from the League Island navy yard of the interned German commerce raiders was made to Secretary Daniels today by Mayor Smith of Philadelphia, on the ground they constitute a menace to the safety of the city.

ARMORED AUTO BATTERY WILL INVADE CHICAGO

A battery of armored military automobiles, equipped with rapid fire guns, will "invade" Chicago next week. Seven armored cars of a type said to be superior to any yet tried by the United States army, manned by cadets of the Northwestern Military and Naval academy, will reach Chicago as an adjunct to the performances to be given at the Strand theater under the auspices of the American fund for French wounded.

"Heroic France—the Allies in Action" is the title of new motion pictures brought from the front by Merl La Voy, which will be displayed at the Strand for a week, beginning March 19.

The Northwestern cadets will be guests of the committee in charge of the entertainment. The band and a drill company from the Great Lakes Naval Training station will also participate in certain performances.

BURY ZEPPELIN AT STUTTGART

ROTTERDAM, via London, March 12.—The funeral of Count von Zeppelin was held this afternoon at Stuttgart. Many years ago the late inventor erected his own vault in the Prag cemetery, and therefore Countess von Zeppelin declined the offer which was made to her by the king of Würtemberg to give the body a tomb in the royal cemetery. King William II. was present at the ceremony, which was brief owing to the illness of the countess.

MARINES LANDED IN CUBA ADOPT A PASSIVE ROLE

U. S. Men Not Molested and Give No Evidence of Intervention.

SANTIAGO, Cuba, March 12.—From his base at Guantanamo Admiral Henry T. Mayo, commander of the United States Atlantic fleet, received reports today from at least five Cuban shore stations where American forces have been landed. From none of them, however, came any evidence that the putting ashore of the Americans was the beginning of intervention.

Five hundred marines and bluejackets are in Santiago patrolling the city, while smaller detachments are doing similar duty in Guantanamo, Manzanillo, and Nuevitas. The only interior station where American men-ofwarsmen have been placed is at the El Combre mine, a few miles from Santiago.

Just what the situation is in the interior is not known by the Americans. The government advance forces commanded by Pablo and Fausto Menocal, brothers of President Menocal, arrived today at San Luis, which was evacuated yesterday by Gen. Comacho after brief fighting, in which there were a few casualties. Rigoberto Fernandez with his force of rebels is at Songo, southeast of San Luis. This district is about twenty miles north of Santiago.

The banks here remain closed under orders from the main offices.

FOR A NEW CONSTITUTION.

There is no argument on principles against the submission to the people of the issue of a constitutional convention. Opposition in the legislature [illegible] not candid. It does not state its real reasons because the real reasons will not bear scrutiny and cannot be submitted to the state.

The desire of members of the house of representatives to retain the system of minority representation is natural. The fear that the makers of a new constitution would not be impressed by the minority equities in each district is also natural. But this desire and this fear will not be very important to the people, although all important to the members who are thinking only of themselves.

The people might become impatient of an opposition which had such clearly selfish motives. When the present constitution was written it seemed necessary to its writers that there should be provision for the representation in the legislature of which ever of the two parties happened to be in the minority. For state affairs we think less now of the party and more of the man, and the writers of a new constitution might do away with the election method which makes it easy for the minority party in a district to elect one representative.

It is not certain that this would be the case, but regardless of it the state ought not to be kept from saying whether it wants a new constitution and be kept from this decision because some members of the legislature fear they could not be elected under a new constitution.

The timid legislators themselves are peering rather grotesquely into the future when they are considering contingencies five years hence. That is a far time in politics, and a great many men in the general assembly need not worry over what will be happening them. It will not concern them politically.

The whole opposition to the submission of the question can be analyzed and found to be composed of large or small selfish interests, from liquor which is afraid to legislators who are afraid.

THROUGH MEXICO.

It is reported that Ambassador Gerard will urge upon the president the necessity of dealing immediately and effectively with Mexico. As a man who has been in position to know how foreign powers regard Mexico, the administration is almost compelled to listen to him. He sees in Mexico, according to reports, a potential ally to Germany. It might be added with greater force that Mexico is the potential ally of any nation which cares to quarrel with us. It may not always be Germany.

BAGDAD.

The British are attaching to the capture of Bagdad an importance almost incomprehensible to Americans. Of course it was a victory, but a victory in a minor campaign, and although it retrieves, in a sense, the disaster the British experienced at Kut not long ago we have been inclined to criticize the policy which made the Kut disaster possible.

Why, we have asked, have the English conducted minor military operations in half a score places in Africa, the near and far east, while the German armies are still occupying allied territory? They lost prestige at Kut, but why did they risk it at Kut in the first place?

The British do not pretend that the capture of Bagdad is going to defeat Germany. They would scarcely claim that any of their minor operations have any immediate connection with their main problem. But their campaigns are justified by the hard headed diplomacy which has made the British empire. Imperial England is like the priest in the old French story about two fishermen fighting over an oyster. He solved the difficulty by giving each one half the shell and eating the oyster himself.

It was precisely this policy which has made maps of the ocean show British islands peppered all over it. During the Napoleonic wars they took care to divert enough of their energy from Napoleon to collect scores of little islands. That is what they are doing in Africa and in Turkey. They will not attempt to keep all of them. They will give back to some one or other such possessions as do not promise to carry their own weight as members of the British empire.

TWO GOOD EDITORIALS.

While reclining in the dentist's chair yesterday we read two editorials in the Saturday Evening Post and thought them excellent. That is a pretty good test.

It makes no difference that the Post was the issue of Jan. 6. The editorials have kept their freshness and are worth reading. They are reprinted in the Editorial of the Day department in the next column.

HATE AS RECRUITING OFFICER.

If the president is still considering a call for volunteers as a possible way of getting an army of half a million or more men for defense of the United States he has not thought the matter out.

The recruiting officer for a conscripted army is recognition—unhysterical recognition—of the need for defense. The recruiting officer of a volunteer army is hate. The hate to be effective must be intense enough to drag men with good positions away from civil life. We will be asked to hate no one in particular but a particular nation. In this case it would have to be Germany.

A campaign of hate would not be difficult to start in this country. There is a strong tendency toward one already. Certain newspapers and magazines—the same publications, by the way, which are most horrified by the German notion of capitalizing hate—are urging us to think of Germany as degenerate, criminal, brutal, and altogether hateful.

The objection to a campaign of hate is not that it would not raise us an army. Probably it would. But it would raise a lot of other things, too.

It would make outcasts of German-Americans, and protesting outcasts. At the least a good part of our effectiveness would be occupied in venting hate on people of German blood in this country. It might make an Ireland or a Poland in America.

PRESS CENSORSHIP.

The need for strict censorship of publicity in war times or during periods preparatory to hostilities will be conceded by every responsible newspaper man. But the censorship bill quoted in Mr. Henning's dispatch published yesterday is likely to be a case of preventing one evil by accomplishing another even worse.

In a country which possesses a highly efficient military system the proposed law would be tolerable perhaps though not desirable. In a country like ours at this time such a law would be a danger of the worst character.

The executive branch of our government has disclosed an incapacity for foresight and for vigorously thorough action that is primarily responsible for the deplorable fact of our present unpreparedness for war in spite of several years of imminent war peril. Military efficiency has been repeatedly embarrassed by uncertain and inconsistent diplomatic considerations and no policy has yet been formulated for correcting our defense weakness.

At the same time, the legislative branch of government has been unwilling to assume the initiative and has indulged in confused debate finally resulting in huge eleventh hour appropriations without relation to fundamental policy.

It would be suicidal for the public to surrender the right of criticism in such circumstances. We should simply be guaranteeing unchecked incompetence and indecision. Our situation would be worse than that of England when Lord Northcliffe staked his property and even his personal safety for the sake of forcing a hidebound war department to face facts and correct conditions which were ruin to the allied cause.

Thus far publicity has consisted in informing our own people, including many congressmen, of defects in our defense which every military department in the world knows to the last item. Furthermore, our means of preventing espionage are wholly inadequate to prevent it even when the press is muzzled. Only a continental service would accomplish this, and it will take time to create that as everything else we need. Finally, it is perfectly possible to bring about a satisfactory arrangement with the press by which a thorough censorship of information can be maintained without resorting to a suppression of the right of legitimate criticism.

The prominence given the censorship bill in the administrative program is suspicious, considering the fact that even if we enter a state of war with Germany it will not involve military operations on this continent unless Mexico attacks us. Germany knows a good deal better than Mr. Wilson, Mr. Baker, or Mr. Daniels what we need and what we can do for some time. The American press cannot add to her knowledge, but it can wake up the American people to the evils of half baked, pacifist interference in preparation.

We more than suspect the censorship bill is not to keep the press from letting Germany know what we are doing, but to prevent the press from letting the American people know what the government is not doing.

The bill should be radically modified or replaced by a proper measure of rational censorship. No administration in the history of the republic, save perhaps that of Buchanan, is less entitled to a carte blanche.

Editorial of the Day

ROADS AND SCHOOLS.

[From the Saturday Evening Post.]

Every sort of town in the United States gets its due share of the total increase in population, and a little more. Population of incorporated places of less than 2,500 inhabitants increased over a million and three-quarters in the last census period, and nearly three and a half millions since 1890. At that date they had 7¼ per cent of the total population, and in 1910 nearly 9 per cent. So with the towns from 2,500 up to 50,000, while bigger cities ran way ahead of the general rate of growth. But farm population declined from 56 4-10 per cent of total population in 1890 to 44 8-10 in 1910.

There are no glittering business opportunities in small country towns, but there are many social opportunities. It is easy for people to get together in all weathers. The public schools are much better than those in that large part of the strictly rural region where the barbarous one room ungraded institution prevails. So people are willing to live in small country towns.

The farm problem is in no inconsiderable part a matter of good roads and good country schools. Good country schools are nearly impossible without good roads, for a really good country school is a consolidated one, drawing children from an extensive district and giving them transportation from home to school and back.

A farm on a poor road is a prison for women and children part of every year. Nobody likes a prison.

THE LIBRARY HABIT.

[From the Saturday Evening Post.]

Our mail makes us a bit peevish about public libraries in general. Many times every year we are asked to recommend a book containing information on this or that subject of general interest. We are always glad to comply to the best of our limited ability; yet we never answer one of these letters without wondering why public libraries do not impress themselves more definitely and extensively upon the public.

The writer of the letter is obviously intelligent or he would not be seeking information. By the same token he is interested in subjects of general concern. Yet, as obviously, he does not know that about three times out of five there is a public institution not far from him, supported at large expense, which not only contains standard books on the subject he wants to know about, but makes a special business of supplying him with those books promptly and without expense.

From its card index he can learn in five minutes what books there are on the subject, and attendants will fetch them to him on request. Invariably, in our experience, the library staff is informed and attentive. It will go to any pains, most willingly, to put the resources of the library at the disposal of an inquirer. Within its own walls the institution functions admirably; but a great many people do not know of it in such a way that, being athirst for information, they turn to it as naturally as a dry man turns to a water faucet.

The library habit is one of the best that any person can form. There should be a more strenuous effort to inculcate it. Meantime take the initiative yourself. Get acquainted with your public library.

Though boldness such as this deserves reproof,

UNITED WE SCAN.

Two gifted pens could hardly fail to yield
A poem twice as good as one might write.

He might have shed more lustre on his trade—
Although, like me, he's pretty good alone.

And so we pass this helpful tip along

United scan, when you break into song,
And you, like us, the ages may endow.

HOW MUCH CAN YOU STAND?

WHEN Victor Hugo was warned by his physician on one occasion against the excessive use of tobacco, he replied, "I am killing myself with tobacco, you say? Well, I am a poor workman, for I have been at the job more than fifty years."

Tobacco is a drug. Even the smallest dose, to one who has never taken it, produces nausea, vomiting, and dizziness. Then the user becomes accustomed to the drug and feels no harmful results from it. However, he is being affected by it constantly and in course of time he may reach the limit beyond which he cannot withstand it without symptoms.

Men vary in their tolerance. Tolerance is least in boys during adolescence and in men past 40. In addition to the variation in susceptibility, the result of age, there is sex variation. Men stand more than women. Then there is racial variation. Turks and Spaniards stand more than Americans. Then there is individual variation. Some men are affected by a small daily dose kept up for but a few years. Others can stand as much and for as long as did Victor Hugo.

Akin to individual variation is family variation. It runs in certain families to be tolerant of tobacco, whereas the members of other families begin to show the effects of tobacco poisoning before they are 40 years of age.

In the light of these statements one can see the variations that must be allowed for in setting a figure as the amount of tobacco a man can stand. The Budapest Eye Clinic fixed five-sixths of an ounce a day as the top limit of safety.

Jackson says four ounces a week is as much as most persons can use safely, while as little as one ounce a week has caused impairment of vision. Three or four cigars a day is the limit of safety for most men, and for a few even this may be likely to cause loss of sight.

COFFEE, TEA, COCOA, AND CHOCOLATE—These drinks contain one or more drugs. As consumed, tea and coffee contain about the same dose of drug; cocoa contains a less amount. As is the case with all other drugs, a certain degree of tolerance is soon begotten and thereafter the dose which can be taken safely even for a long time is greatly increased. There is, however, great variation in susceptibility, depending on race, age, family. In addition there is individual variation.

Hollingsworth demonstrated that two ordinary cups of coffee a day was about the top limit. However, he made no experiments to discover whether that dose kept up for forty or more years would prove harmful.

Jackson tells of a man accustomed to drinking twelve cups of strong tea whose vision was reduced to one-twentieth the normal. Four months after he had stopped his drug his vision was two-thirds normal. A boy of 8 who took six or eight cups of coffee a day had one-fifth vision. He stopped coffee and one week later had three-fourths vision. Subsequently his vision became perfect.

SPECIALIST MAY AID.

A. K. B. writes: "A young woman in whom we are interested is bothered with what she terms 'voices in her head.' She hears something or some one talking to her mentally, I suppose you would call it. This is annoying and makes her irritable and morose at times, although that is not her natural disposition. I asked her the nature of the communications of these silent talkers, as she seems to think they are, and from what I could gather they are mostly of a condemnatory nature—never anything good or happy. I might add that she has a natural tendency to take unpleasant things to heart and to worry. Now will you tell me what these so-called 'voices in the head' are or mean? Is it possible for one person to communicate with another mentally or for so-called evil influences to operate on one in that way? She told me about it in an effort, if possible, to get some help for it. If she were to consult a doctor what kind should she consult?"

REPLY.

The young woman seems to have hallucinations and delusions. She probably is a mild paranoiac. She should see a brain specialist. If she retains a reasonable degree of mental poise she can be cured of her hallucinations and delusions.

TRY BLAUD'S PILLS.

M. writes: "(1) Can you recommend an iron tonic which will not injure the teeth? (2) What is the reason for a person's bowels moving from four to five times daily? I am 20 years old, weigh 185 pounds, and am 6 feet tall. I stand on my feet about thirteen hours a day. Will you suggest some kind of diet for a person like me."

REPLY.

1. Blaud's pills.
2. The habit is normal in some. It may be due to amœbic dysentery, indigestion, or any other of several conditions.
3. Add milk, cream, rice, and crackers to your dietary.

TREATMENT FOR FOOT SWEATING.

J. P. writes: "How can I remedy sores and perspiration on my feet?"

REPLY.

Wash the feet twice a day with warm water and soap. Rinse well. Dry. Apply a mixture of two drams of salicylic acid in one pint of alcohol. Rub until the feet are dry. Or use a 25 per cent solution of aluminum chloride in distilled water. Dab on gently once every three days. Allow to dry on.

Blackmore's popular novel "Lorna Doone" and all those from this side of the Atlantic who have toured through the southwest of England will be interested and gratified to learn that a scheme has just been completed for the preservation in its present wild and natural state of that part of the counties of Devon and Somerset which is known as Exmoor. The greater portion of it belongs to the Aclands.

It is a mixture of moor and forest, of hill and valley, and of table land sloping down to the Bristol channel—so wild, indeed, that the fine red deer have found a refuge there in their wildest state ever since the very dawn of English history, while other denizens of Exmoor are the wild ponies, whose powers of resistance to the fierceness of the elements can only be compared to those of the diminutive Siberian horses.

Lovers of the picturesque have always feared lest Exmoor should in course of time become disfigured through agricultural or building enterprises or through being cut up into estates. This danger has now been eliminated through a somewhat singular agreement which has been concluded between the Aclands and the committee of the national trust for the preservation of places of historic interest and natural beauty, a state organization of which the Earl of Plymouth is the presiding officer.

Sir Thomas Dyke Acland, his brother, the Rt. Hon. Arthur Acland, and his nephew, the Rt. Hon. Francis Acland, M. P., have united in granting Exmoor on lease to the national trust above mentioned for the term of 500 years. The lease is so devised that Sir Thomas and his successors will enjoy their present rents, profits, and ordinary rights and powers of an owner, save that they will have no power to alienate them nor to develop the property for building, agricultural, or industrial purposes, and are under the obligation to preserve the property in its present beauty and natural condition. It is an unusual and indeed unique arrangement, but one which bids fair to preserve Exmoor to the nation in its present condition for many centuries to come.

The Acland family, which has given evidence of such a remarkable amount of public spirit in alienating to the national trust so many of its proprietary rights to Exmoor, is not unknown in the United States. One of them, John by name, commanded an English regiment in the American war of independence, and was accompanied to this country by his wife, Lady Harriet, daughter of the Earl of Ilchester. Just before the surrender of Saratoga, when Col. John Acland was lying dangerously wounded, Lady Harriet Acland obtained a permit from Gen. Gates, commanding the American forces, to pass through their lines and to visit her husband after almost losing her life in a fierce ice and snow storm in an open boat on the Hudson.

The story of her devotion and of her adventures was recalled to mind nearly sixty years ago on the occasion of the visit to America of Edward VII., as Prince of Wales, through the presence in his suite of the late Sir Henry Acland, who accompanied him throughout his American tour in the capacity of physician and prevented him from being banqueted to death.

Sir Henry was the lifelong friend and associate of the late William E. Gladstone, their intimacy dating from their university days at Oxford. For his services to medical science he received a baronetcy on his own account, in addition to the one already owned by the family and which dated from the reign of Charles I.

The family of Acland is one of the most ancient in Devon and can be traced in the male line direct, by official records and without any interruption, down to the present day from the time of Hugh of Acalen, who flourished at Acalen in the parish of Land Key, Devon, in the reign of King Henry II.—that is to say, some 800 years ago. Sir Arthur Acalen married a daughter of the equally ancient house of Malet and was a great personage in the days of Queen Elizabeth. His grandson received a baronetcy from Charles I. in 1644 for his devotion to the royal cause, and as the latter's patents were destroyed during the civil war new ones were granted by Charles II. in 1677, with a special clause of precedence from the date of the first letters.

This, the older of the two Acland baronetcies, is now held by Sir Thomas Dyke Acland, twelfth possessor of the dignity and who spent a number of years in the house of commons and likewise held the office of commissioner of the Church of England estates. Having no son, he will be succeeded in due course by his brother, the Right Hon. Arthur Acland, who was minister of education in the last Gladstone administration and who declined the offer of elevation to the house of lords on the return of his party—that is to say, the Liberals—to power in 1906.

If he refused the offer it was because of his preference, and that of his son, for the place which was coming to them as the head of the baronets, rather than to figure at the tail end of the peerage. Moreover, they did not and do not believe that a peerage could add to the luster and prestige of their ancient and historic name. The Right Hon. Arthur Dyke Acland's eldest son is the Right Hon. Francis Dyke Acland, who was minister of agriculture in the last Asquith cabinet.

The other and more modern Acland baronetcy is held by Admiral Sir William Acland, whose wife, a sister of Lord Hambleden, is a novelist of considerable fame, one of her best known books being "The Lost Key," the scene of which is laid in Malta, where the admiral spent so many years with her while connected with the English naval forces in the Mediterranean.

Another member of the Acland family, Hugh Vivian Acland, great-grandson of the tenth baronet, came rather prominently before the public some time ago in connection with an amusing breach of promise case, among the features of which were not only written pledges of matrimony but I. O. U.'s for "ten million kisses."

The judge and jury did not estimate the latter at a very high price, for they contented themselves with mulcting him in a thousand dollars damages, the plaintiff being a niece of Sir Arthur Sullivan, the composer of "Mikado" and other comic opera fame. She figured on the stage as a "Floradora" girl under the name of "Rosa Keys," her real name being Rose Sullivan. She had to remain content with the advertisement which she obtained by means of her law suit, having been unable to collect the damages, for Henry Acland has no money of his own and, although a soldier, was not at the time a commissioned officer, but merely a corporal in the King's Second regiment, or was so until the beginning of the war. His father, Capt. Acland, also enlisted as a private soldier and won his commission.

RIGHTS NOT AFFECTED.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—[To the Friend of the Insured.]—Can an individual member, who has complied with all requirements of a fraternal order and has paid dues and assessments in advance, be deprived of his insurance in the event of death on account of the suspension of his local lodge by the failure of that lodge to comply with the laws of the supreme lodge of the order? There seems to be a division of opinion as to whether a member thus paid in advance could be deprived of this insurance on account of the failure of the local officer to have fulfilled his duties, or on account of a misunderstanding between the local and supreme bodies, thus causing the suspension. J. E. H.

The following two rules are given in Hardy's fraternal insurance law:

"The suspension of the subordinate lodge or the forfeiture of its charter will not generally affect the standing in the society of an individual member who himself is in nowise delinquent."

"It is a general rule of law that where a local lodge or some officer thereof is charged with a duty towards a member by the supreme lodge and the member performs his part and the local lodge or officer defaults the member's rights will not be disturbed." TRIBUNE INSURANCE EDITOR.

EFFECT OF DIVORCE.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—[To the Friend of the Insured.]—If a woman takes out a $1,000 life insurance policy in favor of her husband and afterwards is divorced and later marries again who would be the beneficiary. The name of the first beneficiary has not been changed on the policy. H. G. H.

Divorce alone would not affect a husband's rights under a policy taken out by his wife and made payable to him, but the court might make some disposition of the policy when granting the divorce, or the policy may reserve to the insured the right to change the beneficiary.

AGENT CAN PAY PREMIUM.

Chicago, March 7.—[To the Friend of the Insured.]—A friend of mine came to see me with an insurance man and talked insurance to me. I told him I didn't want any insurance that I didn't have any money, so he got me to sign a note. He said he would give me two months to pay it. Within the two months I telephoned him that I didn't want the insurance, although I had the policy. Now he is sueing me for the premium and 6 per cent interest on the promissory note. Is it lawful for the company to allow its agents to pay the first premium and then sue me when I don't want the insurance and haven't paid a cent? READER.

It is entirely lawful for an agent to pay a life insurance premium himself and take the insured's note, and if he holds a valid note, he may sue on it. If you applied for the insurance and took the policy it is immaterial whether you wanted it or not.

"TWISTING."

Chicago, Feb. 19.—[To the Friend of the Insured.]—Please explain the term "twisting" as applied to the rewriting of an endowment policy and whether there is anything irregular or illegal about the practice. Can a company chartered and licensed in Illinois write insurance in any other state? L. C. STEPHENS.

The term "twisting" is applied by life insurance men to the practice of inducing a policyholder to drop a policy in one company so as to take one in another. It is made illegal in some states to "twist" by means of misrepresentations, which practically stops the practice. Twisting without misrepresentation is not illegal anywhere, but it is difficult. There is no law on the subject in this state. Companies chartered and licensed in Illinois may secure authority to write insurance in any other state.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

A LAUNDRYMAN'S REPLY.

Chicago, March 12.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—I wish to refer you to the cartoon by Mr. Orr on the front page of this morning's TRIBUNE and your article on the smoke nuisance. I wonder why you use this subject to reflect discredit upon the laundry industry. You say, as I quote from your editorial, that "a large amount of our energy and money goes to laundrymen who macerate clothes."

You infer that either you choose to patronize a laundryman "who macerates clothes" or that all laundrymen "macerate clothes," and there is no choice. Of course common sense will tell you that there is more wear on linens from getting the dirt out than in getting the dirt in, whether laundered at home or in a laundry.

The whole trouble is that many people, and no doubt yourself included, are not willing to pay enough for laundry service to getting high quality work and careful handling. W. T. DAVIES.

MORE AND BETTER LIGHTS.

Chicago, March 10.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—The offer of the board of the Chicago sanitary district to furnish "free light" for the city in return for assistance asked in building the new power plant at Brandon's road should be gladly and quickly accepted, and any red tape which stands in its way speedily eliminated.

The present lighting system is little better than the old gaslight system which the city had thirty years ago, and is not a credit to the city's wonderful growth and business advancement. Even on the leading avenues and boulevards there is such little light that it is impossible to discern the street names, or to see approaching automobiles at night.

CHESTER W. BROWN.

TIME FOR NEUTRALITY IS PAST.

University of Chicago, March 10.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—The situation at Washington may well cause concern to an American citizen. As is all too well known, congress is made up of politicians, whose chief aim is to hold their jobs by serving local interests.

They still have the antebellum Fourth of July notion that the world embattled against us could never water their horses in the Ohio river. Possibly not, but we now have far wider interests to protect. And a large part of our people, well meaning Christian people, are pacifists at heart and would avoid immediate war, let the future bring what it will.

Now the real truth is that we have gradually drifted into a world where we must be an integral part and where we must have relations with our neighbors. A foreign policy we do not have, except avoiding entangling alliances and preserving the status quo in the western hemisphere. To do these two things we must have a powerful navy and an efficient army, and the present temper of our people as represented by congress seems to make this difficult, if not impossible.

If all the young men are to receive real training, it means that in a country like this we shall have a standing army of 1,000,000 men, which is as unthinkable of us as of Britain in time of peace. Also, to get a really powerful navy built and maintained is almost impossible because of the attitude of the people.

The best foreign policy, it seems to me, is to develop an army and navy so far as possible and at the same time cultivate friendly relations with England, who, as the source of our language and institutions and as the nation with which we have always been most closely connected, is our natural friend and ally.

Such an understanding with England to preserve the status quo in the western hemisphere and the Pacific ocean need not take us far from our historic field of action and would constitute a reasonable basis of security.

We must reckon with the actual situation. The policy adopted by our government has excited the deep resentment of Germany, and our position in the Pacific exposes us to the treachery of Japan, a dangerous combination against us, if we are alone, which the friendship of England might prevent. Too many people assume that Germany is in her last gasp and that her defeat is certain. If our natural ally should go to the wall, there will be a serious reckoning for us—for Britain does stand between us and the rest of the world, and if she succumbs the burden of English speaking civilization falls upon us.

The time, therefore, for neutrality is past. The present situation is too dangerous, and we should go to war with Germany, not because we want specially to be at war with Germany, but because that is the logical end of the administration's policy, and thus alone can we hope to develop an efficient navy and a reasonable army. Better help England fight Germany than fight Germany and Japan single handed.

H. M. HATE.

THE SMOKE CAMPAIGN.

Chicago, March 10.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—I wish heartily to commend your efforts to purify the air of Chicago by the prevention of smoke. To my mind there is no greater factor in the spread of infectious diseases than smoke and dust. And I trust you will initiate a movement to compel apartments to install smoke reducers. When I built on Kenesaw terrace ten years ago there were few surrounding apartment buildings and the air was pure, now we survive in the midst of soot polluting the air we breathe, preventing proper ventilation and destroying our household goods. Keep up the fight!

PACIFIST B. AND P.

Washington, D. C., March 9.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—We all know there is too much good patriotic American blood in Chicago for that city ever to gain the reputation of a pacifist community.

However, it seems Chicagoans might use their kindly influence towards restraining women like Jane Addams from coming here and endeavoring to parade their pacifist bunk and piffle at so critical a time.

N. NICHOLSON [illegible].

Elkhart, Ind., March 9.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—With all due deference to her sex, we respectfully suggest that Miss Jane Addams devote all her energies to combating the influences of Barney Grogan et al. at her own door and leave the work of protecting America from the kaiser to strong men until she shall have demonstrated by her work at home her fitness for this heavy work.

DEMOCRATS TO MAKE FIGHT FOR SULLOWAY SEAT

New Hampshire Drive Is Planned in an Effort to Gain House Control.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., March 12.—[Special.]—The contest for control of the house took on a new aspect today when the Democratic congressional campaign committee announced it would make a fight for the seat of the late Congressman Sulloway of New Hampshire, who died yesterday.

Sulloway was a Republican. He was the fourth man sent to the sixty-fifth congress to die since the election last November. The three others were Representatives Tribble of Georgia, Finley of South Carolina, and Conry of New York—all Democrats. Successors to Representatives Tribble and Finley have been elected. A Democratic successor to Representative Conry is expected to be elected.

Fight for Sulloway's Seat.

The Democrats will go into New Hampshire and demand the election of a Democratic congressman on the ground that the country should stand by the president in the existing crisis. They argue that Mr. Wilson should not be forced to deal with a Republican house or even with a compromise house, with the country on the verge of war.

It is possible Eugene E. Reed, former Democratic congressman from the Sulloway district will be called upon to run again. Reed defeated Sulloway in 1912 but was beaten by him in 1914.

The death of Sulloway reduced the Republican membership to 214. The Democrats have 213 and there are six independents and two vacancies now.

Democrats Grow Confident.

Democratic leaders today appeared more confident than ever before that they would organize the house.

They spoke as if they expected to gain the votes of at least four of the six independents and possibly five of the six. If every member of the house is present on the opening day the Democrats will need four of these votes to win.

NEW YORK ELECTION APRIL 12.

Albany, N. Y., March 12.—A proclamation calling for a special election April 12 in the Fifteenth New York congressional district to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of Representative Michael F. Conry, a Democrat, was issued by Gov. Whitman today. The district has a large Democratic majority.

Delay in Sulloway Case.

Concord, N. H., March 12.—The successor to Congressman Cyrus A. Sulloway will not be chosen in time to take his seat when congress convenes in special session April 16, it became known today.

Although it had been believed the governor could order an election in the First district within a few days, examination of the statutes showed that fifty-seven days must elapse from the date upon which a rescript is issued before the election can be held.

BABY HERO

Four Year Old Walter Karbonski Knocks Mother's Assailant Unconscious with Poker.

Walter Karbonski, 4 years old, of 812 West Thirty-fifth place, proved himself of the stuff of which heroes are made when Stanley Yankus, a roomer in his home, attacked his mother, Mrs. Sophia Karbonski.

Yankus, it is said, was two months behind in his rent, and when he attempted to move out without paying Mrs. Karbonski held his two bulldogs as hostages of war. Yankus flew into a rage, and, grappling with Mrs. Karbonski, hurled her to the floor and began to choke her. Johnnie Karbonski, 7 years old, ran to the street and screamed "Police" at the top of his small lungs. Walter did not wait for the police. He hurried to the kitchen, caught up the poker, and rushed to his mother's aid. He belabored Yankus over the head with the poker, cutting his scalp in several places and knocking him unconscious. Policeman Bernard Love came in response to Johnnie's cries and arrested Yankus.

Yankus appeared in Judge Bernard P. Barasa's court, and Walter was a witness against him. The little fellow was lifted to the witness chair and his chubby legs stuck straight out in front of him.

"Well, Mr. Karbonski," said Judge Barasa, "what do you know about this case?"

"He was chokin' me mudder," testified the baby hero, "and I t'ought he was goin' to kill her. I got the poker and cracked him on the head and he fell over on the floor. I fixed him. Nobody can beat me mudder."

Judge Barasa told Walter he did exactly right, and fined Yankus $5 and costs.

CURTIS MEASURE TO GET HELP OF 30 DEMOCRATS

Lowden and Others Think Bill for Convention Will Be Passed.

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.

Springfield, Ill., March 12.—[Special.]—It's either a landslide for the Curtis constitutional convention resolution when it gets to its final roll call on Wednesday, or it will be defeated for the lack of not more than three votes.

It appears tonight that there are thirty Democratic votes sure for the resolution. This means that in order to get the 102 votes needed for the two-thirds majority, the resolution must get seventy-two of the eighty-five Republican votes.

Gov. Lowden has made an administration measure of the resolution. He believes the prospects are good.

Behind the game is seen the hands of the big political organizations in Chicago, and it is recognized by the men on the job, with the governor at the top, that real work is ahead.

One faction against the measure is composed of the representatives who have been elected by the minority system of representation. They do not seem to consider that there is doubt whether a constitutional convention would abolish the minority system or that, even if it did, a six year period must intervene before such provision would become effective.

JOHNSON QUITS GOVERNORSHIP TO GO TO SENATE

Sacramento, Cal., March 12.—Gov. Hiram W. Johnson, United States senator elect, announced his resignation from the governorship here today, effective March 15.

In a statement the governor said:

"I have had in mind but one thought—my obligation and my duty to the people of California who, by overwhelming majority, have expressed confidence in me and who have treated me with a generosity seldom accorded to any man in public life. Our nation now confronts a great international crisis in which California should play a due part.

"The extra session of congress renders it imperative that every representative should lend his presence and his aid in this crisis."

His announcement followed an unsubstantiated report that he would resign the senatorship and keep the governorship.

MERRIAM-FETZER DECISION HANGS ON 48 BALLOTS

Recount Gives Fetzer Five Lead—Judge Scully Final Arbiter.

Upon the ruling of County Judge Scully tomorrow afternoon as to how forty-eight disputed ballots shall be tabulated will depend the result of the aldermanic primary in the Seventh ward.

The completion of the recount yesterday gives the nomination to William R. Fetzer by just five votes, the same margin he had after the election commissioners had examined several judges and clerks and issued the official proclamation.

The final recount, with the disputed ballots yet to be disposed of, gives the following totals:

Fetzer	6,052
Merriam	6,047

An effort is to be made by the Democratic leaders to elect twenty-six of the thirty-six Democratic candidates for aldermen. If this could be accomplished the Democratic two-thirds control would be able to pass ordinances over the mayor's veto.

Instructions were sent to all the ward leaders yesterday carrying this information.

Judge Scully today will rule on the petition of Edward Santry, defeated in the primary by Fred E. Wenig, for a recount of the ballots in the aldermanic fight in the Second ward. Santry charges all kinds of irregularities and frauds. The Wenig people stoutly deny these charges.

WHO KNOWS?

Miss Maud Trewin and Hugh Leyerle Deny Marrying at Valparaiso.

Following a telegram from Valparaiso, Ind., that Miss Maud Trewin of 3082 East Eightieth street had been married to Hugh Leyerle of 7847 Burnham avenue, a reporter called at the Trewin home. Mrs. Trewin opened the door. The reporter asked if it was true her daughter was married.

"Maud," she called, "come here. Were you married today?"

Maud blushed and denied.

"Well," said Mrs. Trewin, "her father has gone to lodge. When he gets home he'll get it out of her. You've got the first chapter, young man. Call me up in the morning, and I'll give you the second chapter."

Mr. Leyerle was approached.

"Good Lord!" said he, "where'd you get that? I couldn't get married. I ain't got a nickel. And think of the high cost of living!"

Which makes it another mystery.

MASS AT CAPITAL TO BOOST BONDS FOR GOOD ROADS

Springfield, Ill., March 12.—[Special.]—The big drive on the Illinois legislature for the adoption of the resolution that submits the $60,000,000 road bond proposition to the vote of the state begins tomorrow.

More than 1,000 good roads boosters, representing all counties in the state, are on their way to Springfield to participate in the convention.

The advance guard tonight is working upon the framework of a bill that will reconstruct the automobile license law. The legislative impression is that this shall be left to the auto owners themselves and any recommendation that shall be made is likely to have legislative indorsement.

The convention begins at 1 o'clock tomorrow at the Leland hotel. In the evening there will be a good roads dinner, over which William G. Edens of Chicago will preside.

INVESTMENT

Why Not Buy Your Car as an Investment?

When you buy your next car, consider the transaction an investment. Use the same care and caution in making this investment that you would provided you were going to spend $1,000.00 or more for any other investment.

People who buy cars as an investment, buy cars with a name back of them, like the name Studebaker. They buy them with a clear view of the "ultimate return."

Almost any car runs good and looks good, and is good, in its fresh new paint and shining metal work when it is new; but consider it six months from now—a year from now—or two years from now—on this basis the Studebaker is a sound investment.

The original cost is moderate; if you care to sell a Studebaker later on—"liquidate"—the price on a used Studebaker is as high in proportion to first cost as any car in the world—much higher than most. If you have no idea of selling your car, then its operation cost in a year or two years is less than other cars—first, because of the splendid quality of the car; second, because of accessibility in case of inspection, adjustment, or repair; third, in case of accident, new parts can be obtained at lower cost than you pay for the parts of other cars of equal value and quality.

And then comes durability—that quality in the car which keeps it running month after month, and year after year, at low up-keep cost.

The Studebaker Pays Dividends.

This quality in the Studebaker has made them the selection of the stage driver, the taxicab driver, the commercial user, where a car must stand up day after day and give continuous, uninterrupted service. On this basis the Studebaker is a genuine investment, pays you dividends not only in comfort, pride of ownership, but in keeping down expense year in and year out.

Come in and let us give you a list of the names of owners who have used their cars thousands and thousands of miles. Their opinion will be worth something to you.

Your Opportunity

NEVER in all the marvelous period of development of our United States have the opportunities for success been so many, or so splendid, as they are today. This is a land in which success in any field has always come easy; the "romance" of achievement is almost commonplace in American life. To anyone possessing initiative, courage and persistence, the reward of effort has been as certain as sunrise under the favorable conditions this country has always afforded.

There are many notable examples of men and women whose accomplishments stand out singularly brilliant even for America. But success has been easy for every one who had ambition.

It might seem that the possibilities had been exhausted. But, on the contrary, the opportunities of today (and of tomorrow) are greater than any in the past—even beyond the ken of the wisest men among us. For we as a nation are turning a new page in history, and rising to new and larger duties.

And the call is for men—for young men of vision as well as of initiative and courage. But this is not all—for these qualities, to be fruitful, must be inspired and guided by knowledge. In order to think in Twentieth-Century terms, and to visualize the future and follow the trend of events, you must have knowledge—you must know more than was necessary a generation ago, you must know more every day.

This is not a hard condition—it is easily possible to any one willing to give a fair amount of time to study. Much has been added in recent years to the general store of knowledge and it has been made so accessible that there is no young man (or young woman) with the fires of ambition lighted, who cannot equip himself or herself for a successful career.

It matters not whether your inclination is for business or for manufacture, for engineering or law, for journalism or statesmanship—the way is wide open.

Read* and study. Set aside a portion of each day—an hour or two, if you can; a half hour, if that is all you can spare—and learn something new. Make it an ironclad rule to know more today than you did yesterday—and be sure the knowledge you acquire is authoritative.

Andrew Carnegie once said: "A half hour a day spent on a particular line of study is the best investment any man can make."

The one complete and authoritative source of information on all lines is the new Encyclopaedia Britannica.

In the popular low-priced "Handy Volume" form, this wonderful intellectual short cut to success is now within the means of any young man or young woman who has the requisite ambition to aspire to a place above the average run—out and above the rank and file.

Is it worth while? Think!

Consider the possibilities of the immediate future. See your great country moving swiftly toward its greater destiny as the leader among the nations.

Prepare yourself to have a part in the great accomplishments of the future. Equip yourself to take your rightful place among the successful Americans of tomorrow.

Never was opportunity so abundant—never so sure in its prospect of reward as it is today, at the dawn of a new era in the history of nations.

FIRST OF GIRL'S 20 'SONS' HOME FROM TRENCHES

Private Belden, on Sick Leave, Is Guest of Miss Andrews.

Jack Belden, private, returned "home" yesterday. He had the first glimpse of his "mother," and she the first sight of any of her twenty "sons." Miss Edith Fargo Andrews of 1362 Astor street took it upon herself to makes the lives of a score of soldiers in the big war more endurable. The rest of her "sons," as she calls them, are still at the battle front.

When Private Belden arrived he experienced some embarrassment in addressing Miss Andrews as "mother," for she looked younger than he. He had acquired the habit, however, in his letters. He was among those homeless soldiers who, until Miss Andrews "adopted" him, got their only experience of "a letter from home" by reading the letters of their comrades. Miss Andrews obtained her names from Lady Drummond—the names of men who needed a little sympathy and encouragement of the home variety, and she sent them comforts and luxuries and reading matter.

Writes to Hospital.

When she first wrote to "Son Jack," he was lying seriously wounded in an English hospital. He is on sick leave now because of a second injury. After a short visit to Chicago he will return to a Toronto hospital for another operation.

"It was more of a whim than anything else that caused me to enlist on Aug. 8, 1914, a few days after war was declared," said Belden yesterday at Miss Andrews' home. "I am an American and lived in Seattle. I expected to be back home after a few months. Many a time later, when the order to fix bayonets came, did I regret that step and wish I was home."

In Battle of Ypres.

Belden was first under fire in February, 1915, in the Ypres salient. At that time he was with the Third brigade, Queen's Own of Toronto.

It was in September, 1915, that Belden was wounded in an unsucessful charge. He lay from noon until dark in "no man's land" when he was picked up and sent to a hospital.

"I didn't know where I was hit," he said. "The last I remembered was going up into the air and I knew I had been struck. When I woke up in the hospital, the bullet was tied to my wrist, and the nurse begged me to give it to her. She said I was the first soldier she had prepared for the surgeon."

Is Your Wife to Blame for the Size of the Bills?

THE high cost of living is bound to stay high just so long as folks encourage outworn business methods.

Maybe your wife does watch expenditures like a hawk—cuts out all unnecessary expenses—is on the alert for all the best "buys."

But does she get deep down under the surface of things and throw her trade to the merchant who uses business-like methods—who saves money for himself and his customers?

Suppose the housewives and the merchants of this city were to get together and cut the waste out of the cost of having purchases sent home!

It can be done—just by more efficient package delivery.

Still quite a few old-fashioned horse delivery outfits clattering over the streets, trying vainly to keep up with 20th century demands! The merchants who own them are asleep. They haven't yet realized that in these days of close margins, speed and quick turnovers, volume and service are the real money-makers.

And then there is the other fellow who says motor delivery "doesn't pay." Of course it doesn't pay him. He's using a converted pleasure car which burns up gasoline, oil and tires—eats its head off with repair bills—isn't built to meet package delivery requirements.

But there's a happier picture than these—the man who has a husky, trusty, economical VIM Delivery Truck at his curb—ready to shoot orders out among his trade—and to take care of new customers as fast as they come.

There's your business man! His goods and his prices are bound to be right because he thinks right about his expenses.

The VIM Delivery Truck is the cheapest delivery unit to operate because it is designed solely to meet package delivery needs. There isn't a pleasure car part in the VIM. It's built to deliver cheaply anything from a few packages up to a thousand pounds.

It will cover three times as much territory as a horse and wagon. Result—more customers, greater volume, lower costs.

And the VIM Delivery Truck is the easiest delivery unit on the market to buy—through our Deferred Payment Plan.

20,000 progressive American merchants are paying for their VIM Trucks out of their delivery savings.

Full information about the VIM Plan on request.

MAYOR CALLS 'GROW A GARDEN' FOLK TOMORROW

Meeting in Art Institute to Lend Impetus to "Tribune" Movement.

Fresh blows at the climbing cost of living will be struck at the "Grow A Garden" meeting which Mayor Thompson has called for tomorrow in Fullerton hall at the Art institute. Its purpose it to lend impetus to the campaign of THE TRIBUNE to put a vegetable garden in each back yard and vacant spot in Chicago this summer.

Invitations have been sent to several hundred clubs and societies to have representatives at the meeting. It is the first of a series of such gathering planned for the next two or three weeks.

Swift Employes Busy.

More action in the garden campaign came at the meeting of 100 office employés of Swift & Co. yesterday for the purpose of arranging to lease garden plots in the tract of land at Forty-eighth street and Kedzie avenue.

As potatoes came tumbling down to the price of $2.10 a bushel—the price was $4 a bushel three weeks ago—rice, arch foe of spuds as a food commodity, climbed upward. One cent a pound was tacked on the price of rice by the grocers.

Wants City Warehouse.

Ald. W. E. Rodriguez presented an order in the city council calling for enabling legislation to permit the city to take over and operate warehouses for the distribution of food at cost. It was referred to the judiciary committee. He also offered a memorial to congress for legislation to provide for regulating the prices of foodstuffs.

Milk will sell for 10 to 11 cents a quart this summer. Chicago dealers are accepting prices decided upon by the producers' association.

'RUBBISH,' SAYS SULLIVAN OF GROGAN ATTACK

Assistant State's Attorney Michael F. Sullivan yesterday characterized as "rubbish" the attack made upon him in a political speech by Barney Grogan because of the state's attorney's investigation of vote frauds in the Eighteenth ward Democratic primary. Grogan's "victory" in the race for the aldermanic nomination over Mr. Sullivan's candidate, John J. Touhy, is under investigation by the grand jury.

"I wouldn't dignify Grogan's wild statement by replying to it," Mr. Sullivan said.

Grogan's charge that aids of the state's attorney participated in vote frauds led Assistant State's Attorney Charles Center Case Jr. to say:

"If he has any evidence let him bring it in. He doesn't need to ask for appointment of a special state's attorney and a special grand jury. I am anxious to get whatever evidence of fraud is in the ward."

WILSON AGAIN NAMES CARLILE

Washington, D. C., March 12.—[Special.]—The president sent to the senate today the nominations of all men whom he selected for office during the closing days of the recent congress and who failed to be confirmed because of the failure of the senate to consider them.

Included in the list sent to the senate today was the name of William Buford Carlile to be postmaster at Chicago and William H. (Big Bill) Edwards as collector of internal revenue for the second district of New York.

Senator Lewis said today he expected a confirmation of Mr. Carlile at the first session in which the senate takes up the Illinois nominations.

Bismarck, N. D., Paper Sold.

Bismarck, N. D., March 12.—The Bismarck Tribune, an afternoon daily newspaper, was sold for $13,500 at a receiver's sale today to E. A. Hughes, a Bismarck business man.

U. S. STEEL CALLED GIANT GRINDING UP LILLIPUTIANS

U. S., Trying to Smash Trust, Brands it Trade Stifler.

Washington, D. C., March 12.—The United States Steel corporation was alternately extolled and denounced today before the Supreme court as arguments continued in the federal antitrust dissolution suit.

Fair treatment by the corporation of customers, competitors, and employés, without monopolistic or unfair trade practices, was claimed by R. W. Lindabury, counsel for the defendants.

"An abnormal, illegal, and grossly overcapitalized colossal supercombination of combinations" was how the corporation was characterized by Henry E. Colton, special assistant to the attorney general.

U. S. Only Complainant.

Mr. Lindabury denied that the corporation has the power or disposition to oppress competitors and asserted that only the government—not customers or competitors—had complained of its effect.

"The trade feels no oppression; customers and employés are satisfied," he said in concluding his argument. "If there ever was a concern entitled to judgment that it is performing with clear, honest, and fair conduct and beneficial effect on industry it is this one. This is not the time, when we are endeavoring to mobilize our industries, to disintegrate or destroy them."

Feared Carnegie Campaign.

Following the defendants' counsel Mr. Colton for the government spoke of strong competition existing between the Carnegie, Federal, and National companies before they combined, a combination effected, he said, because J. P. Morgan and others interested feared an outbreak of disastrous competition, involving lowering of prices.

"The Morgans knew Carnegie was threatening to make it warm for them," he said. "The corporation took over all big, powerful competitors and completely outclasses and overtops those left outside."

Welfare League Indorses Social Reform Measures

The Welfare league in the Hotel La Salle yesterday indorsed bills pending in the legislature which aim to do away with places of amusement, saloons, disorderly houses in the vicinity of public schools, sale of liquor in dance halls, billposting, gambling in foodstuffs, and for the care of feeble minded persons. Mrs. William S. Hoig, Brookfield, Ill., president of the league, presided at the meeting.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE RAPS HOME RULE BILL

"This is not a 'home rule bill,' but a 'no rule bill,' for its passage would destroy all the existing laws of the state regulating and restricting the sale of liquor. Even its sponsors do not believe it has a chance to pass."

E. J. Davis, superintendent for the Anti-Saloon league, took this shot yesterday at the bill introduced in the city council by Ald. Otto Kerner at the request of the United Societies. The council committee on judiciary recommended that it be indorsed by the council after an amendment preserving the status of the existing "dry" districts in Chicago.

In brief, the bill gives to cities the right to regulate and control the sale of liquor within their boundaries. It would suspend the enforcement of the Sunday closing law, the Harper high license law, and other important statutes on the books. As amended, a referendum on the adoption of the bill may be had in cities upon the filing of a petition bearing the signatures of 15 per cent of the qualified voters.

An important State street lease, involving the location of a bank at State and Adams streets and a change in the name of the new Twentieth Century building, at the southwest corner of the streets named, to the Century building, was reported yesterday. The lease covers the bank floor of the building, which has been taken by the Lake and State Savings bank, now at the corner of Lake and State streets, for a term of twenty years. The name of the bank also will be changed to that of the Century Trust and Savings bank, after which the building is to be named. It will have a capital and surplus of $600,000, double that of the Lake and State bank.

In addition to a regular banking business, the bank will have a savings department, safety deposit vaults, and transact a general trust business. While the terms of the lease are not disclosed, it is understood the term rental aggregates about $190,000.

The building now occupied by the bank is to be torn down to make room for the sixteen story store, office, and theater building to be erected at the southwest corner of State and Lake streets.

Ward & Co. Plan Addition.

Montgomery Ward & Co. have acquired another piece of property on the north branch of the Chicago river, adjoining on the north their plant at Chicago avenue bridge and the river. The property, which comprises about 40,000 square feet, was acquired from the Brunswick-Balke-Collender company and was used by the company for lumber yard purposes. It is described as being on Kingsbury street between Hobbie street and the north branch of the river, 182 feet east front to the river.

The Chicago Title and Trust company took title in the deed, whih was filed for record yesterday, a consideration of $10 being given. The actual price, however, is understood to have been about $125,000, at the rate of a little over $3 a square foot. While it is understood the property was acquired by Ward & Co. with a view to improving it with another addition to their large warehouses at that point representatives of the company declined to make any statement regarding any plans they may have in connection with the property, which is now traversed by the tracks of the company.

Calumet District Trade.

A noteworthy transaction in the Calumet district, made a matter of record, was the purchase by the General Chemical company from J. S. Phipps and others, of a tract of about twelve and one-half acres adjoining the present plant of the company on the Calumet river and the Calumet and Western railroad right of way, for an expressed consideration of $55,845. The property is said to have been acquired for future possible requirements.

Meyering & Klein, north shore builders, have leased the corner store in the building at the northeast corner of Bosworth and Howard avenues, to the McLean Drug company, operating the Central Drug Stores, for a term of fifteen years at a reported term rental of $36,000, which is looked upon as a fine showing for that neighborhood.

Hall & Ellis have leased the entire second floor of the Plymouth building at 417 South Dearborn street to the Lanston Monotype Machine company for a term of years from May 1 next at a term rent of $16,200.

James Maltman has sold to Mrs. Catherine Boehming the six apartment building at 828 Lafayette parkway, lot 50x110 feet, between Sheridan road and the lake, for a reported consideration of $25,000, subject to an incumbrance of $15,000. The purchaser conveyed in part payment a three flat building on Foster avenue, near Clark street. Williams & Hicks were the brokers.

Evans Avenue Deal.

The property at the northwest corner of Evans avenue and Forty-eighth street, lot 50x120 feet, with flat improvements, has been conveyed by George C. Newbury to Effie A. McKay of Auburn, N. Y., the consideration being nominal, subject to an incumbrance of $20,000.

Arthur C. Schieferetein has purchased from J. A. Hayes the property at the southwest corner of North and Clybourn avenues, lot 25x149 feet, north front, with store and flat improvements, consideration nominal, subject to an incumbrance of $15,000.

The six apartment building at 3520-22 Grand boulevard, lot 54x124 feet, east front, has been conveyed by Sylvia Allen to Louise C. Rosander, consideration nominal, subject to an incumbrance of $14,000.

Record has been made of the sale by J. J. Velek et al. to Ernest Messner of the property in Halsted street, 273 feet north of Sixty-fifth street, lot 50x124 feet, east front, with store and flat improvements, consideration nominal, subject to an incumbrance of $17,500.

Joseph N. Fouchard of the Knox School of Efficiency will be the speaker at today's weekly luncheon of the Cook county real estate board at the Hotel Sherman, his subject being "Suggestions on Personal Efficiency."

LOWDEN BOOMED FOR PRESIDENT AT G. O. P. FEAST

Peoria, Ill., March 12.—[Special.]—Frank O. Lowden's presidential boom for 1920 was launched tonight at a banquet of the Central Illinois Republican club by Col. Frederick H. Smith, the toastmaster and western financial manager of the Republican national committee last fall. The mention of the Illinois governor's name was the signal for a demonstration.

Congressman Chiperfield opened his campaign for the Republican nomination for United States senator.

Come See the Chalmers

Chalmers 7-Passenger, $1350

What is it that sets Chalmers cars apart from all others? Why is the Chalmers a better value than many other cars —some of much higher price?

Here are a few reasons. Only a few. Read them. Then come to us and let us prove to you that meaning of the word Quality—in a motor car.

Materials

The Chalmers, inch for inch, pound for pound, stands high above the other cars near it, in size or price.

Chalmers selects only the finest raw materials. For the frame—carbon steel. For the axle shafts and propeller shaft—chrome nickel. For the front axle—drop forged carbon steel. For the motor casting—close-grained gray iron. For the rear gears—nickel steel, heat treated to secure hardness and toughness. For the transmission housing—aluminum alloy.

So it goes throughout the car from end to end. Examine the Chalmers carefully. The deeper you go the deeper you are impressed with the quality of Chalmers materials.

Manufacture

Chalmers builds "from the ground up" in Chalmers own shops. Motors are Chalmers built, from rough castings to the final test. Built with skill, perfect facilities and untold care.

Motor

The motor is a light weight, high power six. Walls are tested for uniform thickness, to prevent the possibility of distorton and loss of compression.

A specially designed intake manifold improves carburetion. Handles fuel economically. Insures easy starting in cold weather.

The crankshaft is designed to transmit maximum power of the motor without distortion or vibration. A one-piece crankshaft of drop forged carbon steel, heat treated. Noted for sturdiness. Strength. Rigidity. Balanced while rotating at high speed on a special machine. The balancing weights are a unit with the shaft.

Transmission and Axles

There is quality in the transmission. In the housing. In the gears. With Hyatt quiet bearings. Gears and shafts are made of nickel steel, case hardened. The transmission housing is cast from aluminum alloy.

The axles are amply strong to withstand all the stresses of hard service. The front axle is an I-beam drop forging of carbon steel. Spindles are extra large. With Timken roller bearings. A disc protector keeps out dust or grit.

Rear axle: light, strong, simple. The identical type used on some of the most costly American and European cars.

Frame and Body

An exceptional frame. Light and stiff. Sturdy and strong. Made of a pressed channel section. 5 inches deep. 2½ inch flanges. ⅛ inch thickness. Braced by 3 cross members and reinforcing plates.

A sheet steel body. With frame of select ash. Genuine leather upholstery. Luxurious cushions. Soft and Deep. High seat backs. Wide seats. Four bow top. Covered with Pantasote. Curtains equipped with quick and easy fasteners.

Equipment

Equipment is costly and complete. Westinghouse electric starting and lighting. Willard 80 A. H. Battery. Stewart-Warner Speedometer and Vacuum feed fuel system. Gun metal finish instrument board. Nickeled foot rest. These features indicate the high quality of equipment used on the Chalmers cars.

Appearance

Body lines are distinctive. Unique. The radiator is high and narrow. The hood is straight with an unbroken sweep. The windshield is the popular slanted type. Molded oval fenders harmonize with the body.

All of the above means Quality. The kind of quality you need in the car you buy, and the kind of quality you GET in the Chalmers

WANT A CAR AT CUT PRICE? HERE'S CHANCE

Exhibit of Used Machines at Coliseum in May—Auction Probable.

BY SHEPPARD BUTLER.

The plain man is coming into his own. After a generation or so of lordliness, the aristocratic motor car is to extend official recognition to the slender purse and its frugal possessor.

So many folk of the middle west have shown an interest in the purchase of second hand gasoline chariots that they are to have an automobile show of their own. The novel event, to be known as "The great central market used car show," will be staged at the Coliseum May 5 to 13 under the direction of a committee of Chicago dealers headed by Erwin Greer, who sells Fords.

May Auction Some Cars.

Not a single new car will be among the several hundred exhibits promised and some surprising records in the matter of publicly announced low prices are to be established. Many of the cars shown probably will be sold at auction.

The project was announced last night at the annual meeting and banquet of the Chicago Automobile Trade association at Bismarck garden. About 1,200 dealers and salesmen—the largest gathering of the kind every held in Chicago—taxed the seating capacity of the big Marigold room.

Double Auto License Fee?

President William G. Edens of the Illinois Highway Improvement association wired from Springfield that if the proposed $60,000,000 bond issue legislation for new Illinois roads is to be passed it must provide that the bonds' principal and interest be paid by motorists.

Mr. Edens asked indorsement of an immediate 50 per cent increase in automobile license fees, with a further 50 per cent increase in 1920, and, somewhat to their own surprise, the banqueters voted to approve the measure, which is expected to develop widespread opposition among motor car owners.

Resolutions were passed and telegraphed to President Wilson, assuring him of the organization's active support "in any emergency that may call for the coöperation of automobile dealers and drivers."

Officers Are Re-elected.

In an interval of the program speeches and cabaret stunts the association reelected its officers of last year, the list including Joseph F. Davis, president; C. R. Dashiell, vice president; W. G. Tennant, secretary, and Henry Paulman, treasurer.

MARSHALL FIVES TAKE TWO MORE

Marshall lightweights and bantams advanced toward the Chicago Basketball league finals by landing two easy games. The 135 pounders beat Schurz, 34 to 5, while the feathers ran up a 15 to 1 score against Waller in the first quarter and won, 29 to 6, playing the final quarter with only four men, after Hollowick was ousted for personal fouls.

Wendell Phillips heavies administered a beating to Calumet 32 to 14. Hyde Park heavies took a tight game from Parker, 12 to 10, when Birkhoff tossed a basket from the center of the floor at the finish.

McKinley lightweights and bantams forfeited to Senn, the west side players continuing the strike called last week after Principal Clayberg refused to allow spectators at McKinley's home games. Lineups:

Norgren and Utah Five Here for A. A. U. Tourney

The Brigham Young university basketball team arrived yesterday for the National A. A. U. championships, which start tomorrow afternoon in the Second Regiment armory. In charge of the squad was Nels Norgren, U. of C. athletic star and last season coach of the University of Utah quintet, holder of the national title.

The University of Utah has not sent a team because several of its last year's team have graduated. Its five this season was beaten twice by Brigham Young.

Central A. A. U. officials have received word that the Montana State college five will be in Chicago this morning. Other teams on their way are the Y. M. C. A. Celts of Oakland, Cal.; Kansas City A. C.; Alva, Okla. The Browning Kings, champions of St. Louis, are due tomorrow.

At New York—Buddy Jackson knocked out Tim Murphy [7]; Italian Joe Gans beat Paul Dixon [10].

At Youngstown—George Chip stopped Bob Moha [4].

BY RAY PEARSON.

Racine, Wis., March 12.—[Special.]—It took a junkman from our own west side in Chicago to knock the breeze out of the sails of Joe Dory, demon slugger of Racine, in the Lakeside arena tonight, said junkman being Phil Harrison. What Harrison did to Dory might almost be termed a slaughter, but Joe escaped a knockout by assimilating a world of punishment.

The final round found Dory struggling to stay the limit, and when the gong sounded he was carried to his corner, leg weary, bleeding from the nose and mouth, and with a cut over the left eye. It would be hard to imagine a more thoroughly beaten boxer.

Phil Gets Only One Mark.

Harrison's only mark was a cut ear, inflicted in the second round. Dory was no match at all for the junkman. Phil's victory was an upset, for odds of 2 to 1 were offered in Racine today that Dory would be returned the winner.

For a couple of seconds in the first round it looked like curtains for Dory, for Phil upset him with a choppy right. Dory was up quickly, but wabbled through the rest of the round.

All the rest of the way Harrison simply made a chopping block of Dory, splitting his lip in the fourth and his eye in the seventh. Harrison had Joe groggy in the seventh but could not finish him, for Dory gamely stood the gaff.

A claim was made after the bout that Dory had broken his right hand in the second round. Harrison weighed 160 pounds and Dory 157 at 3 o'clock.

Dolan Trims Matty McCue.

Sunburst Dolan, brilliant of plumage and equally bright as a mauly swinger, slipped a boxing lesson to Matty McCue in the semi-windup, winning off by himself in ten rounds. McCue spent most of his itme receiving stiff left jabs on the mouth and nose, his main method of attack being fruitless efforts to land his famous right hand knockout swing. He did not connect even once, for Dolan was in a ducking mood and escaped.

Results of Prelims.

Hostilities started with a four rounder, Eddie Mensor of Racine outpointing Young Ulick of Milwaukee. Mensor weighed 124½ and Ulick 123½ pounds. After a couple of knockdowns in the first round, Young Wallace of Racine decided he didn't want any more and Chappy Howard was the winner. Both weighed 144½ pounds.

CHIP STOPS MOHA IN FOURTH ROUND

Youngstown, O., March 12.—[Special.]—George Chip stopped "Bob" Moha tonight in the fourth round of a scheduled twelve round bout. Chip staggered Moha with a terrific right uppercut five seconds before the bell in the third and Moha never fully recovered. After a minute and a half of fighting in the fourth Moha was sinking under Chip's fusillade and his seconds saved him from taking the count by climbing through the ropes.

Jackson Bests E. Coulon, but Gotch Calls Go Draw

Hot Springs, Ark., March 12.—[Special.]—Although Frank Gotch called the ten round bout between Eddie Coulon of New Orleans and Nat Jackson of Oklahoma City a draw, Jackson had the better of the milling. The crowd confused Gotch at times and he paid more attention to those at the ringside than to the fighters.

In the Wake of the News

By RING W. LARDNER.

ON THE 8:22.

It's morning, and now every banker and clerk
Must hurry through breakfast and hurry to work.
O, see them come dashing through sunshine or rain,
To get to the station in time for the train!
There's Carl, and there's Albert, and Ed, Bug, and Bob,
And Bert, Bill, and Walter, and Ash—what a mob!—
Scuff, Heine, Gay, Allen—O. yes, quite a few
Of our very best folks ride the 8:22.

The crossing bell rings and the gates are shot down;
The choo-choo approaches fair Riverside town,
And many good citizens recklessly hop
Aboard the front coach ere she comes to a stop,
At peril of life and at peril of limb.
The one who is tardy, ah! woe be to him!
Lord help the unfortunate gentlemen who
Are tardy in boarding the 8:22!

Do they risk the loss of their heads, hands, and feet
In order that they may be sure of a seat?
Do they fight to get on while she's still slowing down
Because no one wants to stand up clear to town?
Or is there some prize—a new hat or a Ford—
That goes to the party that first gets aboard?
What is the incentive for this reckless crew
To mount while she's running, the 8:22?

Well, listen: A part of the forwardmost car
Is the place where the baggage and baggageman are;
A train on the C., B. & Q., headed east,
Can always be trusted to carry at least
One trunk of the shape and the acreage which
Are needed to handle a large game of pitch;
Eight only can play.—That's the reason men do
A Brodie to get on the 8:22.

A quarter a corner; each set-up a dime.
"Deal fast!" "Show some pepper! We haven't much time."
Then, "One," murmurs Heine, and "Two," murmurs Scuff.
"I'm sorry," says Ed, "but that isn't enough."
"You've bought it," they tell him; he leads out his ace;
He's as popular now as a bicycle race,
For all Friendship ceases, all Love is taboo,
Toward a guy who bids three on the 8:22.

Ash plays his lone jack, to the others' deep grief;
The ten doesn't fall; there's a sigh of relief,
Which swells to a shout of "Hee-hee!" and "Ho-ho!"
When Heine comes out with a two-spot for low.
The king is led next; there is tension again—
Will Bob be obliged to cut loose with his ten?
No. He has it twice guarded; he doesn't come through—
Loud cheers drown the sound of the 8:22!

"I'm set," Ed confesses, tears dimming his eyes.
"Tough luck!" is the comment of seven mean guys.
Bob takes two more tens with his ten spot of trumps,
And Edward is given the first of the bumps.
Says he: "That's the height of misfortune, I claim,
When with ace, king, and nine I can't get any game."
"Tough luck!" they repeat. "We're all sorry for you."
They're compassionate birds on the 8:22.

The train's nearly in; two more minutes, about;
And Albert and Scuffy need one to go out,
While Ashley is seven, as also is Bill.
The others' bad luck has offset their great skill.
The low boys are stalling, delaying—'cause why?
'Cause nobody pays in the case of a tie;
That's a rule of the game on the C., B. & Q.,
At least it's a rule on the 8:22.

But now the train pauses for lack of a track;
Scuff hastily deals the eight hands from the pack.
Says Ed, "I bid two," and says Ash, "I bid three."
Says Bug, "I bid four, and may heavn help me!"
Now, woe to the party who pulleth a bone!
'Twere better for him to be tied to a stone
And casually dropped in the deep, briny blue
Than to blow in a pinch on the 8:22.

Bug pitches an ace, the excitement is great;
Bob's there with the four spot, and Bill has the eight.
Carl throws on the deuce and the gentleman's set;
But is the excitement abated? Not yet!
For now everybody's ambition and aim
Is to keep Scuff and Albert from jack or the game.
Now slough to the bidder, you good men and true!
Live up to the code of the 8:22!

CHICAGO!
VAL—

The train's in the station; the pastime is done,
And no one is loser, and no one has won.
We're all just the same as we were, save, of course,
That several are angry and every one's hoarse,
And one or two of us are feeling the strain
That is due to our daredevil dive for the train.
Tomorrow, however, we'll be good as new,
And I'll meet you, dear Love, on the 8:22.

JOHN OLIN PINS DR. ROLLER BY BRAWN IN RING

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Displaying strength, but showing little of scientific wrestling, John Olin, the Finn, who has a referee's decision over Joe Stecher, won a two fall decision over Dr. Roller in the main bout of the wrestling show held at the Coliseum last night. Olin won the first after a hard fought contest in 47:51 with a reverse bodylock and the second in 4:50 with a body scissors.

Olin, in the opinion of most experts, did not show anything which would entitle him to be a champion. In both bouts, all the holds he used were body and head locks. Dr. Roller continually used a straight arm and by use of the other hand, the fingers of which were poked toward the eyes of the Finn, managed to stay for nearly an hour.

Olin's Strength Breaks Holds.

Roller, however, was no match for the strength of Olin, who broke several dangerous holds and handled his opponent as a cat would a mouse. Olin is strong and powerful, but he must learn more about catch-as-catch-can to be a championship contender.

In the semi-windup Charley Cutler won from Mort Henderson of Altoona, Pa., by the straight fall route, the first in 24:25 with a jackknife scissors and the second in 5:15 with a reverse body lock.

Mike Yokel Flops Willoughby.

In the opening bout Mike Yokel of Salt Lake City won the decision over Walter Willoughby of Mellen, Wis., the first fall in 27:46 with a head lock and the second in 35:00 on the referee's decision. Emil Thiry was referee and Martin Delaney timekeepr.

CUBS BOMBARD VERNON TIGERS IN 19 TO 4 ROUT

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

Pasadena, Cal., March 12.—[Special.]—Fred Mitchell and his Cubs have captured the baseball championship of southern California with no one offering to dispute the title. They wound up their training in these parts today by kicking the life out of George Stovall's Vernon outfit. The score was 19 to 4, and nearly every fellow on the Chicago team knocked the ball out of the park a couple of times. Twenty base hits were made. No wonder the native sons here are predicting a pennant for the Cubs.

For the final game Big Jim Vaughn and Al Demaree did the flinging and both appeared almost ready for the opening of the big show. Vaughn cut loose with more speed than at any previous time this year and once in a while put some twist on the ball just to see if the old curve was still there.

Cubs Look Like Sluggers.

With this decisive victory the Cubs left here feeling quite frisky. They have played ten games against the Pacific Coast leaguers—four against Vernon and six against Los Angeles. They won nine of the ten games.

Immediately after the game all the uniforms, street clothes, and evening clothes were packed, and at 7:30 in the evening the Cub party hit the trail northward to see if it is possible to continue the merry pace against the San Francisco and Oakland clubs.

Vernon Club Gets Conifrey.

It was supposed that one or two ball players would be left here to join Frank Chance's team, but Manager Mitchell thinks too well of all the youngsters present, so decided to look at them for another week or ten days before doing any weeding out.

Barney Conifrey, the semi-pro. third baseman from the Bronx, was left with the Vernon Tigers at the finish of the game. Score:

Stinson Gets High Pin Average.

Stinson of the Town and Country club gave the fans of the Monroe Junior league a touch of high life when he toppled the pins for a 223 flat average for the best mark of the night among the stay-at-homes of the local league bowlers. He had counts of 232, 197, and 240, and his team won the odd game from the Hogans.

WOODS and WATERS

by LARRY ST. JOHN.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT.

ELBERT HUBBARD was right, son, when he said, "An optimist is a person who does not care a dam rap what happens—just so it doesn't happen to him." This is shown in the workings of the so-called "buck law" in Wisconsin.

Before this law boobs armed with rifles would blaze away at anything they saw move. If it happened to be a deer, well and good; if it were a hunter: "too bad; accidents will happen, you know." There was no penalty for mistaking a man for a deer.

* *

This buck law prohibits the hunting of does (doughs, not dus), the rule with both the sanely careful and the money cautious being: "If you don't see His horns, She ain't got any." As a result optimistic hunters have not been so blame optimistic in Wisconsin. Shooting a man may be nothing, but shooting a doe means a fine of $25.

If you think we are too hard on the alleged human race look at these figures on Wisconsin hunting accidents, reprinted from Field and Stream:

	Killed.	Injured.
1911	24	31
1912	12	14
1913	21	25
1915	0	0

The fact that no one was mistaken for a deer during 1915, the first year of the buck law, leads one to believe that with a considerable number of people spilling blood is of small consequence, providing, of course, it is the other fellow's blood, but $25 is $25.

* *

Optimists are a bad lot any place, but when you let them loose in the woods with a rifle, GOOD-NIGHT! Breaking up contact mines in the North sea with a pick ax is safety first compared with deer hunting in Wisconsin without a buck law.

There is some talk of repealing this law in Wisconsin, but we are informed that the organized sportsmen of that state are fighting the repeal and that it will probably be defeated. We hope so.

NOTES FOR GOLFERS

Jim Simpson has gone to French Lick Springs for two weeks' play.

John Gatherum, who has been with several Chicago clubs, will succeed Jim Foulis at the Windsor Golf club.

Arthur Clarkson is supervising the construction of a new course at Shelbyville, Ind.

It is rumored that Bob McDonald, the big Scotchman formerly with the Buffalo Country club, will be the new professional at the Chicago Golf club, succeeding David Foulis.

Harry Collis, Flossmoor professional, has returned from Chandler, Ariz., and will start work on the improvements at Flossmoor as soon as the weather will permit.

Edward C. Welsh, formerly at Exmoor and Midlothian, and recently in charge of the Casino at Ravinia park, has been appointed manager of the Country club at Indianapolis. He left yesterday to assume his new duties.

WEST TRIUMPHS IN NET TOURNEY

Los Angeles, Cal., March 12.—Western players took all matches in the closing play of the east vs. west tennis tournament and finished the four days' playing with victories in two of the three doubles and all four singles matches.

The one tournament match today was Maurice E. McLoughlin's defeat of Harold A. Throckmorton, 6—4, 6—4, 4—6, 6—3.

Miss Mary K. Browne and McLoughlin, west, won in an exhibition mixed doubles against Miss Molla Bjurstedt and Throckmorton, 6—2, 6—2.

Miss Bjurstedt also suffered defeat from Miss Mary K. Browne, 7—5, 6—0.

Chicagoans Fail to Make First Flight in Tourney

Belleair Heights, Fla., March 12.—[Special.]—Ira Holden, Ohio state champion, led a field of 104 golfers in the annual west coast amateur golf championship qualification round today. He was closely followed by H. J. Kerr and S. J. Graham, Greenwich, who tallied 76 and 78 respectively. Only these three were under 80. J. C. Murray, Skokie, and J. H. Barnard, Chicago, landed in the second division with totals of 93. C. K. Kilbourne, Chicago Golf club, landed in the fourth flight.

Soccer Cup Match Sunday.

The McDuffs and Joliet teams will play their national soccer cup match at McDuffs field next Sunday. This makes several changes in the Peel cup schedule, leaving only the following matches: Pullman Professionals and Rangers at Fifty-second street and Cottage Grove avenue; Swedish-Americans at Bricklayers; Harvey at Pullman.

ROOKIES' RALLY BEATS SOX VETS BY 2 TO 1 COUNT

BY I. E. SANBORN.

Mineral Wells, Tex., March 12.—[Special.]—Resuming routine practice, the White Sox put in another solid spasm of work today, winding up with a seven inning scrap in which the Blues were victorious by a score of 2 to 1. Up to the last half round the Whites led, 1 to 0, but a rally off Lyons reversed the picture.

A pair of players, both regulars, pulled up lame before the quitting whistle blew. They were Gandil and Felsch, but their complaint was nothing more serious than sore feet on account of the hardness of the field. Eddie Murphy was absent from the day's work nursing a mild attack of tonsilitis, which is not severe enough to confine him to bed.

Cubs Want Swede Risberg.

A call for help came from the Cub camp today in the shape of a telegram from President Weeghman asking if there was any chance to get Risberg.

President Comiskey wired back: "Not yet."

At the rate Risberg is going now the Cubs won't have a chance to take him off Comiskey's hands for several years. Risberg comes from the Vernon team, so Weeghman has heard all about him out there, where they think he is the greatest infielder the coast ever produced.

Hep! Hep! to Ball Park.

Today's work began at the hotel, where the players formed into squads and marched under orders from their respective corporals to the ball park more than a mile away.

Some changes in the noncommissioned staff were made by the commander. Corporal Rowland was advanced to the rank of first sergeant and Private Weaver was made corporal in his place. Corporal Russell resigned and Private Lynn was promoted to the vacant corporalship.

BASEBALL NOTES.

The Normal baseball team, champions of the City league, at a special meeting of the directors last night voted to remain in the City league the coming season. Director Mike Stapleton, who was responsible for the Normals being mentioned as part of the new Chicago league circuit, resigned from office.

The Bankers' Baseball league held a special meeting last night and reëlected the following officers: President, C. Heilman, Continental and Commercial; vice president, M. Hogan, First National; secretary and treasurer, R. H. Brunkhorst, Harris Trust.

HOW GOOD THAT MUSTEROLE FEELS!
It Gets to That Sore Spot Like Magic
A-a-h! That's a delicious relief for those sore muscles, those stiff joints, that lame back.
Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard and other home simples.
It does the work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster, minus the plaster and minus the blister!
You simply rub Musterole on the spot where the pain is—rub it on briskly—and usually the pain is gone.
No muss, no bother. Just comforting soothing relief—first a gentle glow, then a delightful sense of coolness. And best of all, no blisters like the old-fashioned mustard plaster used to make.
Use Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsilitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).
MUSTEROLE
WILL NOT BLISTER

HIGH HEELS PUT CORNS ON TOES
Tells women how to dry up a corn so it lifts out without pain.
Modern high-heeled footwear buckles the toes and produces corns, and many of the thousands of hospital cases of infection and lockjaw are the result of woman's suicidal habit of trying to cut away these painful pests.
For little cost there can be obtained at any pharmacy a tiny bottle of freezone, which is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus without the slightest danger of inconvenience.
A few drops applied directly upon the tender, aching corn stops the soreness and shortly the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out. It dries the moment it is applied, and thousands of men and women use it because the corn shrivels up and comes out without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Cut this out and try it if your corns bother you.
Genuine freezone bears the name, Edward Wesley Co., Cincinnati, O.—Adv.

RULE TO DEMAND FIGURES ON ALL SCHOOL RAISES

Mrs. Vosbrink's Move for Lunchroom Aids Is Defeated.

As a result of an effort by Mrs. Florence Vosbrink to get the salaries of lunchroom attendants raised in the finance committee of the school board yesterday, a rule was adopted requiring all future recommendations for raises to be accompanied by a detailed statement as to the cost and number affected.

Mrs. Vosbrink asked that the salaries be placed at $35 a month for chief attendants, $25 for first assistants, and $15 for second helpers. The salaries at present are $30, $20, and $12, respectively.

Raise Once Recommended.

Mrs. Vosbrink said that the adjustment committee had passed the salary recommendation last November, but by some mistake, when the matter reached the board, the lower schedule went through unnoticed.

The finance committee refused to act.

"We don't know, when a recommendation comes to this committee," said John W. Eckhart, "whether it affects a few or whether there are so many that it is going to send the board into debt."

High School Salaries.

"The proposed salary schedule for high school teachers looks as if it would cost the board less than the present ones," said Dr. Peter C. Clemensen. "It's less for the first year, but in five years the increase would be $1,118,000 over the present schedule. We ought to have more information when we act on these matters."

The schedule was submitted by a committee of high school teachers and is pending before the adjustment committee. The increase after five years, according to Dr. Clemensen, would amount to 40 per cent.

Chief Dillon of U. S. Radio Promoted to Captaincy

John R. Dillon, chief of the radio division of Chicago, which is under the department of commerce, was notified yesterday that he had been appointed a captain in the United States army signal corps. He was ordered to be ready for service on immediate call. He was chief of the radio division for sixteen states and is a veteran of the Spanish-American war.

New Low Bust Corsets for Every Type of Figure

Short, Tall, Slender and Stout

$1.00 to $25.00

In a profusion of models that cannot be approached by any other Corset Shop.

Nothing worth while has been omitted.

Certainly in no other article of woman's apparel is greater stress laid upon individual service than in corsets. In this we excel.

The service given in our Corset Shop has been built upon years of training and experience.

If the figure is bulky or stout, these new low bust corsets will drop the flesh of the bust and shoulders comfortably, lengthening the figure lines and creating a much more slender appearance.

Slender figures will find more freedom and grace in low bust models and the long, youthful lines of fashion's demands.

With these new low bust corsets it is almost necessary to be fitted with a bandeau or brassiere, the brassiere doing the same work for the bust and shoulder, that the corset does for the lower figure.

We present a wide assortment of Brassieres and Bandeaux from 50c to $25.

COAL KINGS LEVY A $250,000 TAX ON CITY FOR 1917

About $1 Added to Each Ton of Fuel for Use of Public.

This is the fifth of a new series of articles by Mr. Hyde.

BY HENRY M. HYDE.

The coal bill of the city of Chicago will be at least $250,000 more this year than it was in 1916, or about $930,000. That is one result of the big boost in prices demanded by coal mine owners.

Just to pump the water used by the citizens of Chicago will cost $190,000 more in 1917 than it did last year.

Bids for the coal supply for the current year were opened yesterday. The prices averaged $3.72 a ton, delivered. Last year it was at least $1 a ton less.

When bids were asked in January the prices quoted were 75 cents a ton less than those submitted yesterday. At that time the price was considered too high, and the city decided to exercise its option to demand coal until March 1 at last year's rate. By March 1 it was thought the price would drop. Instead of that it has risen, and the advance is four times what it was in January.

Lets Big Power Waste.

Meanwhile more than enough power to supply all the pumping stations in Chicago is running to waste down the drainage channel and the Des Plaines river at Joliet. For seventeen years—ever since the sanitary channel was opened—water which would develop at least [illegible] horse power has been discharged into the Des Plaines river and has run on down into the Illinois without doing any useful work.

Repeated efforts have been made by the sanitary district to develop this water power. They have always been blocked either by local opposition at Joliet or by the exertions of corporations which look upon the public development of water power as interfering with their vested rights.

The present movement on the part of the sanitary district trustees to build a new water power plant at Brandon road on the Des Plaines river, near the south end of Joliet, promises at last to be successful.

Park for Joliet.

The district has completed arrangements with the city officials of Joliet under which that city will get a lot of land for park purposes and a mile of dock frontage with a depth of twenty feet of water in front of it, connecting with the Chicago river and also by the big channel, with all the great industries along the southern end of Lake Michigan. In the construction of the new waterway leading to the proposed Brandon road dam, Joliet will also be provided with complete protection against any future floods and freshets.

There remains to insure the building of the new water power plant only an empowering act from the state legislature, now in session at Springfield. A bill granting the district the right to build the dam and power plant has been drawn and will be taken to the state capital this week.

Will Cost $6,600,000.

Estimates show that the total cost of building the new waterway from the present end of the channel north of Joliet to Brandon road and of constructing the dam and power plant at that point will be $6,600,000. It will take three years to complete and will produce at least 24,000 horsepower. Losses in transmitting the power to Chicago over high voltage lines are estimated at about 3,000 horsepower, which will leave 21,000 available for the use of the city pumping stations. At the very low rate of $40 a horsepower year the annual value of the power produced will be $840,000.

Incidentally the proposed plan will extend the drainage channel with its twenty feet of water from its present terminus to Brandon road and will save the cost of enlarging and improving the Illinois and Michigan canal for that distance.

New Canal Helped.

It will then be necessary to use the I. and M. canal only from Brandon road to Dresden Heights, where the Des Plaines and Kankakee rivers unite to form the Illinois. This will be a considerable step towards the completion of the new barge canal connecting Lake Michigan with the Gulf of Mexico.

Already part of the water at the Twenty-second street station is pumped with electric power from the present plant of the sanitary district at Lockport. The city now has under way plans for using electricity entirely at this station.

That the high price of coal and the difficulty of getting it is a strong argument in favor of substituting water power is shown by the fact that the city of Evanston—where the water station is now equipped with a steam plant—is negotiating with the sanitary district for the purchase of power sufficient to do all its work.

Mrs. Eloise Smith Wilson, Divorcee, to Wed Again

Mrs. Eloise Babcock Smith Wilson of [illegible] avenue, divorced wife of John F. Wilson Jr., will wed A. Wilder [illegible], son of Mrs. M. F. Brown of New York City within the fortnight, according to an announcement made by her [illegible], James A. Ostrom of 5039 Blackstone avenue.

John P. Wilson Jr. and Mrs. Wilson were divorced in 1914 after a long court fight lasting over two years. Mr. Wilson was given the children, John P. Wilson III. and Cynthia C. Wilson. He remarried in 1916, his second wife being the widow of Albert Keep II.

MRS. FISKE IN "ERSTWHILE SUSAN"

BY PERCY HAMMOND.

An acquaintance who is versed in diseases of the mind tells me that lady lunatics, when they begin to show signs of comedy, are ripe fruit for what is known in psychopathic circles as the booby hatch.

Such, however, was not the destination of the delectable Erstwhile Susan as impersonated last evening by Mrs. Fiske at the Blackstone theater. Erstwhile Susan, though balmy in the upper regions and with a sense of humor, too, ended as the inferential bride-to-be of the governor of Pennsylvania with a dower right in a million dollars and with a sunny record of good deeds courageously performed.

The proceedings which led to this propitious terminal were the preposterous ones of extravaganza, but, thanks to Mrs. Fiske, they amused; and it is expert theatergoing not to quarrel with what amuses you. Nevertheless Mr. Fiske, the director, should have employed Mr. Ned Wayburn or Mr. Leon Errol as his producer if he desired musical comedy effects. Either of them is better at that sort of thing than he is.

The theme of "Erstwhile Susan" is perhaps that ancient theory of the Stagyrite that no excellent soul is exempt from a mixture of madness. Susan begins as a mildly unbalanced lady from Cedar Point, Iowa, at large upon the lecture platform. She suggests in her deportment the pre-Chautauquan instigator of the Little theater movement, all heaving with esthetic uplift; and among her other eccentricities she is addicted to elocution. In the words of a neighbor in the Pennsylvania Dutch village wherein the action occurs, she ain't very handsome but she's awful genteel.

Aspiring to deeds of kindness, Susan becomes the Sears-Roebuck bride of a revolting Pennsylvania Dutchman, a thrifty tinsmith who is a combination of Joe Weber and Simon Legree. He ordered her from a catalogue. All in baby blue she enters the play, scattering quotations like Senator Lewis at an Elks Lodge of Sorrow. She has seen the Mennonite's crushed daughter (a beautiful bit of acting by Miss Madeline Delmar) selling tinware in Reading, and she longs to improve the little drudge's lot.

It is to be said for Miss Helen Martin and Miss Marian De Forest, the authors, that they conserve illusion by causing the groom to go into the woodshed and wash all over before he presents himself for inspection. That detail seems to be the one morsel of reality in the drama. And so she starts her struggle to make the household a rendezvous for culture, where she may illumine the lives of those about her with her gifts of declamation.

Mrs. Fiske's not easy task is to blend the fantastic attributes of Erstwhile Susan with noble generosities and with the saving sense. She covers her hifalutin' discourse with a smile that is never uncanny. She is mistress of her singularities, making them pleasantly whimsical. Just when you think that the asylum officials are about to rush in and seize her she saves herself by her irresistible comedy. Only once is the job too much for her. In the absurd scene at the supper table where the other actors do almost everything but stand on their heads, she falters. Francis Wilson, in his wildest comic opera feats of deglutition, never maltreated food as Mrs. Fiske's actors do in this repast. But she pulls things together again when, at the end of the act, she rescues her foster daughter from a beating by taking the club from the old fellow and throwing it through the window.

This old brute is so mean a devil that you are glad that between the second and third acts he falls off a tin roof and is interred before the exhibition begins again. He leaves an evil son behind him, however, who is thwarted in the final moments when he tries to prove to the assembled chorus of burlesque Mennonites that Erstwhile Susan's past was not without its purple patches.

Most of us applauded last evening when Miss Delmar, the erstwhile slavey, came into the final scenes all refined and educated. She is, indeed, an intensely appealing player, employing a winning little inflection at the end of her speeches as her only affectation. She gets married to the handsome actor, Judge Jordan of Reading. And the play ends happily when Mrs. Fiske appears, admired by the governor, clothed in her right mind and in the dress of sanity.

North Shore Billboards Ripped Down by City

Obnoxious billboards near the Edgewater Beach hotel, which are declared illegal under a decision of the United States Supreme court, were torn down yesterday and the work is to be continued until all billboards in prohibited districts are removed. The work was done under direction of Building Commissioner Bostrom, who ordered the posting companies to remove their boards in five days or the work would be done by the city.

2 Wings County Hospital Open as Patients Crowd

Two wings of the county hospital recently completed were opened yesterday when Clayton F. Smith, the warden, ordered a number of beds to be set up to care for the increasing number of patients. The hospital is caring for 2,600 patients. More scarlet fever cases than usual are being cared for in the contagious disease ward.

TWO ORDINANCES PASSED TO SPEED TRAFFIC IN LOOP

Council Bars Auto Parking in Rush Hours—Fixes "Loading Zones."

Special bulletin for straphangers: Seven weeks from today you may expect to save several minutes every day getting into the loop and going home again.

Two important ordinances to relieve congestion and facilitate street car transportation in the downtown district were passed yesterday by the city council.

One prohibits the parking of vehicles in the loop district between 7 and 10 o'clock in the morning and between 4 and 7 in the evening. At the present time vehicles may stand for thirty minutes anywhere in the loop from 6 a. m. to 7 p. m. Advocates of the change say it will tend to clear the street car tracks of traffic by enabling vehicles to travel beside the tracks.

The second measure adopted by the council establishes "loading zones" at the principal street intersections to enable passengers to get on and off street cars without interference. Within these zones, which extend 100 feet from the corner lot line, the parking of vehicles is prohibited.

The "Loading Zones."

Following are the "loading zones" designated in the ordinance:

State street: West side, north of Randolph street; also west side, north of Washington.

Dearborn street: East side, south of Washington street; east side, south of Randolph.

La Salle street: East side, south of Madison street; east side, south of Washington street.

Randolph street: North Side, east of Dearborn.

Washington street: North side, east of La Salle street; north side, east of Clark street, and the same side, east of Dearborn street.

Madison street: North side, east of Dearborn street; same side east of Clark, and the same side east of La Salle.

Monroe street: South side, west of Clark street; south side, west of Dearborn street.

For $2,200,000 Bond Issue.

Both the anti-parking ordinance and the "loading zone" ordinance become effective May 1. Opposition developed to the proposed ordinance changing cab stands, and action was deferred one week.

By a unanimous vote the council passed the proposed bond issues for $2,200,000 and they will be submitted to the voters at the April 3 election.

The items include $750,000 for adding two wings to the new contagious disease hospital; $250,000 for enlarging the school for boys at Gage farm; $200,000 for improving the Fifty-first and Seventy-ninth street beaches, and $1,000,000 for incinerators and waste disposal equipment. At the beginning of the discussion, Ald. M. A. Michaelson objected to the hospital bond issue.

COUNCIL REPORT CLEARS KENNEDY AND RODRIGUEZ

The judiciary committee of the city council returned its report to the council in session yesterday absolving Ald. Kennedy and Ald. Rodriguez of charges brought by Kathryn Rutherford and women associated with her to the effect that the aldermen had been guilty of treasonable utterances.

The report, after outlining the charges, adds:

"The committee held a public hearing Wednesday, March 7, 1917, at which no witnesses appeared who had heard Ald. Kenedy or Ald. Rodriguez make any treasonable speech or say words as the Rutherford letter purported to quote."

The report then goes on to state that after both aldermen had denied making the statements attributed to them witnesses were called who substantiated them, one of them testifying that Ald. Kennedy's language was as follows:

"If it is justifiable to go to war for the benefit of the steel trust and the food speculators, it would be much more justifiable to start a revolution at home.'"

"It is obvious," the report closes, "that this did not constitute either treason or incitement to revolution."

COUNCIL ORDERS BABY FARMS TO REFORM OR CLOSE

Crowded, insanitary baby farms, of which there are said to be nearly 100 in Chicago, where little children are hovering between life and death, yesterday were legislated out of existence by the city council.

A comprehensive ordinance, imposing strict regulations on the operation of homes for children, was unanimously adopted at the instance of Chairman Willis O. Nance of the health committee. The measure was advocated by the Juvenile Protective association, whose investigations of present conditions in the baby farms have shocked civic workers.

MOTHER-IN-LAW SHATTERER OF JAP FAMILIES

Tokio Police Chief Is Here—Says Divorces Beat U. S. Record.

Japanese authorities stopping in Chicago last night discussed the social conditions in America. During the day they had visited different departments of the Salvation army. They were T. Maruyama, director of public safety, Tokio metropolitan police bureau, and Mitsugi Hotta, special commissioner of the home department of the imperial Japanese government.

In a characteristic sly Japanese fashion they agreed with every condition in this country, qualified by the adjectives "the great American." But the divorce—it is the "great Japanese," they said.

Japan Divorces Lead.

"The divorce evil is far more prevalent in Japan than in America," said Mr. Maruyama. "A divorce terminates on the average of one in four marriages. And over 90 per cent of the divorce action is brought by men.

"The great cause of divorce is too-much-mother-in-law. The married couple will usually go to the home of the girl's parents to live. Soon the man starts scrapping with his wife's mother, and a permanent break is made."

"I Am Fighting Vice."

Mr. Maruyama was astounded to read headlines in papers in Chicago and Seattle announcing arrests of chiefs of police.

"I am fighting vice conditions in Japan," he said. "Americans know more about the prevalence of vice in Japan than the native Japanese."

The Zimmermann letter was dismissed with a laconic reply.

"Japan wants peace with America," he said. "But Germany plays tricks."

Today Mr. Maruyama and Mr. Hotta will visit the stockyards and discuss censorship with Maj. Funkhouser. Tomorrow they will leave for New York, and sail for Europe. They expect to spend a year in the war country.

1,200 AUTO MEN NEAR RIOT; START CABARET STRIKE

A hurry call for the police was sent from the Bismarck garden last night after a riotous outburst of high spirits on the part of 1,200 banqueting automobile dealers had precipitated a threatened strike of the cabaret performers and nearly put an abrupt end to the annual festivities of the Chicago Automobile Trade association.

When Sergt. John Benson of the Town Hall station arrived with his detail he found one member of the entertainment committee industriously pummeling an obstreperous merrymaker in an effort to suppress his zeal.

The trouble began when the diners conceived the notion of pelting chorus girls with bread as they advanced on to the banquet floor. One of the former was knocked down and badly beaten when he threw a French roll with particularly good aim at a young woman poised on top of a ladder in a balancing act.

This brought an announcement from the garden management that the performers had refused to go on with the show unless they were given some guarantee of safety. The two toastmasters, Harry Newman and Ed Westlake, agreed that they would dismiss the banqueters unless they calmed down. Then the police came, three guests were ejected, and after a time quiet was restored.

REGISTRATION

Police and Election Board Prepare to Defeat Poll Book Frauds Today.

Both the police and officials of the election board prepared last night to throw a large number of police and plain clothes men into the Eighteenth and Twenty-first wards today, the last day of registration before the spring election, April 3.

Only those who have moved or come of age since the general registration in the fall need register.

Not to exceed 25,000 names, it is estimated at the election board, will be written on the books, but the cost will be $170,000.

The election board has arranged to have a large number of men in the Eighteenth ward, where the Grogan and Tuohy forces are engaging in sizzling recriminations and where wholesale frauds are charged by both sides. The Sixth precinct particularly will be well watched today. It is in this precinct that Assistant State's Attorney Michael Sullivan, who is backing Tuohy, charges wholesale ballot box stuffing took place at the primaries.

The polls open this morning at 6 o'clock and close at 5 p. m.

PALE PINK FOR DARK HEATHEN, AD MEN ADVISE

A committee of ministers listened last night with rapt attention to what a little splash of paint can do for the heathen Swazi in darkest Congo.

"Get out plenty of advertising matter," urged Arthur H. Rice, who addressed the meeting. "Use pale, refined tints—grays and browns. Your collections for the missionaries in Africa will jump 20 per cent as a result."

"Can we advertise Billy Sunday in pale pinks and blues?" asked a minister.

"You can't," answered John H. Clayton, another advertising man. "Billy Sunday must be advertised in bright red and yellow, with a burning brimstone border. A couple of pink tailed devils with pitchforks would be appropriate."

The meeting was held at the Chicago Advertising association for the purpose of instituting an advertising campaign for Chicago churches.

Healey Trial Monday if Health Permits

Charles C. Healey, former chief of police, will be arraigned before the trial board next Monday afternoon if his health permits.

The charge in this instance is that he demanded $300 as the price of promoting twelve sergeants to lieutenancies last July, and that he received $3,200 in this way from the hands of Michael W. Delaney, one of those promoted, who acted as collector. The formal charges against him were filed by Chief Schuettler yesterday, after his receipt of a letter from Mayor Thompson insisting upon that procedure.

Squeeze Hands; That's All; No Kissing in Aurora

They've quit kissing in Aurora. That is, the disposition is to quit, at least until a present epidemic of sneezing and septic sore throat has passed. Dr. George Schwachtgen, health commissioner, has issued a bulletin showing 3,000 cases of the contagion now in Aurora. Inasmuch as kissing is most apt to send the germs on their way to a new victim, the doctor has told the citizens of Aurora to at least be cautious.

GIRL STRIKERS 'RAID' DISTRICT IN AUTOS; 98 HELD

Ruse of Workers to Evade Injunction Thwarted.

Cheering, singing, and waving placards on which were inscribed such sentiments as "Can a girl live on $8 a week? That's why we're striking." "We want arbitration," and "Aren't we entitled to a living wage?" more than 100 girl strikers went on a motor omnibus expedition into the heart of the city's garment manufacturing district yesterday afternoon.

Having been restrained from picketing, the girls hit upon the automobile invasion as a substitute. The sally was short lived, however, as policemen boarded the busses at Jackson boulevard and Market street and ordered the chauffeurs to drive to the South Clark street station. Ninety-eight girls were booked on charges of disorderly conduct.

Though the girls made plenty of noise, they attempted no violence.

Prior to the expedition, Benjamin Schlessinger, president of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' union, sent a letter to the manufacturers inviting them to hold a conference for adjustment of the controversy.

EVANSTON LACKS WOMAN GAME TO RUN FOR COUNCIL

Evanston will have no woman candidate for alderman in the present campaign. The reason is that women refuse to run. This in spite of the fact that Mrs. Alfred H. Gross said that the men officials of the town should be replaced by women.

A massmeeting under the auspices of the North Evanston Mothers' club was held at Crandon school, Central street and Stewart avenue, last night, to select a woman candidate for alderman of the Sixth ward. Mrs. C. M. Moore of 1225 Lake avenue reported that the committee of five women had asked ten prominent Evanston women to stand, but all had refused.

"They gave as their reason for refusing," said Mrs. Moore, "that they were afraid of criticism because they had been selected by a committee of women and they did not believe they had a ghost of a chance to win anyway."

The meeting passed a resolution that it was not opposed to a woman candidate and would support one if she announced herself, but meanwhile the only candidate nowin the field, Hiram McCulough, was approved.

LATEST STYLES SEEN AT BALL OF FASHION LEAGUE

Dressed in what the ladies pronounced "ravishing creations," members of the Fashion Art league assembled in the ballroom of the Auditorium hotel at the opening reception of a four day convention last night.

On one point all the dressmakers agreed. That was the continued popularity of Georgette crêpe. Sport clothes, it was said, would be the most popular feminine wearing apparel for spring and summer. The modistes promised some startling models in this style at their fashion show today in the gold room of the Congress hotel.

Railroads Must Improve Roundhouse Conditions or Be Prosecuted by City.

Railroads owning thirty-eight roundhouses which have been blackening the atmosphere with dense coal smoke will be served with notice by the Chicago smoke department today that they will be prosecuted if the nuisance is not abated. The engine house of the Illinois Central at the foot of Twenty-sixth street, standing near the Hahnemann, Michael Reese, and Mercy hospitals, is considered a notable offender.

Only one roundhouse—that of the New York Central at Sixty-third and South State streets, which employs a smoke washing apparatus—has been found satisfactory by the city inspectors.

Other railroads, asked to put in similar washers, say the cost is prohibitive.

A shadow crossed the sunlit table of F. A. Chambers of the smoke bureau as he was being interviewed. Turning to the window, he saw the smokestack of the Bismarck hotel emitting volumes of inky smoke that would have been creditable to a steamer fleeing from a submarine.

"Your chimney is smoking," he said, calling the hotel on the telephone.

He told of complaints received during the day regarding the North Shore hotel, the Saratoga hotel, against which seven violation suits are pending now; Henrici's restaurant, a portable engine of W. J. Newman, and the Juvenile Detention home.

Another shadow crossed his table. He saw more black clouds rising from the Bismarck.

"Your chimney is still smoking," repeated Mr. Chambers over the phone.

"We're trying to stop it," he was told.

"Open the furnace door an inch or two," he instructed. The smoking soon stopped.

WORK RESUMED ON UNION DEPOT AFTER 9 MONTHS

Work on the new Union depot, the biggest construction project now under way in Chicago, was resumed yesterday morning after a strike of nine months.

"The structural iron workers and members of several other trades started work, and the other trades will follow as soon as they are needed, probably within a few days," said Secretary Conroy of the Building Trades council.

The terminal project is an important phase of the general Chicago plan. It is estimated that its cost at completion will have been $60,000,000. Of this amount, it is stated, $11,000,000 will be spent in wages alone.

THREE ARRESTS IN HIGGINS CASE; SOLUTION NEAR

Barber Admits Hiding the "Murder Car"; 3 More to Be Nabbed Today.

Three persons were taken into custody yesterday by Detective Sergts. Duffy and McCarthy of First Deputy Westbrook's office, and three others will be arrested today as the result of disclosures in the automobile murder mystery of Feb. 20, in which Fred L. Higgins lost his life.

Those taken by the police yesterday were:

"M. Tenny," known to be an alias, the man who was with Higgins when he stole the Paige "murder car" in Milwaukee and drove it to Indianapolis. Tenny was freed after confession of the theft.

Percival Lasinski, 18 years old, a barber of 5533 South Winchester avenue, who last night admitted he hid the Higgins car in the Twin Garage, 5611 South Halsted street, within a few hours after Ray Del Guerra had been arrested.

Dan Doesrub, 21 years old, a barber, roommate of Percival Lasinski, who in hours of interrogation last night held to the Lasinski story of the manner in which the son came into possession of the murder car, but finally contradicted Lasinski, and is held as a witness.

Get Quick Confession.

The first surprise of yesterday's painstaking investigation of Sergts. Duffy and McCarthy came when the man known as "Tenny" was apprehended. Without argument he admitted his knowledge of the theft by Higgins of the Paige car, and made the following statement:

"Higgins came to me one day and asked me to go to Milwaukee with him, stating that he had to drive a car to Indianapolis, and he'd show me some of the fine points of driving. This was in October.

"When he arrived in Milwaukee he told me to wait, and soon drove up in the Paige car. We drove to Chicago and thence to Indianapolis, where he told me to register under an assumed name. This I did, realizing that I was in for trouble, and the best thing I could do was to keep my mouth shut.

Story Is Corroborated.

"Higgins then advertised the car for sale, but failed, and in November brought it back to Chicago. While in Indianapolis he cut the makers' number from the radiator, hammered the serial number of the engine, and 'worked over' the body number."

The man was then taken to the White garage on South Wabash avenue, where the changes as noted by "Tenny" were found.

For the first time provided with definite proof that the car was that driven by Higgins, the police at once turned to an investigation of Percy Lasinski's possession of it.

The search brought them to Dan Doesrub, Percival Lasinski's roommate, who was taken into custody and removed to the stockyards police station. Doesrub told a story corroborating that told by Mrs. Lasinski and her son in many details, but repetitions caused him to change important features.

Woman's Story Disproven.

Finally he admitted that his first ride in the car was subsequent to the date of the murder and that if the car was in the possession of the Lasinskis before that time he had not been advised of it. Mrs. Lasinski has asserted heretofore, and has produced an alleged bill of sale in proof, that she bought the car from a mysterious J. P. Walden on Feb. 2, before the murder.

Percival Lasinski was then taken into custody and declared the car was purchased Feb. 3.

Admits He Is a Liar.

Sergt. Duffy, after bringing evidence contradicting practically all of Lasinski's statements concerning the car, said:

"What have you to say now, Percy?"

"They're making me out a liar, I'm afraid," the boy gulped.

Following the close of the investigation for the night, Sergt. Duffy, in charge of the case, said:

"Our theory is that the car was stolen from Higgins. Through these people we will show how it came into the possession of Percy Lasinski, and when we get that information we will go straight to the murderer. I decline to state whether actual confessions have been made today, but I expect we will arrest at least three other people before tomorrow night. The case is clearing up and there is no reason to believe the murderer can escape."

Oak Park Auto Thieves Get Time to Tell Truth

Edward Healy, son of Capt. Stephen K. Healy, and Harold Knutsen and Thomas Quinn, his two chums, arrested on a charge of automobile stealing, were given thirty days to tell the truth about the matter and to make good the damage by Judge V. P. Arnold of the Juvenile court yesterday.

The hearing of the cases against the four other boys with whom they were arrested in Oak Park two weeks ago will be held before the justice of peace in Oak Park on March 16.

"Humpty Dumpty" to Be Buried at Rosehill

"Humpty Dumpty," king of pantomime clowns in civil war times, has returned to Chicago. His body arrived yesterday from Kingston, N. Y., where he died March 10 as the result of a fall near his last home—the poorhouse.

John Barstow, Tony Denier's partner for nearly fifty years, has arranged for a quiet funeral and an interment beside the clown's family at Rosehill.

FASHION'S BLUE BOOK

BY CORINNE LOWE.

NEW YORK.—[Special correspondence.]—By the time we get dressed this season we are all apt to feel as though somebody had picked us from the meadows or from grandma's old fashioned garden. Lingerie frocks of periwinkle blue, evening frocks of red or mustard colored taffeta, negligees derived from the national costumes of Hawaii, Turkey, and America—surely no other time ever gave us so much license to be reeling with color.

One of the new spring shades is Shadow Lawn, named out of compliment to the president's wife; and this costume from one of our great New York designers shows how a woman may go about looking like a bosky dell. The blouse is of georgette in the new color and it is combined with a skirt of Yo-San silk of green with black stripe. The collar is of dark green silk and the skirt has an aggressive panier effect. Observe, too, how the designer has given milady three different waist lines from which to choose—one to conciliate those old fashioned anatomy textbooks, another to obey the latest empire dictates, and still another as a kind of sentimental pressed in the poetry book souvenir of the moyenage.

WHEN I was in college I had a military coat, with gold trimming and brass buttons. My comrades dubbed me "The Soldier Girl." Then I began to promise the buttons, just as the real soldiers sometimes promise a button to their "best girl," for a hat pin. Those to whom I promised them scratched their initials on the backs of said buttons so I would not forget them.

I wore the coat at college two years, and then it was relegated to a trunk in the attic.

When I had been at home from college a year I was helping mother to sort over the trunks in the attic one day preparatory to the fall cleaning, when we came across the soldier coat. I fingered it lovingly, for I had had many good times in it, and on the back of one of the buttons were the initials of the man to whom I had given my heart.

I had not seen him for two years, as he had left college one year before I did, when his father lost all of his money and had gone home to bear his share of the burden.

I remembered sadly his farewell, and how we had promised to write often. Then followed endless weeks of unbelievable silence. I had never been quite able to understand why he had not kept his promise, as he had been so anxious for me to keep mine. Of course, I could not write if he did not, and so it had gone on.

Only that morning I had received the college paper with a little item telling of his success in a nearby city and giving his address. As I fingered the button an idea came to me. Why not do it up in a little box all by itself and send it to him? He had said when he put his initials on it, "Mine when the coat is worn out." If he still cared and there had been a mistake about the letters he might remember, if not—well, it was worth trying any way.

That afternoon, with fear and trembling, I posted the precious button. The message it carried to him was all I had hoped, for it brought him to me. He had written many letters, which for some reason had miscarried, and, not receiving any answer from me, had made up his mind I had thought better of my promise, and so each of us had been thinking the other unfaithful.

He still calls me his soldier girl, and we cherish the button as our talisman.

Kerosene for Ink Spots.

"I AM told that kerosene will remove ink spots. Is this true, and when should it be applied? Will it extract old ink stains? N. B. V."

It must be used before the article stained is washed. While the ink is fresh, pour kerosene upon it and rub in well. Then rinse in a fresh supply of kerosene and the ink should disappear. I have seen this done successfully.

"Frosting" Window Panes.

"Some time ago I read an article in your Corner giving instructions for frosting window panes. Could you send the instructions to me? Mrs. B. F."

If the Corner memory serves it faithfully, the frosting was produced by a shower of dry Rochelle salts, but by what process it was made to adhere to the glass we do not recall. Therefore your query is passed over—somewhat shamefacedly—to the constituency, some member of which may be relied upon to produce the coveted formula for the edification of Mrs. B. BY MAE TINEE.

WE will not insult you by going toominutely into details regarding the history of Mr. Arsene Lupin, for who has not at his finger tips information regarding the adventures of that gentlemanly thief who left his signature after robbery with apparently the same pride that an artist would affix his signature to a painting or I mine to these articles?

A connoisseur was Mr. Lupin, as well up in portraits as pearls. And there was nothing underhanded about him. When something came to his notice which he coveted he asked for it—wrote courteously and begged that the article in question be sent to a certain place at a certain time. Did the owner not comply with the request, Mr. Lupin's attitude became a well-if-you-won't-do-it-for-me-I-must-do-it-for-myself attitude. And he did it. But he did not descend and spirit away without the proper warning. Dear no! He was a stickler for all the little niceties of human intercourse.

"At such a time I shall be there," he would merrily write. And he always was there. Ah, a gentleman of infinite variety indeed!

In the picture, he impersonates the Duke of Charmerace—who is dead—gaining entry into some of our best houses and becoming affianced to a cold heiress who is jealous of her companion, Sonia—as well she might be, for the duke certainly betrays interest in this dark haired lady. The fact that she proves later to be a thief herself, shocks him, but he loves her still. It is to save her that he allows the great detective, Guerchard, to finally put handcuffs on him.

The detective, as played by Brinsley Shaw, was as conspicuously a sleuth as he was not a gentleman. Not once was he known to remove his hat in the house. Hatted and overcoated he gobbled clews. And right from the start he saw through the gold leaf on the Duke of Charmerace. If I mistake not, you will derive much joy from watching Mr. Shaw's performances.

Earle Williams, one of our pioneer heroes, keeps right up to date and is as likable as ever. While quite as good looking and well dressed as others we could mention, he neither poses, mouths, heaves, nor looks at the camera. For which he deserves thanks.

Of the women in the picture, Julia Swayne Gordon and Billie Billings are the best actresses. Ethel Gray Terry is a pretty girl and I imagine might be better in a different kind of rôle. However, she was far from bad.

The examining magistrate looks and acts much like Mr. Henry Hyde, so if you have been curious to see that gentleman in real life, now's your chance for an almost-look.

The picture catches and holds interest pretty well.

Don't Take Hot Baths if You Want to Be Fat

Tribune Cook Book

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

All recipes have been scientifically tested by Miss Eddington with current market materials and are indorsed by her.

Ten pounds of yellow turnips, 39 cents. Old potatoes, a little over 4 cents a pound at special sales; there are fifteen pounds in a peck.

A Miscellany.

HERE are some questions that have been urged upon my attention more than once lately: Why are carrots good for children and what is their food value? What vegetables would help with the growth and development of a child's teeth? What about the combination of rice and raisins where rice is served as a vegetable?

The number of food units in carrots after they are properly cooked is high for a vegetable, unless there is a mistake in Mr. Atwater's table. However, if they were cooked in water and that water was thrown away they might not average more than 200 per pound. If dry steamed and mashed they would yield about 1,700, before butter and seasonings were added. Steamed and mashed carrots are unbelievably different from carrots in a badly cooked boiled dinner. Such carrots give children much of what they need to keep their blood red, their appetite vigorous, their bowels well regulated, their glands doing their natural work. This latter matter is not much understood even by those who know most about it, but glandular troubles, have far reaching effects.

A child's general health has an enormous effect on tooth growth, and as all the vegetables help to keep the general health good, if they are rightly cooked, we might answer that all would help. Turnip top greens and turnip itself contain the specific element in largest quantity of any of the vegetables which it is commonly believed most necessary for sound teeth. When I was a child we scraped up a raw turnip and thought it as delicious as the best fruit. In Holland children get a raw carrot for luncheon.

Raisins are hardly suitable in rice when it is to be served as a vegetable.

Mrs. B. L. wants to know if it is harmful to let cooked or uncooked foods stand for several hours in aluminum or tinware. This question could be answered at length. Probably no harm is done by letting cooked foods which are not acid stand in aluminum for some hours. Starchy foods blacken the kettle. We know that it is best to pour any food out of a tin can the moment it is opened, except perhaps those in oil. The fastidious do not allow any food except milk or fat to stand in tin, but as to the actual harm done in a few hours it would be hard to speak authoritatively.

Concerning these four new novels many highly commendatory reviews have been published—each book in turn has been accorded a first place in its class. ℂ We confidently commend all four to readers and admirers of sound, entertaining fiction.

GREENMANTLE By John Buchan

The author of The Thirty-Nine Steps, and other thrilling romances, has quite outdone himself in this new novel of adventure, mystery and pursuit. W. Robertson Nicoll says of this book, "It is a triumph! A distinguished success! It must take its place as one of the most glorious yarns in the English language."
Second Large Printing. Net $1.35

MICHAEL By E. F. Benson

The author of Dodo has not written a more finished or satisfying novel than this. Michael is a character fresh and lovable. The Brooklyn Eagle says: "In Michael we have Benson at his best—and that is very good," and the New York Tribune: "This is far and away the best novel Benson has given us in many years."
Fourth Large Printing. Net $1.35

THE ADVENTURES of JIMMIE DALE

THE GRAY SEAL By Frank L. Packard

If you want a book that will drive away care and fatigue read this excellent story of the benevolent cracksman who, as the New York Evening Post says, "outdid in daring the adventures of Arsene Lupin, Raffles, or Sherlock Holmes—one is loth to leave the adventures of Jimmie until the very last." And the readers of five large editions are unanimous in declaring it to be fascinating and absorbingly interesting—you can scarcely ask more of a novel. Net $1.35

MENDEL By Gilbert Cannan

Not everyone will like this book—nor did everyone like Tono Bungay or The Old Wives' Tale or Jean Christophe, yet discriminating readers will discover, with the New York Times, that "A long step forward in fictional art has been taken by Gilbert Cannan in this new novel—eventful, dramatic—full of life, color, and movement." And again with the Chicago Evening Post that "Mendel is a fit successor to Three Sons and a Mother, and those two achievements should definitely place Mr. Cannan among the few authors of the present day whom one cannot afford to leave unread."
Second Large Printing Net $1.50

It will readily be discovered that all four books have not the same appeal—yet any one or all of them will completely compensate the buyer or the reader. At All Booksellers

The Successful Home Garden

BY J. F. H. HEIDE.

This department will appear daily and Sunday in "The Tribune." Inquiries from readers desiring through neighborhood and back yard gardens to decrease the cost of living should be addressed to The Garden Editor.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q.—My adjoining fifty foot vacant lot has the clay and gravel mixture, excavated from my brick building site, scattered over ten inches of black soil. I have turned down the clay and dug up the black loam, now grayish and seemingly poor. Would it pay or improve the soil to mix two or three loads of sand and some horse manure with it, or should I put in stable horse manure and sheep manure without sand? The soil has never been cultivated. Would air slaked lime benefit?

Ans.—The suggested sand and any stable manure (preferably decomposed) would undoubtedly improve the texture of the soil, if plowed or spaded under roughly, leaving the elements to disintegrate the lumps before thoroughly hoeing or raking and planting. Plow or spade to the depth of the spade, about April 15, when the soil is workable, without attempting to crush the clods. After about three weeks, when the soil is still moist, hoe or harrow and plant uncut potatoes. Lime probably will do no harm, but is necessary only if a test with blue litmus paper indicates acidity. Every autumn, manure heavily and plow, letting the action of the elements slowly improve the soil.

Q.—In our town of 25,000 there is a movement started to plant the vacant lots in gardens. Through your valuable paper many are inspired to take up this work. 1. Have you any suggestions that will be of help to a small town? 2. I suppose there are plans for different sized lots, as well as lists that may be used to advantage.—Mrs. F. H. Funk, president Seventeenth congressional district, Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs.

Answer—1. Referred. 2. Plans for back yard gardens, for vacant lots and for larger tracts, will be fully treated in next Sunday's TRIBUNE. A preliminary list was published with the "zone map" Monday, March 5. Probably all of Bloomington and vicinity are equivalent to the second and third zones of Chicago. Further lists will be published in this department of THE TRIBUNE in ample time for their requirement, from time to time.

Q.—Will you please send me a recipe for raising head lettuce?

Ans.—Start it now in a cigar box or window box, as explained in the issues of March 9 and 10. Subsequent treatment will be fully explained in due time.

Bright Sayings of the Children

"The Tribune" will pay $1 for each childish saying printed. The only condition is the story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. Write on one side of the paper only. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unavailable contributions. Address bright sayings to Aunty Bee, "Tribune," Chicago.

Karl started to kindergarten. His brother, Robert, had attended the same one last year. The instructor, calling Karl Robert so often, became provoked at herself and said: "Well, Karl, I don't know why I always call you Robert."

"I guess I know," answered Karl, seriously, "I have on Robert's waist and his pants and his shoes."

Mrs. H.

A little girl had a baby brother arrive not long ago. Some days later her mother was reproving her for the soiled appearance of her hands.

"Just see," she said, "how clean your little brother is."

"O, mamma," she replied, "it makes a great difference; he's new."

E. N. C.

Jimmie was taken to the movies for the first time. The play was rather strenuous and Jimmie watched every move of a ferocious acting pirate. Finally as he came threateningly toward the front of the screen Jimmie moved up close to his aunt and said in a frightened little voice, "He don't know me, does he auntie?"

M. E. B.

Toddy was visiting her twin cousins, Helen and Marie, who were sitting next to one another at the dinner table. When Marie left the table for a few minutes, Toddy missed her and said to Helen: "Where is that other girl that belongs to you?"

Saves Eggs

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder makes it possible to produce appetizing and wholesome cakes, muffins, cornbread, etc., with fewer eggs than are usually required.

In many recipes the number of eggs may be reduced and excellent results obtained by using an additional quantity of Dr. Price's Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, in place of each egg omitted. The following tested recipe is a practical illustration:

SPONGE CAKE

- 1 cup sugar
- ½ cup water
- 3 eggs
- 2 teaspoons Dr. Price's Baking Powder
- 1 cup flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ½ cup cold water
- 1 teaspoon flavoring

DIRECTIONS:—Boil sugar and water until syrup spins a thread and add to the stiffly beaten whites of eggs, beating until the mixture is cold. Sift together three times the flour, salt and baking powder; beat yolks of eggs until thick; add a little at a time flour mixture and egg yolks alternately to white of egg mixture, stirring after each addition. Add ½ cup cold water and flavoring. Mix lightly and bake in moderate oven one hour.

The old method called for six eggs and no baking powder

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! Is tongue coated, breath feverish and stomach sour?

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sours.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is ofttimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company.—Advertisement.

Miss Pearl McAdams
DAGUERRE Photo

Miss Pearl McAdams will give an interpretation of a Czibulka waltz tomorrow at the Auditorium hotel at the annual meeting of the Fashion Art league of America.

Jackson Park Artists' Colony Has a Frolic

THERE were high jinks and most unusual ones Sunday evening in the Jackson park artists' colony at the corner of Stony Island avenue and East Fifty-seventh street. The bewitching little Fuller sisters sang a lot of English and Irish folk songs in the studio of Miss Florence Hendershot of 1541 East Fifty-seventh street, and many of the artists of the city and of the university colony nearby were invited to come.

Preceding the musical there was a dinner party behind almost every one of the mysteriously curtained frontages of those weird little studios. Miss Margaret Rhodes entertained a party of twelve, at which her guests were university people. Miss Kathleen Wheeler, the young English sculptor, a life long friend of the singers, gave a dinner, at which they were the guests of honor; Dr. J. Elliot Colburn and Miss Helen Webster were other hosts of the evening. After the musical Mrs. Theron Cooper entertained a party for the Misses Fuller in her studio.

Rehearsals for the "Junior League Revel," to be held April 10 in the Auditorium theater, will begin March 20 under the direction of Miss Grace Ger[illegible] in the crystal ballroom of the Blackstone hotel. Miss Isabella Holt is this year's president of the league.

A branch shop of the American Red Cross for making surgical supplies and dressings is being established for the members of the Sunbeam league and their friends, to meet at the Hotel La Salle every Tuesday morning from 9 until 1 o'clock, beginning today.

◆

Tuesday in Lent is this year the great lecture day. The fourth of the series being given for the benefit of the University of Chicago settlement will be given this afternoon in the assembly room of the Fine Arts building by Prof. Albert A. Michelson, who is said to be one of the greatest authorities in the world on light and who was a Nobel prize winner a few years ago. He will talk on "The Wonders of Time and Space" at 4 o'clock.

Harry Weisbach of the Chicago Symphony orchestra will give a violin recital this morning at 11 o'clock in the Fortnightly clubrooms in the Fine Arts building, the occasion to be the first in the series of four weekly events for the benefit of the Henry Booth house extension fund. Miss Camille Henry is in charge of the series.

The Rev. Charles F. Wishart will speak this morning at 11 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Morris L. Johnston of 1636 Prairie avenue on "Paying the Fare on the Tarshish Liner," the lecture to be given for the benefit of the parish house of the Second Presbyterian church.

Mrs. E. E. Chandler of 5230 University avenue will open her home this morning at 10:45 o'clock for the third of Mrs. Anthony F. Merrill's lectures, this one to be on "The Year in Verse—Poets and Poems of the Season."

◆

Mrs. Joseph T. Bowen, president of the Woman's City club, will be the guest of honor this afternoon at a reception to be given her by the Cordon in their rooms in the Fine Arts building. The reception will be at 2:30 o'clock, and at 4 o'clock Mrs. Bowen will tell of the work of her club.

A benefit card party will be given at the Edgewater Beach hotel Thursday afternoon, March 22, at 2 o'clock, the proceeds to go to the Chicago Equal Suffrage association. Mrs. Helen Adelaide Goldsmith will be in charge of the party. Prizes, which will include a phonograph, theater tickets, hams, bags of potatoes, and other valuables will be given.

Mrs. James S. Stone of 664 Rush street is spending the month of March in Washington, D. C.

'Round About Chicago Clubs

"A WELL informed student of eugenics would be the last person in the world to pretend that all men are born equal," said Mrs. Edward H. Thompson yesterday, speaking before the philosophy and science department of the Chicago Woman's club on the subject of "Equality Practically Considered."

"But, perhaps, he would be the first to say that they should be born more nearly equal and as nearly up to the standard as their stock will permit. Having discarded nature's method of killing off the unfit, our back to nature clamorers should invent some method of offsetting this in the way of preventing at least the palpably unfit from reproducing their kind, lest they overrun the earth.

"The subject of 'inequality' is the old, old duel between the democracy and the aristocracy of the earth, but it should be remembered that the aristocrat is not indicated primarily by the color of his skin or the shape and size of his brain-box, but by the culture grade to which he has attained. We should begin our children's education with their great-grandparents."

◆

The Woman's club building fund campaign will come to a close today with a luncheon in the clubrooms at 12 o'clock, at which the sixty captains of the campaign are to turn in their report on the amounts collected during the two weeks past. None of the captains has been heard from as yet, but already $6,000 has been collected.

It is expected that the $100,000 which was the goal of the campaign committee will be more than realized when all the reports are received.

Miss Amelia Sears spoke at a meeting of ward leaders of the Woman's City club yesterday urging greater activity among the women of the club in watching the work of the aldermen in the various wards, citing the recent gas explosion in West Fourteenth place as one of the tragedies which might be avoided by the passage of proper ordinances.

The Woman's City club, Henry Booth house, the Legal Aid society, the Jewish charities, and other civic and social organizations have been watching the progress of the inquest over the gas explosion victims. Numbers of civil suits have already been started and the coroner's verdict against the gas company, it was predicted, will make it easier to obtain a just settlement of these claims.

An anti-can and ash campaign was advocated for the Fifteenth, Eighteenth, and Seventeenth wards, where, it is stated, ashes, garbage, and tin cans make the streets and alleys unbearable.

At noon today the Woman's City club's committee on police stations and jails will meet at the new Mary Dawes hotel.

Ermina Carry Believes Her Own Country Comes First

BY CINDERELLA.

WHO says Ermina Carry is not a thoroughgoing young brick? How many girls, or men either, for that matter, would be on the Atlantic now, tossing about in choppy March seas, when they might be safe and comfy in England, all because they want to serve their own country first?

Harry Gordon Selfridge cabled yesterday from London that Miss Carry, who has been visiting his daughters, had sailed for home and was due to arrive in New York Saturday, or Sunday. This was the last of a score of cablegrams in the last fortnight between Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carry and their daughter urging her to stay on in England with the Selfridges.

She was anxious to return on account of the prospective war with Germany and her desire to serve under her own flag. The Selfridges would take no responsibility and wanted their young guest to stay on and nurse the wounded in the London hospitals.

◆

It seems that four great London hospitals had recently opened their doors to Ermina Carry and Violette Selfridge, each of whom had six wounded soldiers under her care. They worked together, the two girls, from early morning till late at night. The Carrys thought it was a wonderful chance for their daughter to win a real and valuable experience in the great war and at the same time be safe on dry land.

This last cable shows that her own country comes first and that the little Chicago lady this winter is now braving all the terrors of the sea in her loyalty to her own native land.

◆

If only our government were as quick to act as our women are swift to enroll themselves! Witness the women of St. Joseph's No. 11 unit, the rest remaining from the great class of last winter which took first aid first in Chicago. Out of twenty-nine members only four have have just lined up for the three weeks course of the final test. These are Mrs. William Stephenson, Mrs. H. H. Shearson, Mrs. William Hubbard, and Miss Grace Witherspoon.

◆

I don't know what they'll be when they're through this time, opinions seem to differ. The women themselves seem to think they can go forth with base hospital unit No. 11 and find the front. Other people seem to think that a pretty diploma is as far as we'll ever get. Here's wishing that all the Red Cross people would get together and tell the same story.

The other day a lady of certain years was enlisting for a home nursing course when she was firmly halted by the nurse in charge of registration.

"Nobody over 35 can be enrolled," she declared, which seems to be a new rule, for several very enthusiastic grandmammas one wots of are studying in the various home nursing courses.

Those who liked "The Common Law" will flock to the Studebaker to see "The Price She Paid." They are cut out of the same quality of cloth and resemble each other greatly in their purpose. The mission of David Graham Phillips' books were to entertain and amuse. The duty of the film is the same, and this it has succeeded in admirably accomplishing.

Total sales of stocks, 850,000 shares.

Total sales of bonds (par value), $3,840,000.

BY MARK WATSON.

New York, March 12.—[Special.]—The continued domination of the market by professional speculators was evidenced today by the quick decline of prices, without any apparent reason for weakness. The selling came from a clique of operators who joined early in the recent buying movement, and now are liquidating.

To explain the declines there was mention of President Wilson's illness, which might cause a decrease in the preparedness activity, but the prime reason was the desire of the professionals to get out with the profits which have been building for a week.

The rails, which have been sluggish for a week showed more activity at the opening than in a long time, and sold upward briskly, partly on the assurances of the brotherhoods' presidents that there will be no strike during the present national emergency. Later in the day there were material recessions, but most of the rails retained a part of the morning's advance.

Weakness in Marines.

There was marked weakness in the marines. The unbelievers say that they will expect the American line vessels to leave port when they see them lift anchor and not before. They refer to the fact that the German warning is now six weeks old. Generally, however, there is a belief that the arming of the ships will be completedw shortly, and the ships will return to the high seas.

Indifference was displayed toward the report that the Italian government purposes further action to remedy the weakness of Italian exchange, the specific in this case being a reduction of imports. The indifference is due to the fact that Italy doubtless will continue to buy as many necessities in the American markets as she is able to buy, and has not been importing much except necessities any way.

Braces Italian Exchange.

The story had a slightly tonic effect on Italian exchange, however, bracing it after it had sold off in the forenoon to 7.83, which was near enough the low record of last week to cause worry. Foreign exchange generally was dull, with rubles a bit firmer.

Steel started with a good advance, but on the first selling movement began to dip, and closed near the bottom, with a net loss of 2 points. Utah Copper sold off 3 points and closed at the bottom, as did American Smelting, with a loss of 2¼ points. Anaconda showed a drop of 2¾ points and Kennecott lost. The drop in Smelting was in the face of the statement of 30 per cent earnings, good reserves, and favorable comment on the position the stock holds.

And so the public finds itself justified in suspicions previously held about the market possibilities when the professionals are the only traders.

The average daily connections were 29,420,000, or at the rate of 100 calls per year for every persons in the United States. Expenses, however, were heavy, and the company plans large issues of securities this year in connection with a proposed expenditure of $60,000,000.

The Bell system has 19,850,315 miles of wires and over 70,000 stockholders. The revenue account and balance sheet follow:

The more important features affording security to the Preferred shareholders are summarized as follows:

1. BUSINESS. The Company is one of the largest and most successful manufacturers of rubber products in the world. Gross business, which in the fiscal year ending October 31st, 1916, amounted to $63,950,399.52, is now running at the rate of $100,000,000.00 a year. To provide additional working capital for the conduct of this volume of business, Preferred and Common Stock is issued at this time. The Company produces 22,000 automobile tires per day, approximately one-fifth of the total daily production of the entire country. Besides automobile tires, it manufactures bicycle and motor truck tires, solid tires for carriages and cabs, a complete line of hose, belting, packing and molded goods. It has also developed Neolin—a new substance for soles for shoes—and is producing over 80,000 soles per day.

The following comparative data shows the development of the business of the Company:

	Ground Space	Floor Space	No. of Employees	Volume Business
1900	12 Acres	1 2-3 Acres	1,5	1,035,000
1917	150 Acres	84 Acres	20,000	100,000,000 Est.

2. PREFERENCES. This stock has preference as to assets and dividends. There are no outstanding bonds or mortgages, and the Company may not issue any obligations maturing later than one year from their issue or place any mortgage or other lien on the assets of the Company or issue any stock having priority over or parity with this authorized issue of Preferred Stock, except with the consent of three-fourths of the amount of the Preferred Stock outstanding.

3. ASSETS. The financial statement of the Company as of January 30th, 1917, shows Total Net Assets in excess of $46,600,000, or over $203 for each share of Preferred Stock, and Net Quick Assets in excess of $28,700,000, or over $124 for each share of Preferred Stock. The American Appraisal Company in the appraisal of the Fixed Assets of the Company as of October 31st, 1916, showed a valuation of $4,279,997.53 in excess of the amount at which these items are carried on its books.

The Company is required to maintain at all times Total Net Assets equivalent to 200% and New Quick Assets of 115% of the aggregate par value of Preferred Stock outstanding.

4. NET EARNINGS have increased from $3,001,294.71 for the fiscal year ending October 31st, 1912, to $7,003,330.09 for the fiscal year ending October 31st, 1916, and at the present rate of increase profits will run in excess of $10,000,000 for this year. For the last fiscal year Net Earnings were over four times the dividend requirements of the Preferred Stock outstanding and that about to be issued.

5. SINKING FUND. During the year ending October 1st, 1917, and in each of the four years thereafter, the Company shall redeem and cancel not less than 2½% in par value of the outstanding Preferred Stock and in each year thereafter not less than 5% in par value of the outstanding Preferred Stock. This stock is to be redeemed at $112 and accrued dividend per share if the same cannot be purchased in the open market for less.

The above figures representing assets, earnings and business are taken from the reports of The Audit Company of New York and of The American Appraisal Company, both as of October 31st, 1916, supplemented by statements from the Company's books showing the condition January 30th, 1917, and including the proceeds from the sale of this Preferred Stock and the Common Stock about to be issued.

FEAR OF U-BOATS OFF WEST INDIES MARKET FACTOR

Traders Work on Theory That Such Appearance Would Cause Drop.

Fear of the appearance of submarines in West Indian waters is beginning to have a pronounced influence on market sentiment. The attitude of large traders and their market movements largely are based on guessing what the effect of the appearance of such submarines would have on public sentiment. It is the expectation now that, temporarily at least, it would be highly unfavorable.

In substantial quarters there is no expectation that submarine warfare on this side could be more than passing in its influence or effectiveness. But since American vessels are being armed it is assumed that German submarines will not hesitate to attack them. The market for some weeks has been under the impression that following secret orders German submarines have up to this time refrained from torpedoing American owned ships.

Whatever may be the effect on market quotations, it seems certain that submarine activity would make a great stir at Washington and promote at once the campaign of preparedness. Since this latter is something that has been looked forward to as a condition calculated to make business more active in certain lines and thus be an effective bull card, the market guessers have two lines of thought open to them in predicting results.

Russia Sending Gold to U. S.

According to reports current in the New York financial district yesterday, the Russian government is contributing largely to the continued heavy imports of gold for account of the entente powers. The $41,000,000 which came last Saturday from Canada was said to have contained a considerable amount of gold shipped from Petrograd. Some French gold also figured in this particular consignment, according to report.

It is understood that the French and Russian governments are sharing more importantly in the recent shipments of gold to this country. J. P. Morgan & Co., to whom all the gold has been consigned as the fiscal and commercial agents of the British and French governments, stated that the leading representatives in the entente countries are coöperating in the maintenance of credits here. Other heavy shipments of foreign gold are said to be in prospect, all by way of Canada.

In addition to last Saturday's record breaking consignment, another $8,500,000 came yesterday. This makes a total of $213,500,000 since the beginning of the year, and establishes a basis for credits fivefold in excess of that sum. Since Jan. 1, 1915, the total is $1,350,000,000.

Youngstown Steel Sale Announced.

At last the purchase of the Youngstown Iron and Steel company is officially announced. S. P. Kerr, president of the Steel Hoop company of Sharon, Pa., issued the following statement relative to the Youngstown concern, whose capital is $2,000,000:

"The entire capital stock of the Youngstown Iron and Steel company has been purchased by the Sharon Steel Hoop company at $200 per share. To complete this transaction an issue of bonds to the extent of $2,000,000 has been arranged. The remaining stock not taken by the former stockholders is being taken pro rata by the stockholders of the Sharon Steel Hoop company at par."

Poor's Manual of Railroads, 1917.

Poor's Manual of Railroads, the half century annual number, has been received. It is the 1917 edition. It contains statements of companies for the year ended June 30, 1916, and also much important information furnished the manual up to the time of going to press. The compilers have inagurated a new feature which shows a margin of safety over interest and dividend requirements of individual stocks and bonds. No expression of opinion as to values is given. The bond revisions for 1917 are much enlarged as compared with those of previous issues of the manual.

Copper Companies' Earnings.

The American Smelting and Refining company in 1916 shows net earnings of $23,574,527, compared with $14,472,612 for the previous year. The surplus, after interest, depreciation, reserves, and preferred dividends, amounted to $16,158,-[illegible], equivalent to 29.75 per cent on the outstanding common stock, compared with 14.06 per cent in the previous year.

The Quincy Mining company in its annual report shows a dividend balance of $2,[illegible], an increase of $884,984 over [illegible], this being equal to $25 per share on the capital, against $17 for 1915. The company secures an average price of about 26½ cents a pound for its copper.

Chicago Securities.

Local stocks were moderately active. Prices were quite irregular. National Carbon was up 5 points, while Union Carbide sold off 1⅝ from the opening. Stewart-Warner and Peoples Gas were fractionally lower. Booth Fisheries common was in good demand and fractionally higher. There was no pronounced movement in any issue.

Money and Exchange.

In Foreign Stock Markets.

LONDON, March 12.—Money was in moderate demand and discount rates were quiet today. In order to assist Italian exchange arrangements have been completed to open an Italian credit here similar to the Russian, with bills renewable periodically and secured by a deposit of Italian treasury bills. The stock market developed a quiet and firm undertone, under the combined influence of week end orders and good war news. British funds improved, and foreigners, especially Chinese, Scandinavian, and South American issues, were strong. Peruvians were a point lower on rumors of a revolutionary outbreak. Business broadened in rubber stocks and industrials, but American securities were neglected. Bar silver, 36⅞d per ounce. Money, 4¼ per cent. Discount rates: Short bills, 4⅞; three months, 4⅞ per cent.

PARIS, March 12.—Trading was quiet on the bourse today. Rentes, 61 francs 25 centimes. Exchange on London, 27 francs 82½ centimes. Five per cent loan, 88 francs 5 centimes.

"War Loans and the United States"
The Story of War Financing and Its Bearing on National Growth

HISTORY proves that the sacrifices and discipline of War have served to increase thrift, create efficiency and develop resources. The financial record of American Wars is one of patriotism and vision. War obligations have been readily met and economic progress made.

For the first time in its history, the United States has now become a creditor nation, and by meeting the needs of other nations is able to strengthen its own financial and commercial position.

Every citizen is concerned in the situation presented and its relation to his own affairs.

How American Wars since 1776 have been financed and these War debts discharged; the economic effect of War loans in this country and in Europe; lessons taught by experience and the opportunities offered for the future are described in a booklet entitled "War Loans and the United States," issued and sent upon request by the

Non-Speculative Farm Mortgages

Farm mortgages are a form of investment as old as the pyramids. Laws concerning them can be traced back over four thousand years. Send for our March circular. It contains historical information of interest, also a photographic reproduction of an Assyrian farm mortgage 2350 years old.

The circular also contains descriptions of 137 first lien farm mortgages, each secured by its individual productive farm worth at least over twice the size of the mortgage. The mortgages are in denominations of $250 to $8,000, are made with our own funds and net from 5% to 6% per annum.

During our 32 years' experience of lending to the American Farmer we have not permitted a single client to suffer loss.

Heavy liquidation and stoploss selling broke wheat futures sharply yesterday. May was relatively weakest and at the low point was 7c under Saturday's close and 12⅝c below the high figure reached last week. It closed 6¼-⅝c lower. New crop months were off 2⅝@4c. Fear that a railroad strike will completely demoralize transportation started the selling. There were also some vague rumors of peace, as well as better weather conditions over the winter wheat country.

It was apparent Saturday, however, that holders were becoming discouraged at the action of the market and consequently no great force was necessary to bring on liquidation. Wheat is moving to the seaboard in limited quantities because of the railroad congestion and there is little hope of early relief. Meanwhile the exporters are turning to Canadian wheat and daily re-selling of American grain is reported as a result of inability to ship.

Rain and Snow Southwest.

Rain and snow was reported at numerous points in Kansas and Nebraska and apparently the precipition was quite general and of fair volume. If confirmed it will probably relieve apprehension over the general condition of the crop. A little export interest in gulf wheat was reported, with sales of a few scattered lots claimed, but the seaboard said there appeared to be no demand of volume. Clearances of wheat and flour for the day were 1,303,000 bu, compared with 1,751,000 bu a year ago.

The visible supply showed a decrease of 1,779,000 bu for the week, while Canadian stocks had a shrinkage of 1,385,000 bu for the period. North America shipped 7,301,000 bu last week, against 5,381,000 bu the previous week and 9,727,000 bu a year ago. Australia and India shipped only 760,000 bu. Primary receipts totaled 1,414,000 bu, against 1,774,000 bu a year ago.

Corn Finally Gives Way.

Corn exhibited a stubborn tone much of the day, but finally gave way with wheat. Resting spots showed declines of 1⅛@1⅝c for the day. Heavy selling was a late feature. Houses with eastern connections and several of the larger local traders were active buyers during the morning. Possibility of a railroad strike was regarded as both bullish and bearish, the former because of the small local stocks and the latter on account of restricted movement to the seaboard.

Cash corn was 1@1½c lower, with shipping sales here 25,000 bu. Some export inquiry at the seaboard was reported. Clearances for the day were 298,000 bu. North America shipped 1,488,000 bu last week, against 856,000 bu a year ago. The visible supply decreased 254,000 bu for the week. Primary receipts totaled 1,199,000 bu, against 1,271,000 bu a year ago.

Oats Also Rule Lower.

Oats followed wheat to lower levels, closing with losses of 1@1½c. Cash oats were ½@1½c lower, with local shipping sales 305,000 bu, including 250,000 bu to New Orleans for export. Clearances for the day were 315,000 bu. North America shipped 3,096,000 bu last week, against 1,820,000 bu a year ago. The visible supply decreased 745,000 bu, while Canadian stocks fell 791,000 bu for the week. Primary receipts were 1,409,000 bu, against 850,000 bu a year ago.

Provisions were comparatively quiet and closed generally a little lower. The decline in hogs and weakness in grains depressed the market and there was no good buying noted, while considerable selling was done by scattered holders. Hog receipts west totaled 138,900 head, against 142,000 a year ago. Lard exports from Atlantic ports last week were 4,768,000 lbs, against 7,438,000 lbs a year ago, while 26,587,000 lbs bacon were shipped out, including 18,000,000 lbs from Portland not previously reported, against 8,421,000 lbs a year ago.

Firm Market for Rye.

Rye was firm, with No. 2 selling at $1.59@1.59½. Receipts were 27 cars.

Barley ruled strong. Malting was quoted $1.15@1.32 and sold $1.16@1.30; feed and mixing quotable $1.03@1.12, with a sale at $1.10; screenings were quoted 50c@$1.02, and sold 70@78c; skimmings quotable 75@80c. Receipts, 90 cars.

Timothy seed was quiet; March, $5.90 nominal. Cash lots sold $4.45@5.00. Cloverseed ruled easy. Cash lots, $12.00@17.50 and spot prime $18.00.

Flaxseed closed 4¼c lower. Cash quoted $2.85¼@2.94¼ nominal. Duluth was 3⅝@4¾c, Minneapolis 4¼c, and Winnipeg 2¼@3¼c lower respectively.
